Bookman's Guide to Americana Joseph Norman Heard, 1960 The Publishers Weekly, 1945-03 The Insider's Guide to Old Books, Magazines, Newspapers, Trade Catalogs Ronald S. Barlow, Ray Reynolds, 1995 The Collection of First Editions of American Authors Formed by the Late Arthur Swann Arthur Swann, 1959 A Rhode Island Original Sarah C. O'Dowd, 2004 The first biography of Frances Whipple writer reformer abolitionist Book Prices: Used and Rare, 1994 Edward N. Zempel, 1994 Forgotten Pioneers Thomas F. Prendergast, 2001-06 This is a comprehensive look at the Irish in Northern California from 1835 to 1900 Filled with anecdotes and insider history this book is a unique piece of California history The title Forgotten Pioneers embodies only half a truth in its application to the subject those early settlers in the wilderness of California men of Irish birth or ancestry who contributed lavishly toward laying the foundations of a new commonwealth on the Pacific It is the purpose of this book to reinstate in the rank where they belong some at least of these overlooked men whose character and achievement entitle them to the highest place in the respect and esteem of the people Gold Rush Manliness Christopher Herbert, 2018-11-13 The mid nineteenth century gold rushes bring to mind raucous mining camps and slapped together cities populated by carousing miners gamblers and prostitutes Yet many of the white men who went to the gold fields were products of the Victorian era educated men who valued morality and order Examining the closely linked gold rushes in California and British Columbia historian Christopher Herbert shows that these men worried about the meaning of their manhood in the near anarchic ethnically mixed societies that grew up around the mines As white gold rushers emigrated west they encountered a wide range of people they considered inferior and potentially dangerous to white dominance including Latin American Chinese and Indigenous peoples The way that white miners interacted with these groups reflected their conceptions of race and morality as well as the distinct political principles and strategies of the US and British colonial governments The white miners were accustomed to white male domination and their anxiety to continue it played a central role in the construction of colonial regimes In addition to renovating traditional understandings of the Pacific Slope gold rushes Herbert argues that historians understanding of white manliness has been too fixated on the eastern United States and Britain In the nineteenth century popular attention largely focused on the West It was in the gold fields and the cities they spawned that new ideas of white manliness emerged prefiguring transformations elsewhere Nevada Place Names Helen S. Carlson, 1974-01-01 Author and researcher Helen Carlson spent almost fourteen years searching for the origins of Nevada's place names using the maps of explorers miners government surveyors and city planners and poring through historical accounts archival documents county records and newspaper files The result of her labors is Nevada Place Names a fascinating mixture of history spiced with folklore legend and obscure facts Out of print for some years the book was reprinted in 1999 The Small Window Linda Teigland Clark, 2008-06 Pa taught his family that God will not shut a door without opening a window He said it was God's Way of leading His Children And during

hard times Pa added that it was the North wind that made the Vikings What he didn't tell Laurin his 17 year old daughter was how small and difficult getting through that window might be or how long and strong that North wind might blow It was 1848 Pa followed his dream he was taking his family to the Promised Land a land called California Laurin like her father dreamed big until tragedy struck When cholera claimed the lives of her parents and older brothers in the Humboldt Sink she had to find that window set her own sail against that staunch wind Only she remained to do it She had to find a way not just to survive the trek over the Sierra and into California but to survive once they arrived It wasn't for herself but for her younger brother age 7 and sister age 4 they were her responsibility their future their very lives depended upon her They couldn't go back there was no back She loved them she had to find a way
