Karl Nerenberg

Nations Nationalities Peoples:

Nations--nationalities--people Michael Bruchis,1984 Part of a trilogy on minority policies of the USSR with special reference to those of former Soviet Moldavia is based on first hand experiences and original materials The African Charter of Human and Peoples' Rights Fatsah Ouguergouz,2021-11-22 This work reveals the true dimension of the African Charter through a systematic analysis of its real or apparent innovations and a detailed assessment of the commitments of the States parties It also analyzes the effectiveness of the mechanism put in place to monitor compliance with those commitments examining the practice of the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights from its establishment in 1987 It incorporates major recent achievements in the field of the protection of human rights in Africa including the creation of the African Court of Human and Peoples Rights and the establishment of the African Union This work is the expanded and updated English version of La Charte africaine des droits de l homme et des peuples Une approche juridique des droits de l homme entre tradition et modernit Presses Universitaires de France Paris Ethiopia and Political Renaissance in Africa Bertus Praeg,2006 The Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia has made fresh attempts to deal with the intra state challenges to the nation state in multi ethnic societies This book examines how that country is trying to implement a programme of decentralising state power to ethnically based regional constituencies which could be of interest to other countries in Africa The study reveals that the Ethiopian Experiment questions conventional images of polyethnic states This book presents a practical example of the formulation of new approaches towards ethnicity federalism and objective nation statehood attempting to examine the changing meaning of ethnicity and nationalism throughout history in Western Europe to discuss how they impacted on state formations in Africa and to consider why Ethiopia stands unique in the process of state building versus ethnicity The study elaborates the factors which convinced the new Ethiopian leadership to embark on such a revolutionary path one on which each of the country s Nations Nationalities and Peoples is guaranteed the right to self government self determination and even independence federalism and the transition to democracy

Handbook of Federal Countries, 2005 Karl Nerenberg,2005 Handbook of federal countries 2005 edited by Ann L Griffiths coordinated by Karl Nerenberg The Yugoslav community of nations Frits W. Hondius,2019-01-14 No detailed description available for The Yugoslav community of nations Nation vs. People Dzemail Sokolovic,2009-03-26 The book is provoked by the recent tragedy of Bosnia and the clash within a paradigmatic multicultural society It offers theoretical responses both to the challenge of Bosnia and to the global challenge of how to reconcile two facts of the modern world and the threat that stems from this the existence of 200 states and their commitment to their own integrities and the existence of 8000 ethnic groups and their devotion to keep their identities alive The question the book raises is whether nation state and democracy are the proper and only answers to these challenges Presenting conceptual controversies about two of the most discussed and disputed concepts of the present day the author insists on totally new notions of nation and people ethnic group narod folk He maintains that ethnicity and nationality have hitherto been defined mainly in terms of culture and politics in anthropology and political science Both concepts are however basically societal phenomena and therefore fall primarily within the subject domain of sociology By combining a theoretical analysis with experience from Bosnia the book provides definitions of concepts such as ethnic group and nation and thereby ensures a new perspective and analytical tool for an international audience of academics and officials in international institutions and organizations While the book is written in an academic style it is nevertheless accessible to a broader audience professors willing to test their own views and students keen to meet new approaches academics eager to face new theoretical challenges and politicians ready to apply new emerging expertise international practitioners capable of learning from life and local activists able to make up new theoretical responses to global issues

From Peoples Into Nations John Connelly, 2022-01-25 This book is a history of East Central Europe since the late eighteenth century the region of Europe between German central Europe and Russia in the East Connelly argues the region for which it is frequently hard to define exact boundaries and which is sometimes treated country by country in a way seemingly separate from the broader trends of European history was one of shared experience despite most of the peoples being divided by linguistic geographic and political barriers Beginning in the 1780s an unwitting Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that his subjects would use only German as he hoped to mold a common nationality using German over the disparate subjects Instead he unleashed the energies and struggle for the emergence of new nations that pitted small peoples armed with an idea against empires The author argues that the underlying national self assertion which emerged under imperial rule in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries shows deep connections to subsequent histories to the creation of nation states of the regions after World War I the failure of democratic rule in these states during the interwar years the submersion of the region under Nazi then Soviet rule after 1939 and to the reinvention of sovereign states and then the break up of two of them after 1989 The book interconnects major themes and country histories for first time chronicling this diverse region over many generations from the time of Joseph through democratic and socialist revolutions genocide and Stalinism through civil society movements struggling for liberal democracy into our own day when illiberal politicians come to power by exploiting very old fears

Burden of Nationality Jacob J. Akol, 2006

Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008 The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007 These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde Given the contemporary salience and the historical depth of the issue of identity the congress was devoted to that global phenomenon within Africa The papers explore and analyse the issue of identity in its diverse temporal settings from its pre colonial roots to its cotemporary manifestations The papers are divided into six parts Pre Colonial Identities Colonialism and Identity Conceptions of the Nation State and Identity Identity Based Conflicts Migration and Acculturation and Memory History and Identity The authors are scholars from Benin Botswana Cameroon the Democratic Republic of Congo Ethiopia Mali Nigeria Senegal South Africa and Zimbabwe Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies and Vice President of the Association of African Historians He was formerly Chairperson of the Department of History and Director of the Institute of Ethiopian Studies at Addis Ababa University Amongst his publication is A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855 1991 Peoples and International Law James Summers, 2014-04-09 Peoples and International Law is a detailed survey of the law of self determination with a focus on the concept of nations and peoples It engages with different aspects of this law with particular emphasis on the drafting and implementation of international instruments The second edition includes new coverage of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the African and Arab charters It considers recent practice by the Human Rights Committee Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights dealing with the emerging political economic and environmental aspects of the right The book looks at the interaction of international law nationalism and liberalism in theories of nationhood and self determination as well as the historical development of the right and the decisions of international bodies Lastly it examines practice in this area including new developments in remedial independence and international territorial administration Also available in hardback
