Nations Children 1 The Family Social C:

Child Welfare Kathleen Kufeldt, Brad McKenzie, 2011-07-22 Children who receive child welfare services are a vulnerable group and their numbers are growing All who care about them need to be fully informed about current outcomes indicators of success and failure and best practices This second edition of Child Welfare Connecting Research Policy and Practice has a special focus on Canadian child welfare and contains entirely new material on these important themes The book highlights major developments in child welfare and shows how these inform directions taken in research policy and practice The book includes new sections on Indigenous issues and best practices and several of its chapters review efforts to increase supports for families in need Contributions from new and international authors illustrate the endemic nature of child welfare challenges and how we can learn from these experiences Contributors provide recommendations for promoting best practice and enhancing resilience among children and families Closing chapters within each section and at the end of the book summarize key theoretical and practice issues along with recommendations to improve the research policy and practice continuum in child welfare The challenge is to translate good research into policy and practice in ways that enhance the life chances of children who need our care and protection

Walking This Path Together Jeannine Carrière, 2020-07-10T00:00:00Z Walking This Path Together is an edited collection devoted to improving the lives of children and families that come to the attention of child welfare authorities by demonstrating and advocating for socially just child welfare practices In this new updated edition authors provide special consideration to the historical and political context of child welfare in Canada and theoretical ideas and concrete practices that support practitioners educators and students who are looking for anti racist anti oppressive and anti colonial perspectives on child welfare practice

Children's Rights Ursula Kilkelly, 2017-07-05 The articles in this volume shed light on some of the major tensions in the field of children's rights such as the ways in which children's best interests and respect for their autonomy can be reconciled challenges such as how the CRC can be made a reality in the lives of children in the face of ignorance apathy or outright opposition and critiques whether children's rights are a Western imposition or a successful global consensus Along the way the writing covers a myriad of issues encompassing the opposition to the CRC in the US gay parenting Dr Seuss's take on children's autonomy the voice of neonates on their health care the role of NGO in supporting child labourers in India and young people in detention and more

Decolonising Indigenous Child Welfare Terri Libesman, 2013-12-04 During the past decade a remarkable transference of responsibility to Indigenous children's organisation has taken place in many parts of Australia Canada the USA and New Zealand It has been influenced by Indigenous peoples human rights advocacy at national and international levels by claims to self determination and by the globalisation of Indigenous children's organisations Thus far this reform has taken place with little attention from academic and non Indigenous communities now Decolonising Indigenous Child Welfare Comparative Perspectives considers these developments and evaluating law reform with respect to Indigenous child welfare asks whether the pluralisation of responses to their welfare and well being within a cross cultural post colonial context can improve the lives of Indigenous children The legislative frameworks for the delivery of child welfare services to Indigenous children are assessed in terms of the degree of self determination which they afford Indigenous communities The book draws upon interdisciplinary research and the author s experience collaborating with the peak Australian Indigenous children s organisation for over a decade to provide a thorough examination of this international issue Dr Terri Libesman is a Senior Lecturer in the Law Faculty at the University of Technology Sydney She has collaborated researched and published for over a decade with the peak Australian Indigenous children s organisation
