Saints and Sinners in the Early Church W. H. C. Frend, 1985 Orthodoxy and Heresy in Early Christian Contexts Paul A Hartog, 2015-08-27 Eighty years ago Walter Bauer promulgated a bold and provocative thesis about early Christianity He argued that many forms of Christianity started the race but one competitor pushed aside the others until this powerful orthodox version won the day The victors rewrote history marginalizing all other perspectives and silencing their voices even though the alternatives possessed equal right to the title of normative Christianity Bauer's influence still casts a long shadow on early Christian scholarship Were heretical movements the original forms of Christianity Did the heretics outnumber the orthodox Did orthodox heresiologists accurately portray their opponents And more fundamentally how can one make any objective distinction between heresy and orthodoxy Is such labeling merely the product of socially situated power Did numerous valid forms of Christianity exist without any validating norms of Christianity This collection of essays each written by a relevant authority tackles such questions with scholarly acumen and careful attention to historical cultural geographical and socio rhetorical detail Although recognizing the importance of Bauer's critical insights innovative methodologies and fruitful suggestions the contributors expose numerous claims of the Bauer thesis in both original and recent manifestations that fall short of the historical evidence Saints and Sinners in the Early Church W. Frend, 1985 Augustine and the Catechumenate William Harmless, 1995 St Augustine 354-430 a theologian whose views and controversies shaped the course of Christianity in the West was also a struggling North African pastor who had a flair for teaching and who meditated deeply on the complexities of the human heart This study examines a little known side of Augustine his work as a teacher of candidates for baptism It reconstructs the experience of the ancient catechumenate The portrait is relevant to all those involved with the RCIA pastors DREs catechists liturgists A History of the Church in Africa Bengt Sundkler, Christopher Stead, 2000-05-04 Bengt Sundkler's long awaited book on African Christian churches will become the standard reference for the subject The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age Jesse A. Hoover, 2018 The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age examines an apocalypse that never happened seen through the eyes of a dissident church that no longer exists Jesse A Hoover considers Donatists members of an ecclesiastical communion that for a brief moment formed the majority church in Roman North Africa modern Tunisia Algeria and Libya before fading away sometime between the fifth and seventh centuries Hoover studies how Donatists perceived the end of the world to offer a glimpse into the inner life of the dissident communion what it valued whom it feared and how it defined its place in history while on the cusp of history's end By recovering these appeals to apocalyptic themes in surviving Donatist writings this study uncovers a significant element within the dissident movement's self perception that has so far gone unexamined In contrast to previous assessments it argues that such eschatological expectations are not out of sync with the wider world of Latin Christianity in late antiquity and that they functioned as an effective polemical strategy designed to counter their opponents claim to be the true church in
