 documents the 17th Münster Lectures in Philosophy with Susan Haack the prominent contemporary philosopher It contains an original programmatic article by Haack on her overall philosophical approach entitled The Fragmentation of Philosophy the Road to Reintegration In addition the volume includes seven papers on various aspects of Haack's philosophical work as well as her replies to the papers Susan Haack has deeply influenced many of the debates in contemporary philosophy In her vivid and accessible way she has made ground breaking contributions covering a wide range of topics from logic metaphysics and epistemology to pragmatism and the philosophy of science and law In her work Haack has always been very sensitive in detecting subtle differences The distinctions she has introduced reveal what lies at the core of philosophical controversies and show the problems that exist with established views In order to resolve these problems Haack has developed some middle course approaches One example of this is her famous Foundherentism a theory of justification that includes elements from both the rival theories of Foundationalism and Coherentism Haack herself has offered the best description of her work
