Soaring Hope Lynn Thrush, Perry Engle, 2012-10-16 See the world with hopeful eyes Reading the Bible with an open imagination allows you to see the world as God intends In much of the world the good news of God has been reduced to a personal private psychological interaction with God that gets one ready to go to Heaven This version of the gospel does not envision God s Kingdom coming on earth and His will being done here as it is in Heaven thus hope for what might be is aborted If you believe that Christian faith is largely irrelevant to world events and that Christians have little to offer history Soaring Hope is a thrilling clarion call to reality the reality of life more wonderful than you have ever imagined When assumptions of what cannot be done on earth are removed and the Scriptures are allowed to speak their great hope that God is reconciling all things to Himself then faith arises Jesus said According to your faith may it be to you Matt 9 29 As faith rises the closer you move toward God With Soaring Hope you can snuggle right up into the arms of your heavenly Father today

Public Spaces, Politics, and Policy Todd Alan Price, Morna McDermott McNulty, 2025-10-16 This books takes a deep dive into the historic sociopolitical and economic interests that have resulted in a frontal assault on the very governance of public education Recent decades have seen dramatic changes in the landscape of American public education including the closure of local schools elimination of teachers unions and local school board takeover attempts In order to explore the social and political motivations behind these changes the contributors address questions such as What tactics are being used to drive this paradigm shift where teachers are the enemy and schools are harming kids What events in this sociopolitical moment right now make it ripe for dismantling the democratic experiment of public education In an age of sound bites and instant news how can the nuanced and sometimes hypocritical narrative supporting public education compete for attention with the seductive political pablum of reactionary groups The voices in these chapters include those of curriculum theorists policy analysts education practitioners and leaders and parents all of whom engage in forms of activism at the local and or national level
