Native North America Critical And Cultural Perspectives:

Native North America Renée Hulan, 1999 Working against the conventional idea that Native North American literatures are primarily of anthropological and sociological value they emphasize the importance of artistic expression in the life of native communities Arctic Modernities Heidi Hansson, Anka Ryall, 2018-01-23 Less tangible than melting polar glaciers or the changing social conditions in northern societies the modern Arctic represented in writings visual images and films has to a large extent been neglected in scholarship and policy making However the modern Arctic is a not only a natural environment dramatically impacted by human activities It is also an incongruous amalgamation of exoticized indigenous tradition and a mundane everyday The chapters in this volume examine the modern Arctic from all these perspectives They demonstrate to what extent the processes of modernization have changed the discursive signification of the Arctic They also investigate the extent to which the traditions of heroic Arctic images whether these traditions are affirmed contested or repudiated have continued to shape influence and inform modern discourses Sometimes the Arctic is seen as synonymous with modernity itself Sometimes it appears as a utopian space signalling a different future However it still often represents the continued survival within modernity of the past as nostalgia longing dream and myth The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature James Howard Cox, Daniel Heath Justice, 2014 Over the course of the last twenty years Native American and Indigenous American literary studies has experienced a dramatic shift from a critical focus on identity and authenticity to the intellectual cultural political historical and tribal nation contexts from which these Indigenous literatures emerge The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature reflects on these changes and provides a complete overview of the current state of the field The Handbook's forty three essays organized into four sections cover oral traditions poetry drama non fiction fiction and other forms of Indigenous American writing from the seventeenth through the twenty first century Part I attends to literary histories across a range of communities providing for example analyses of Inuit Chicana o Anishinaabe and M tis literary practices Part II draws on earlier disciplinary and historical contexts to focus on specific genres as authors discuss Indigenous non fiction emergent trans Indigenous autobiography Mexicanoh and Spanish poetry Native drama in the U S and Canada and even a new Indigenous children's literature canon The third section delves into contemporary modes of critical inquiry to expound on politics of place comparative Indigenism trans Indigenism Native rhetoric and the power of Indigenous writing to communities of readers A final section thoroughly explores the geographical breadth and expanded definition of Indigenous American through detailed accounts of literature from Indian Territory the Red Atlantic the far North Yucat n Amerika Samoa and Francophone Quebec Together the volume is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Indigenous American literatures published to date It is the first to fully take into account the last twenty years of recovery and scholarship and the first to most significantly address the diverse range of texts secondary archives writing traditions literary histories geographic and political contexts and critical discourses in the field

Native Hubs Renya K. Ramirez, 2007 An ethnography of urban Native Americans in the Silicon Valley that looks at the creation of social networks and community events that support tribal identities Iskwewak Kah' Ki Yaw Ni Wahkomakanak Janice Acoose, 2016-02-05 Now in its second edition this groundbreaking work of literary and cultural criticism analyzes representations of Indigenous women in Canadian literature By deconstructing stereotypical images of the Indian princess and easy squaw Janice Acoose calls attention to the racist and sexist depictions of Indigenous women in popular literature Blending personal narrative and literary criticism this revised edition draws a strong connection between the persistent negative cultural attitudes fostered by those stereotypical representations and the missing and murdered Indigenous women in Canada Acoose decolonizes written English by interweaving her own story with reflections on the self determination of her female ancestors and by highlighting influential Indigenous female writers who have resisted cultural stereotypes and reclaimed the literary field as their own This important text urges both Indigenous and non Indigenous people to move beyond words to challenge the harmful attitudes that condone violence against Indigenous women Thoroughly updated and featuring new photographs questions for critical thought and a discussion of Indigenous women's literary voices that have emerged in the past twenty years the second edition of Iskwewak is an invaluable resource for students and teachers of Indigenous studies women's studies and literature Taking Back Our Spirits Jo-Ann Episkew, 2009-05-01 From the earliest settler policies to deal with the Indian problem to contemporary government run programs ostensibly designed to help Indigenous people public policy has played a major role in creating the historical trauma that so greatly impacts the lives of Canada's Aboriginal peoples Taking Back Our Spirits traces the link between Canadian public policies the injuries they have inflicted on Indigenous people and Indigenous literature's ability to heal individuals and communities Episkew examines contemporary autobiography fiction and drama to reveal how these texts respond to and critique public policy and how literature functions as medicine to help cure the colonial contagion Indigenous Poetics in Canada Neal McLeod, 2014-05-16 Indigenous Poetics in Canada broadens the way in which Indigenous poetry is examined studied and discussed in Canada Breaking from the parameters of traditional English literature studies this volume embraces a wider sense of poetics including Indigenous oralities languages and understandings of place Featuring work by academics and poets the book examines four elements of Indigenous poetics First it explores the poetics of memory collective memory the persistence of Indigenous poetic consciousness and the relationships that enable the Indigenous storytelling process The book then explores the poetics of performance Indigenous poetics exist both in written form and in relation to an audience Third in an examination of the poetics of place and space the book considers contemporary Indigenous poetry and classical Indigenous narratives Finally in a section on the poetics of medicine contributors articulate the healing and restorative power of Indigenous poetry and narratives We Interrupt This Program Miranda J. Brady, John M.H. Kelly, 2017-11-01 We Interrupt This Program tells the story of how Indigenous people are using media tactics in the realms of art film television and journalism to rewrite Canada's national narratives from Indigenous perspectives Miranda Brady and John Kelly showcase the diversity of these interventions by offering personal accounts and reflections on key moments witnessing survivor testimonies at the Truth and Reconciliation Commission attending the opening night of the ImagineNative Film Media Festival and discussing representations of Indigenous people with artists such as Kent Monkman and Dana Claxton and with CBC journalist Duncan McCue These scene setting moments bring to life their argument that media tactics as articulations of Indigenous sovereignty have the power not only to effect change from within Canadian institutions and through established mediums but also to spark new forms of political and cultural expression in Indigenous communities and among Indigenous youth Theoretically sophisticated and eminently readable We Interrupt This Program reveals how seemingly unrelated acts by Indigenous activists across Canada are decolonizing our cultural institutions from within one intervention at a time

Troubling Tricksters Deanna Reder, Linda M. Morra, 2010-02-10 Troubling Tricksters is a collection of theoretical essays creative pieces and critical ruminations that provides a re-visioning of trickster criticism in light of recent backlash against it The complaints of some Indigenous writers the critique from Indigenous nationalist critics and the changing of academic fashion have resulted in few new studies on the trickster For example The Cambridge Companion to Native American Literature 2005 includes only a brief mention of the trickster with skeptical commentary And in 2007 Anishinaabe scholar Niigonwedom Sinclair a contributor to this volume called for a moratorium on studies of the trickster irrelevant to the specific experiences and interests of Indigenous nations One of the objectives of this anthology is then to encourage scholarship that is mindful of the critic's responsibility to communities and to focus discussions on incarnations of tricksters in their particular national contexts The contribution of Troubling Tricksters therefore is twofold to offer a timely counterbalance to this growing critical lacuna and to propose new approaches to trickster studies approaches that have been clearly influenced by the nationalists call for cultural and historical specificity

Travelling Knowledges Renate Eigenbrod, 2005 In the context of de-colonization the boundary between an Aboriginal text and the analysis by a non-Aboriginal outsider poses particular challenges often constructed as unbridgeable Eigenbrod argues that politically correct silence is not the answer but instead does a disservice to the literature that like all literature depends on being read taught and disseminated in various ways In Travelling Knowledges Eigenbrod suggests decolonizing strategies when approaching Aboriginal texts as an outsider and challenges conventional notions of expertise She concludes that literatures of colonized peoples have to be read ethically not only without colonial impositions of labels but also with the responsibility to read beyond the text or in Lee Maracle's words to become the architect of great social transformation Features the works of Jeannette Armstrong Okanagan Louise Halfe Cree Margo Kane Saulteaux Cree Maurice Kenny Mohawk Thomas King Cherokee living in Canada Emma LaRocque Cree Metis Lee Maracle Sto lo Metis Ruby Slipperjack Anishnaabe Lorne Simon Miikmaq Richard Wagamese Anishnaabe and Emma Lee Warrior Peigan
