Nato And Peace Support Operations 1991 1999 Policies And Doctrines:

NATO and Peace Support Operations, 1991-1999 Henning Frantzen, 2004-12-17 This new book addresses the key question of how NATO and three of its member states are configuring their policies and military doctrines in order to handle the new strategic environment This environment is increasingly dominated by new wars more precisely civil wars within states and peacekeeping as the strategy devised by outside actors for dealing with them The book seeks to explain how this new strategic environment has been interpreted and how the new conflicts and peacekeeping have been fitted into defence and war key concepts in the field of security studies Statebuilding and Justice Reform Matteo Tondini, 2010-02-25 The book provides an updated account of justice reform in Afghanistan which started in the wake of the US led military intervention of 2001 In particular it focuses on the role of international actors and their interaction with local stakeholders highlighting some provisional results together with problems and dilemmas encountered in the reform activities Since the mid 1990s justice system reform has become increasingly important in state building operations particularly with regard to the international administrations of Bosnia Kosovo East Slavonia and East Timor Statebuilding and Justice Reform examines in depth the reform of justice in Afghanistan evaluating whether the success of reform may be linked to any specific feature or approach In doing so it stresses the need for development programmes in the field of justice to be implemented through a multilateral approach involving domestic authorities and other relevant stakeholders Success is therefore linked to limiting the political interests of donors establishing functioning pooled financing mechanisms restricting the use of bilateral projects improving the efficacy of technical and financial aid and concentrating the attention on the demand for justice at local level rather than on the traditional supply of financial and technical assistance This book will be of much interest to students of Afghanistan intervention and statebuilding peacekeeping and post conflict reconstruction as well as International Relations in general Matteo Tondini is a researcher and a legal advisor He has served as a project advisor to the Embassy of Italy in Kabul Development Cooperation Unit working within the Afghanistan Justice Program and has a Phd in Political Systems and Institutional Change from the Institute of Advanced Studies Lucca Italy Peace without Politics? Ten Years of State-Building in Bosnia David Chandler, 2013-09-13 Ten years on from the signing of the Dayton Peace Agreement in November 1995 the legacy of the Bosnian war still shapes every aspect of the political social and economic environment of the tiny state This state of affairs is highlighted by the fact that Bosnia is still under international control with the Office of the International High Representative regularly using its powers to dismiss elected presidents prime ministers and MPs and to impose legislation over the resistance of elected legislatures at national regional and local level What has changed in the ten years since Dayton Is international regulation helping to establish a sustainable peace in Bosnia What lessons can be learned for nation building in Bosnia This volume was previously published as a special issue of the leading journal International Peacekeeping Security in Northern Europe John Andreas Olsen, 2019-03-04 NATO s Northern members are increasingly concerned about Russia's military activities This Whitehall Paper contains perspectives from prominent authors across the region showing how member states are responding individually and collectively to Moscow's resurgence Overall it identifies the common but differentiated responsibility that member states have for security in the Alliance's northern regions Political Ethics and The United Nations Manuel Froehlich, 2007-10-29 Based on a wealth of sources files and interviews and including previously unpublished material this book explores the foundations of the political ethics of Dag Hammarskjöld the second Secretary General of the United Nations examining how they influenced his actions in several key crisis situations Hammarskjöld's political innovations such as the creation of peacekeeping forces the use of private diplomacy and the concept of the international civil service were bold attempts at translating the aims and principles of the UN charter into concrete thought and action Kofi Annan described Hammarskjöld's approach as a useful guideline to dealing with the problems of a globalized world Offering a topical perspective on a subject that has not recently been explored this book analyzes Hammarskjöld's successes and failures in a way which offers insights into contemporary problems and in doing so provides a significant and original contribution to UN studies Political Ethics and The United Nations will be of interest to students of the United Nations peace studies and international relations in general

The Oxford Handbook of NATO James Sperling, Mark Webber, 2025-01-21 The North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO has since its foundation in 1949 been the principal body of the Western security order and remains as important in the 2020s as it was in the 1950s This Handbook offers the most extensive treatment of the Alliance published in the last two decades providing detailed coverage of NATO allies policies and organizational structures It brings together internationally renowned scholars who interrogate NATO's actions from historical theoretical and empirical perspectives The Handbook is divided into nine parts Following an introductory part offering a thematic overview of NATO framed by different approaches to domestic politics and global order the second part explores three broad questions what is NATO for who is NATO for and whither NATO Part Three is more expressly theoretical providing multi-perspectival analyses of the Alliance Part Four then turns to how NATO works as a political military alliance Parts Five and Six are concerned with what NATO does in practical terms how it addresses a wide range of security threats and what operations it has mounted in response Part Seven looks at some of NATO's most significant allies including France Germany Italy Poland Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States Part Eight meanwhile is concerned with partnerships and key relationships beyond NATO's membership looking at Australia Georgia Ukraine Russia China the European Union and the European neutrals as well as ties to states in the Gulf the Middle East and North Africa The final part of the volume offers reflections on NATO's recent past and possible lines of future development

Europeanization of National Security Identity Pernille Rieker, 2006-05-09 This new book tackles two key questions 1 How is the EU functioning as a security actor 2 How and to what extent is the EU affecting national security identities Focusing on the four largest Nordic states Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden this incisive study analyzes how and to what extent the EU affects national security identities It shows how the EU has developed into a special kind of security actor that due to its level of political integration has an important influence on national security approaches and identities This new analysis applies a fresh combination of integration theory security studies and studies of Europeanization The main argument in this book is that rather than adapting to the changing conditions created by the end of the Cold War the Nordic states changed their security approaches in response to the European integration process It shows how different phases in the post Cold War European integration process have influenced the national security approaches of Sweden Finland Denmark and Norway While all four security approaches seem to have been Europeanized the speed and the character of these changes seem to vary due to a combination of differing ties to the EU and differing security policy traditions This new book will be of great interest to all students of European Defence national security and of security studies in general
