Salt In The Blood The Fishing Communities Of Scotland:

Understanding the Cultures of Fishing Communities James R. McGoodwin, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2001-01-01 Small scale fishing accounts for almost 95% of the world's fishing and it has been estimated that small scale fishing activities support the livelihoods of more than 200 million people worldwide The purpose of this document is to help fisheries officials gain a clearer understanding of the cultures of small scale fishing communities It is hoped this will enable the development of more successful management policies and practices and empower people in such communities to improve their livelihoods The document highlights the importance of sustaining the rights of access to resources and the integration of cultural considerations into fisheries management policies It includes six case studies from distinct cultural regions of the world

Singing the Gospel along Scotland's North-East Coast, 1859-2009 Frances Wilkins, 2018-01-17 Following three years of ethnomusicological fieldwork on the sacred singing traditions of evangelical Christians in North East Scotland and Northern Isles coastal communities Frances Wilkins documents and analyses current singing practices in this book by placing them historically and contemporaneously within their respective faith communities In ascertaining who the singers were and why when where how and what they chose to sing the study explores a number of related questions How has sacred singing contributed to the establishment and reinforcement of individual and group identities both in the church and wider community What is the process by which specific regional repertoires and styles develop Which organisations and venues have been particularly conducive to the development of sacred singing in the community How does the subject matter of songs relate to the immediate environment of coastal inhabitants How and why has gospel singing in coastal communities changed These questions are answered with comprehensive reference to interview material fieldnotes videography and audio field recordings As one of the first pieces of ethnomusicological research into sacred music performance in Scotland this ethnography draws important parallels between practices in the North East and elsewhere in the British Isles and across the globe

Whaur Extremes Meet Catriona M.M. MacDonald, 2009-10-30 On the cusp of memory and history the story of Scotland's twentieth century is contested territory international yet parochial prosperous yet ailing and passionate yet temperate This thematic account of Scotland's twentieth century examines the economic social political and cultural aspects that shaped the country during the period Catriona MacDonald underlines the tensions inherent in the life of a nation distinguished by stark changes and surprising continuities a fragmented identity a shifting and at times uneasy accommodation in the UK nation state and an ongoing engagement with globalising tendencies In identifying the choices ambitions possibilities and contradictions that Scotland experienced during a century of profound change she uncovers a country in which one can truly say extremes met

Women of Scotland Helen Susan Swift, 2023-03-08 Women of Scotland is a thematic time trip through Scottish history and the important part women have played in its past From the humble to the great Scottish women have been at the forefront and background of events Here are the fisherwomen the warriors the great writers the Jacobites the martyrs and the mill girls Without them Scotland would not have existed Join a great journey from the Dark Ages to the 21st century and learn about the women who have been the driving force behind this small yet dynamic nation

Salt in the Blood James Miller,1999 Scotland's fishing communities have retained their unique flavour and this book explores how they rose grew and have since declined in the midst of an industry that now centres on major ports for its wealth

Fishing for Heritage Jane Nadel-Klein,2020-05-26 Castles lochs seascapes Coastal Scotland is one of the world's most romanticized tourist destinations yet it is in the midst of severe economic decline The North Atlantic fisheries crisis has hit Scottish communities hard and local fisherfolk are faced with chronic insecurity anxiety over the decline of fishing and doubts about their cultural survival The decline of this traditional industry has been accompanied by growing tourism along Scottish shores Fishing villages are marketed for tourist consumption and culture has become a commodity Drawing upon fieldwork novels folk music and travel literature Nadel Klein explores how these influences have affected locals sense of identity and presence within a modern European nation How is identity linked to power What role do memory and authenticity play in the creation of Scottish heritage How do locals feel about the onslaught of tourists The topical nature of these issues and their relevance to other regions facing similar tensions make this book an important contribution to contemporary anthropology

Insurrection James Hunter,2019-12-10 The author of On the Other Side of Sorrow gives a detailed account of the causes and effects of the Scottish potato famine that began in 1846 When Scotland's 1846 potato crop was wiped out by blight the country was plunged into crisis In the Hebrides and the West Highlands a huge relief effort came too late to prevent starvation and death Farther east meanwhile towns and villages from Aberdeen to Wick and Thurso protested the cost of the oatmeal that replaced potatoes as the people's basic foodstuff Oatmeal's soaring price was blamed on the export of grain by farmers and landlords cashing in on even higher prices elsewhere As a bitter winter gripped and families feared a repeat of the calamitous famine then ravaging Ireland grain carts were seized ships boarded harbors blockaded a jail forced open and the military confronted The army fired on one set of rioters Savage sentences were imposed on others But crowds of thousands also gained key concessions Above all they won cheaper food Those dramatic events have long been ignored or forgotten Now in James Hunter they have their historian The story he tells is by turns moving anger making and inspiring In an era of food banks and growing poverty it is also very timely Praise for Insurrection Hunter never forgets that history is first of all narrative and this book is rich in stories or that is subject is the experience of individual men and women creatures of flesh and blood not abstractions Insurrection is fascinating reading both painful and uplifting Allan Massie the Scotsman UK

Beyond Cannery Row Carol Lynn McKibben,2010-10-01 Presenting a nuanced story of women migration community industry and civic life at the turn of the twentieth century Carol Lynn McKibben's Beyond Cannery Row analyzes the processes of migration and settlement of Sicilian fishers from three villages in Western Sicily to Monterey California and sometimes back again McKibben's analysis of gender and gender roles shows that it was the women in this community who had the insight the power and the purpose to respond and even prosper amid changing economic conditions Vividly evoking the immigrants everyday experiences through first person accounts and detailed description McKibben demonstrates that the cannery work done by Sicilian immigrant women was crucial in terms of the identity formation and community development These changes allowed their families to survive the challenges of political conflicts over citizenship in World War II and intermarriage with outsiders throughout the migration experience The women formed voluntary associations and celebrated festas that effectively linked them with each other and with their home villages in Sicily Continuous migration created a strong sense of transnationalism among Sicilians in Monterey which has enabled them to continue as a viable ethnic community today

A Short History of Britain's Fisheries Mike Smylie, 2024-02-22 Wherever you fit into the debate about food vegan vegetarian pescatarian flexitarian or carnivore you cannot argue against the fact that fish have influenced our diet for millennia and for many continue to do so today We are after all an island nation surrounded by seas that were once extremely rich and diverse in its variety of both fish and shellfish and it is well known that early man was as much a hunter gatherer on water as on land for fish are a great supplier of protein Yet only in the last couple of centuries has fishing become an established occupation and the last forty years has seen a multitude of change in what is now an industry Outside the industry little has been written about how this seafood is caught landed and then reaches us the consumer We all know about fish and chip shops but do we know the difference between a beam and otter trawl What is the difference between a lobster pot and a lobster creel Did you know oysters and salmon were once caught in such huge amounts they were regarded as poor man's food We all like ambling around colorful fishing harbors gazing at the boats but just how much do we know about those that go out in such a dangerous environment and bring back the catch With fish much talked about in today's news alongside the unhealthy state of the oceans here we have the definitive guide to Britain's commercial fisheries

Blood and Shadows: Scotland's Darkest Crimes and Tragedies Robert J Dornan, 2025-04-01 Scotland's history is written in blood and whispered in shadows From the cobbled streets of Edinburgh to the mist shrouded Highlands the past echoes with tales of unspeakable crimes devastating disasters and chilling tragedies that have shaped the nation's soul Blood and Shadows delves deep into these dark chapters unearthing the stories that time has tried to forget but that Scotland never will Walk in the footsteps of killers like Burke and Hare who turned murder into a grisly trade and Bible John whose reign of terror left Glasgow trembling Stand on the Tay Rail Bridge as it collapses into the freezing waters below and witness the horror of Piper Alpha as flames consume the night From the witch hunts that turned neighbor against neighbor to the modern day mysteries of Suzanne Pilley's disappearance and the Limbs in the Loch case this book uncovers the truth behind the legends Explore the treachery of the Black Dinner the brutal execution of William Wallace and the catastrophic failure of the Darien Scheme Feel the terror of the Dunblane Massacre and the Lockerbie Bombing events that shattered lives and left scars still felt today Meet the monsters Peter Tobin Dennis Nilsen Ian Brady and the victims whose stories demand to be heard Blood and Shadows is more than a chronicle of death and disaster It is a journey into Scotland s haunted heart where history s darkest moments are laid bare Meticulously researched and grippingly told this book is for those who dare to confront the past and discover the shadows that still linger Are you ready to face Scotland s darkest hours
