of critical studies representing such diverse fields as literary German French Italian English Spanish and Arabic and other subdisciplines of history religion anthropology and linguistics The differences between Islam and Christianity erected strong barriers separating two global cultures but as this volume indicates despite many attempts to Other the opposing side the premodern world experienced an astonishing degree of contacts meetings exchanges and influences Scientists travelers authors medical researchers chroniclers diplomats and merchants criss crossed the East and the West or studied the sources produced by the other culture for many different reasons As much as the theoretical concept of Orientalism has been useful in sensitizing us to the fundamental tensions and conflicts separating both worlds at least since the eighteenth century the premodern world did not quite yet operate in such an ideological framework Even though the Crusades had violently pitted Christians against Muslims there were countless contacts and a palpable curiosity on both sides both before during and after those religious warfares
