Safe Places:

Safe Places David Franke, Holly Franke, 1972 Managing Traumatic Stress Through Art Barry M.

Cohen, Mary-Michola Barnes, Anita B. Rankin, 1995 The book's first section Developing Basic Tools For Managing Stress is devoted to establishing a safe framework for trauma resolution The second section Acknowledging and Regulating Your Emotions helps the trauma survivor to make sense of overwhelming emotional experiences The final section Being and Functioning in the World focuses on self and relational development leading into the future Publisher's website Safe Spaces Pamela T. Barber-Freeman, 2023-03-08 This book is comprised of various safe spaces through theological virtues for those of us on this Christian journey The term safe space is often used with social justice and free speech Safe space refers to a place or environment in which a person or category of people can feel confident that they will not be exposed to discrimination criticism harassment or any other emotional or physical harm This book also includes personal stories and biblical stories created as theological virtues built on safe spaces that were created by GOD for our life's journey Each chapter in the book includes a narrative personal and biblical stories scriptures and prayers relative to each safe space In the years it took me to write this book I've experienced some unbelievable challenges and barriers that took concentrated practice reading and prayer to develop safe spaces In fact I've had some pains in my life that took years to heal and it's only by understanding the theological virtues of being a Christian that enabled me to walk through this journey without losing my mind becoming an alcoholic or drug addict or even just giving up on life These life experiences are the foundation for the theological virtues presented in this book as safe spaces However finding my safe space grounded in theological virtues enabled me to endure heartbreak engage in new endeavors and embrace life's journey I pray that you receive the same freedom in finding your safe space A Safe Place to Grow Vivienne Roseby, Janet Johnston, Bettina Gentner, Erin Moore, 2014-07-16 Discover the effective group treatment strategies that help your school aged clients A child immersed in a conflicted family life may be forced to cope with a multitude of trauma including violence abuse and insecurity In A Safe Place to Grow A Group Treatment Manual for Children in Conflicted Violent and Separating Homes highly respected experts give mental health professionals the tools to provide effective group treatment for children scarred by family environments of conflict and abuse This easy to understand step by step manual is a developmentally appropriate treatment curriculum for traumatized school aged children Age appropriate sections separate therapy for big or little kids focusing on efficacy while presenting a comfortable multi ethnic multi cultural model A Safe Place to Grow has easy to understand descriptions of techniques with each session in the curriculum containing games and activities that are therapeutic yet flexible enough to be modified whenever the situation warrants A chapter is included to helpfully troubleshoot problems encountered when in session with either age group of children Useful illustrations accompany the text along with a comprehensive bibliography listing additional therapeutic resources for different types of family problems Appendixes are included for instruction on psycho educational groups for parents that enhance their sensitivity to their children s needs as well as providing an evaluation study of the group model itself A Safe Place to Grow provides a sequence of activities within the group model aimed at each of these five goals creating common ground and safety exploring the language and complexity of feeling defining and understanding the self defining and revising roles and relationships restoring a moral order A Safe Place to Grow is an essential resource for social workers psychologists family and child therapists school counselors and battered women and children s advocates
