PhotoVoice Teaching Research Methods in the Social Sciences Dr Claire Wagner, Dr Mark Garner, Ms Barbara Kawulich, 2012-12-28 How can excellence in the teaching of research methods be encouraged and ensured This question has become increasingly important following the adoption of research methodology as a core part of many postgraduate and undergraduate courses There has however been little discussion about the aims and methods of teaching the subject In this volume a number of authors from a variety of countries and disciplines employ their knowledge and experience towards the development of a pedagogical culture in research methods Their aim is to establish the extent of common concerns and challenges and to demonstrate ways in which these are being met Intended to provide both a stimulus and source materials for the development of a more substantial and systematic literature in the field the book will be of great interest to all those teaching research methods courses within social science disciplines Research Methods in Human Rights Bård A.

Andreassen, Claire Methven O'Brien, Hans-Otto Sano, 2024-05-02 In this thoroughly revised second edition editors Bård A. Andreassen, Claire Methven O'Brien and Hans Otto Sano advance contemporary discussions on human rights methodology bringing together an array of leading scholars to offer instruction and guidance on the methodological approaches to human rights research Revolutions in Development Inquiry Robert Chambers, 2012 Robert Chambers returns with a new book that reviews together for the first time some of the revolutionary changes in the methodologies and methods of development inquiry that have occurred in the past forty years and reflects on their transformative potential for the future This book breaks new ground by describing and analysing the evolution of a sequence of approaches Starting with the dinosaurs of large scale multi subject questionnaire surveys and the biased visits and perceptions of rural development tourism and urban based professionals there follows a look at the explosive proliferation of methodologies and methods of recent years These include rapid rural appraisal RRA participatory rural appraisal PRA and dramatic developments in the still largely unrecognized fields of participatory numbers and statistics and of participatory mapping and GIS Chambers shows how these can empower local people and provide rigorous and valid substitutes for some more traditional methods of inquiry Also presented is a repertoire for offsetting the biases of the urban trap which has become so serious for officials and aid agency staff Importantly Chambers points out that we are now in a different space methodologically from a few years ago He makes the case that participatory methodologies evolved through creative and eclectic pluralism can be a transformative wave for the future as drivers of personal professional and institutional change This book is for all who are concerned with development regardless of profession discipline or organization who seek to be abreast of the revolutionary breakthroughs in approaches and methods of inquiry of recent years and what Chambers calls their unlimited potentials Published with IDS

Handbook of Qualitative Research Methods for Information Systems Robert M. Davison, 2023-07-01 This vital new Handbook clarifies how qualitative research can be undertaken in the discipline of Information Systems IS observing how IS can be taught and its recent developments Through succinctly bringing together influential research it extensively surveys contemporary trends in qualitative IS studies Participatory Research Methodologies Alpaslan Özerdem, Richard Bowd, 2016-05-13 Participatory research methodologies have been used since the 1970s as a tool to garner accurate information about communities in which development practitioners operate Their usefulness as a collection of research techniques has been evident in academic disciplines such as politics sociology anthropology and economics among others This informative text assesses the use of participatory methods as a research tool in the contexts of development and reconstruction after conflict and disasters by identifying cross cutting themes and establishing a comparative lessons learned framework that can help inform future uses of them both for practitioners and researchers More importantly rather than adopting a prescriptive perspective this book provides a critical analysis of such methodologies Specifically the reader will benefit from the collation of the experiences of those who utilize participatory research methods in different countries and contexts and from different academic and practitioner perspectives Participatory Rural Appraisal Dr. N.

Narayanasamy,2024-05-05 The book comprises twenty two chapters The first two chapters deal with the origin concept and principles of PRA Chapters 3 20 deal with the methods of PRA Each method is described in detail explaining the concept the procedure to be adopted the participants to be involved its application merits and limitations and the precautions to be taken In order to quickly grasp the methods plenty of field based illustrations are given These illustrations are drawn from a wide variety of fields in order to make the readers understand and grasp the varied fields of application of PRA Chapter 21 describes the roles and responsibilities of the PRA team members This is an important segment in the book for the effective practice of PRA mostly depends on the attitude and behaviour of the PRA team members The final chapter dwells upon the application of PRA methodology in select fields of development The book should be of immense use to those who believe in the institutionalisation of participation Students teachers researchers NGO workers donors and aid agencies in the development field will find this book comprehensive meaningful and productive However the book does not aim to replace field experience since the latter is always more rewarding The author welcomes comments and suggestions from the readers
