El fiscal imperial

J. Jesús Lemus,2022-07-12

Durante los primeros tres años de gobierno de la llamada Cuarta Transformación no se ha logrado revertir la tendencia al alza de los índices de impunidad. Como justificante de ello oficialmente se acusa a la inercia del estado de descomposición social heredado de las dos anteriores administraciones federales, manifestado principalmente en actos de corrupción del Poder Judicial Federal sin poner atención y sin señalar siquiera la escasa actuación de la Procuraduría General de la República PGR convertida ahora en Fiscalía que es el primer órgano procurador de justicia. Solo entre el 2018 al 2021 los índices de impunidad registrados en México han colocado a nuestro país en los primeros cinco de los 100 que registran una mayor deficiencia en la persecución de delitos en todo el orbe. Este es el tema de este libro: desentrañar las razones por las que hoy la Fiscalía General de la República FGR y su titular Alejandro Gertz Manero continúan con la tendencia de impunidad marcada desde el pasado. ¿Cuáles son los motivos del fiscal Gertz Manero para continuar con la política de impunidad marcada desde hace tres administraciones priistas y dos panistas? ¿De qué tamaño son los compromisos que impiden al Fiscal desempeñar sus funciones? ¿Es falta de capacidad o exceso de compromisos lo que hacen de Gertz uno de los funcionarios más grises de la Cuarta Transformación? ¿Por qué el presidente Andrés Manuel López Obrador se empeña en protegerlo? ¿Por qué el Fiscal es prácticamente inexistente? ¿Quién es en realidad Alejandro Gertz Manero? Esas son las principales preguntas a las que este libro busca dar respuesta. The Non-existent Prosecutor During the first three years of the government of the so-called Fourth Transformation it has not been possible to reverse the upward trend in impunity rates. As justification for this the inertia of the state of social decomposition inherited from the two previous federal administrations is officially blamed, manifested mainly in acts of corruption in the Federal Judiciary without paying attention and without even pointing out the poor performance of the Attorney General's Office. PGR now converted into the Prosecutor's Office which is the first prosecutorial body of justice. Only between 2018 to 2021 the impunity rates recorded in Mexico have placed our country in the top five of the 100 that register a greater deficiency in the prosecution of crimes throughout the orb. This is the subject of this book to unravel the reasons why today the Attorney General's Office FGR and its head Alejandro Gertz Manero continue with the trend of impunity set in the past. What are the motives of Prosecutor Gertz Manero to continue with the policy of impunity marked for three PRI and two PAN administrations? How big are the commitments that prevent the Prosecutor from performing his duties? Is it lack of capacity or excess of commitments that make Gertz one of the grayer officials of the Fourth Transformation? Why does President Andrés Manuel López Obrador insist on protecting him? Why is the Prosecutor practically non-existent? Who is actually Alejandro Gertz Manero? These are the main questions that this book seeks to answer.
