The Mexican Filmography, 1916 through 2001 David E. Wilt, 2024-10-17 Mexican cinema has largely been overlooked by international film scholars because of a lack of English language information and the fact that Spanish language information was difficult to find and often out of date This comprehensive filmography helps fill the need Arranged by year of release and then by title the filmography contains entries that include basic information film and translated title production company genre director cast a plot summary and additional information about the film Inclusion criteria a film must be a Mexican production or co production feature length one hour or more silent films excepted fictional documentaries and compilation films are not included unless the topic relates to Mexican cinema some docudramas and films with recreated or staged scenes are included and theatrically released or intended for theatrical release Mexican Rhapsody Diana Dixon, 1982

The Spectrum of Music with Related Arts, 1974 The Pacific Coast Musician, 1922 Aaron Copland in Latin America Carol A. Hess, 2023-06-06 Between 1941 and 1963 Aaron Copland made four government sponsored tours of Latin America that drew extensive attention at home and abroad Interviews with eyewitnesses previously untapped Latin American press accounts and Copland's diaries inform Carol A Hess's in depth examination of the composer's approach to cultural diplomacy As Hess shows Copland's tours facilitated an exchange of music and ideas with Latin American composers while capturing the tenor of United States diplomatic efforts at various points in history In Latin America Copland's introduced works by U S composers including himself through lectures radio broadcasts live performance and conversations Back at home he used his celebrity to draw attention to regional composers he admired Hess's focus on Latin America's reception of Copland provides a variety of outside perspectives on the composer and his mission She also teases out the broader meanings behind reviews of Copland and examines his critics in the context of their backgrounds training aesthetics and politics The Toscanini Mystique Kenneth A. Christensen, 2014-10-31 Kenneth A Christensen's THE TOSCANINI MYSTIQUE is the first full length biography about the legendary Italian conductor's life and career in almost thirty five years Maestro Toscanini had a frigid and extremely unhappy childhood along with a severe musical education at the Parma Conservatory This unglamorized account of a gifted teenager's professional conducting debut at Rio de Janeiro's Teatro Imperial is told as it really happened Toscanini was married to a ballerina Carla De Martini who bore him four children but also had an illegitimate son with a gifted soprano who was born retarded Toscanini's vulgar mistreatment of nearly all the singers and musicians who performed under his direction was legendary and is examined with unusual insight about his uncanny memory and talent for musical recreation The recollection of many famous artists including Caruso Debussy Kreisler Puccini Stravinsky Verdi and Wagner's descendants are quoted alongside his confrontations with Hitler Mussolini and the Sicilian mafia But the Maestro also was the most generous of all musicians donating both his time and talents to many worthwhile charities for which he received no financial compensation The life of this great conductor is presented as the struggles of a musical and theatrical reformer who was a major historical figure that just happened to be one of the greatest musicians who ever lived Mr Christensen has painstakingly wrote his narrative using all the previous biographies and magazine articles on his life the scripts of two video documentaries and the liner notes for the most widely available re releases of his recordings He rewrote and clarified the awkward original Italian translations for non specialist readers and has supplied new English translations for the numerous operatic titles and other musical works as well as all the foreign language newspapers magazines and theatres mentioned in the text In addition he has provided professional critiques on the most widely available Toscanini recordings from RCA Victor's Arturo Toscanini Collection and historic reissues of Toscanini's NBC radio broadcast concerts Here was a man who had the nerve to stand up to world dictators and fought hard to prevent the Western world's supreme musical masterpieces from being abused and mistreated but without taking any credit for laboriously recreating all these composers' inspiration He enjoyed to play practical jokes on his family and friends but this humorous side is known only through letters because Toscanini never published any autobiography or memoirs about his art Toscanini gave the world premieres of 14 operas including Leoncavallo's Pagliacci and three by Puccini including La Bohème La Fanciulla del West and Turandot Toscanini served as musical director the Teatro Regio in Turin 1895-98 La Scala in Milan 1898-1908 New York's Metropolitan Opera 1908-1915 barely missed dying upon the Lusitania becoming musical director of La Scala again 1920-1929 the New York Philharmonic 1926-1936 and the NBC Symphony Orchestra 1937-1954 In between he also guest conducted at the Bayreuth Salzburg and Lucerne Festivals and conducted the inaugural concerts of the Palestine Symphony Toscanini then recorded his most important repertory with the BBC Symphony and the Philadelphia Orchestra the New York Philharmonic and NBC Symphony Orchestras alongside the Robert Shaw Chorale and such esteemed soloists as Jascha Heifetz Rudolf Serkin plus his own son in law Vladimir Horowitz His seven operatic recordings featured Jan Peerce Helen Traubel Richard Tucker Giuseppe di Stefano Rose Bampton Cesare Siepi Herva Nelli Licia Albanese Robert Merrill Jussi Björling Lauritz Melchior and many other gifted singers and musicians of the past whose names alone are too much to mention The Beats, Black Mountain, and New Modes in American Poetry Matt
