Sustainable Development, Career Counselling and Career Education Laura Nota,Salvatore Soresi,Ilaria Di Maggio,Sara Santilli,Maria Cristina Ginevra,2020-11-02 This book is based on the Life Design paradigm and discusses the efforts made to overcome the matching paradigm between individuals and their work contexts in order to guarantee the adoption of an active role for future career planning Starting from the evolution of career counselling and vocational guidance in the 20th century and then following the more updated reflections in the Life Design paradigm this book discusses research results from the Larios Laboratory Padova Italy in collaboration with numerous international colleagues and institutions These results show that career counselling and vocational designing can not only help people to plan their future in agentive ways but also to help them getting out of the mists of the present and to project themselves into a future that is yet to be created This future is aligned by the world of research and international institutions such as the UN and WHO and follows the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development with particular attention to Sustainable Development Goals 4 8 and 12 This book reveals how trajectories can be created from one s own mission realized with the help of others and newly acquired strengths It shows how career counselling and vocational designing can help people to build their own future from an inclusive and sustainable perspective based on social justice and to help build a better future for all

Entrepreneurship for Deprived Communities Nikolai Mouraviev,Alex Avramenko,2020-04-09 Using case studies and research based narratives to investigate the barriers facing developing enterprises in deprived communities this book provides a toolkit for small business professionals and local authorities to revitalise a community centered enterprise culture and reinvigorate disadvantaged groups One Bread, One Body C. Michael Hawn,2003-06-01 As a troubadour for global music and an instigator of cross cultural worship for more than 15 years in a variety of denominational settings including congregational national and international venues Michael Hawn has observed many faithful people who find that a taste of Pentecost in worship is refreshing and invigorating In One Bread One Body Exploring Cultural Diversity in Worship Hawn seeks to help bridge the gap between the human tendency to prefer ethnic and cultural homogeneity in worship and the church s mandate to offer a more diverse and inclusive experience He offers a rainbow vision of the universal church where young and old joyfully and thoughtfully respond to the movement of God s Spirit in multicultural worship Hawn and four colleagues from Perkins School of Theology in Dallas formed a diverse team in ethnicity gender academic field of study and denominational affiliation to study four United Methodist congregations in the Dallas area that are grappling with cross cultural ministry Their four case studies illustrate both the pain and the possibilities encountered in capturing the Spirit of Pentecost in worship Hawn also offers a concise and practical theological framework as well as numerous strategies and an extensive bibliography for implementing culturally conscious worship This book is invaluable for congregations that want to undertake the hard work of cross cultural worship

High Definition Living Ed Young, 2010-05-11 Whether you're a stay at home mom a business executive or a visible leader in your church this book will give you a clear picture of how you can fulfill God's mission for your life Drawing on concepts learned from the Old Testament prophet Nehemiah author Ed Young shares high definition principles for everyone who wants to live a life of super clarity as a follower of Christ God intends that every follower of His be a leader of others Young is not primarily talking about the kind of leadership that puts you in front of large crowds or has you directing huge projects He's talking about making a difference for God as you impact others for His Kingdom wherever you are whoever you are

The Transformation of Missions in the Twenty-First Century Carrie A. Miles, 2025-08-21 Drawing on interviews with founders of independent missions field work in Africa India and Haiti and her experience as director of an independent mission Carrie A Miles explores the challenges and strengths of missions built on interpersonal relationships and spiritual capital This book examines the rise of a new movement within Global Christianity the independent mission Once death defying residential lifelong commitments undertaken and supported by career professionals a growing number of international missions are now small agencies operating without institutional support and undertaken by volunteers who travel occasionally to the mission field but who live and work at home Focusing on the importance of culturally respectful collaborations with national partners this book also deals with the harm caused by missionaries who do not share that orientation In a compelling example Miles recounts her discovery that early missionaries to East Africa taught that God cursed humankind in Creation Making no attempt to understand the meaning of curses in traditional religions however the missionaries created a devastating syncretism that persists to this day The Transformation of Missions in the Twenty First Century Cross Cultural Partnership without Syncretism argues that in requiring cross cultural awareness to operate the constraints of working independently are also its strengths
