Michael Nelson Jagamara Michael Nelson Jagamara,19?? Michael Nelson Jagamara ,1999 Aberrant Nuptials Paulo de Assis, Paolo Giudici ,2019-12-11 Unique focus on the relation between artistic research and the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze Aberrant Nuptials explores the diversity and richness of the interactions between artistic research and Deleuze studies Aberrant nuptials is the expression Gilles Deleuze uses to refer to productive encounters between systems characterised by fundamental difference More than imitation representation or reproduction these encounters foster creative flows of energy generating new material configurations and intensive experiences Within different understandings of artistic research the contributors to this book architects composers film makers painters performers philosophers sculptors and writers map current practices at the intersection between music art and philosophy contributing to an expansion of horizons and methodologies Written by established Deleuze scholars who have been working on interferences between art and philosophy and by musicians and artists who have been reflecting Deleuzian and Post Deleuzian discourses in their artworks this volume reflects the current relevance of artistic research and Deleuze studies for the arts Jagamara, Michael Nelson , Hyperreality and Global Culture Nicholas Perry,2012-10-12 This book explores a world where the boundaries between reality and representation have become blurred a world where LA Law is used to train lawyers Drawing on examples from around the globe Nick Perry presents a fascinating and entertaining analysis of both familiar objects and situations as well as the more unusual and absurd Meals served in British pubs motor cycle gangs in downtown Tokyo Australian movies are just some examples used by the author in his engaging exploration of modern sense of the unreal Hyperrealities also engages with well known theorists of contemporary culture from Baudrillard and Umberto Eco to Jameson and Sartre Hyperreality and Global Culture Nick Perry,1998 This book explores a world where the boundaries between reality and representation have become blurred a world where LA Law is used to train lawyers Drawing on examples from around the globe Nick Perry presents a fascinating and entertaining analysis of both familiar objects and situations as well as the more unusual and absurd Meals served in British pubs motor cycle gangs in downtown Tokyo Australian movies are just some examples used by the author in his engaging exploration of modern sense of the unreal Hyperrealities also engages with well known theorists of contemporary culture from Baudrillard and Umberto Eco to Jameson and Sartre Economies of Representation, 1790?2000 Leigh Dale,2017-11-30 Although postcolonialism has emerged as one of the most significant theoretical movements in literary and cultural studies it has paid scant attention to the importance of trade and trade relations to debates about culture Focusing on the past two centuries this volume investigates the links among trade colonialism and forms of representation posing the question What is the historical or modern relationship between economic inequality and imperial patterns of representation and reading Rather than dealing exclusively with a particular industry or type of industry the contributors take up the issue of how various economies have been represented in Aboriginal art in literature by North American Caribbean Portuguese South African First Nations Australian British and Aboriginal authors and in a diverse range of writings that includes travel diaries missionary texts the findings of the Leprosy Investigation Commission early medical accounts and media representations of HIV AIDS Examining trade in commodities as various as illicit drugs liquor bananas tourism adventure fiction and modern Aboriginal art as well as cultural exchanges in politics medicine and literature the essays reflect the widespread origins of the contributors themselves who are based throughout the English speaking world Taken as a whole this book contests the commonplace view promoted by some modern economists that trade in and of itself has a leveling effect equalising cultures places and peoples demonstrating instead the ways in which commerce has created and exacerbated differences in power

The Aboriginal Tent Embassy Gary Foley, Andrew Schaap, Edwina Howell, 2013-07-24 The 1972 Aboriginal Embassy was one of the most significant indigenous political demonstrations of the twentieth century What began as a simple response to a Prime Ministerial statement on Australia Day 1972 evolved into a six month political stand off between radical Aboriginal activists and a conservative Australian government The dramatic scenes in July 1972 when police forcibly removed the Embassy from the lawns of the Australian Houses of Parliament were transmitted around the world The demonstration increased international awareness of the struggle for justice by Aboriginal people brought an end to the national government policy of assimilation and put Aboriginal issues firmly onto the national political agenda The Embassy remains today and on Australia Day 2012 was again the focal point for national and international attention demonstrating the intensity that the Embassy can still provoke after forty years of just sitting there If as some suggest the Embassy can only ever be removed by Aboriginal people achieving their goals of Land Rights Self Determination and economic independence then it is likely to remain for some time yet This book explores the context of this moment that captured the world's attention by using predominantly the voices of the people who were there More than a simple oral history some of the key players represented here bring with them the imprimatur of the education they were to gain in the era after the Tent Embassy This is an act of radicalisation The Aboriginal participants in subversive political action have now broken through the barriers of access to academia and write as both eye witnesses and also as trained historians lawyers film makers It is another act of subversion a continuing taunt to the entrenched institutions of the dominant culture part of a continuum of political thought and action Larissa Behrendt Professor of Law Jumbunna Indigenous House of Learning University of Technology Sydney

Ancestral Power Lynne Hume, 2013-05-31 The Dreaming or the Dreamtime is the English translation of a complex Aboriginal religious concept It relates to the idea of an ancestral presence which exists as a spiritual power that is deeply present in the land This presence or power also exists in certain paintings in some dance performances and in songs blood and ceremonial objects In Ancestral Power Lynne Hume seeks to further our understanding of human consciousness by looking through a Western lens at the concept of the Dreaming She examines the idea that Aboriginal people may have used certain techniques for entering altered states of consciousness Could their experiences in such states together with their extensive knowledge of their environment have helped to create the cosmological scheme we call the Dreaming With these questions in mind she brings together and examines for the first time a wide range of existing literature on Aboriginal cosmology and spiritual practices together with studies of Aboriginal art data from anthropologists and ethnomusicologists and statements by Aboriginal people from many different regional areas of Australia Much of the information she highlights is little known Ancestral Power suggests that Aboriginal spirituality is much more complex and compelling than the early missionaries could ever have imagined

Painting Culture Fred R. Myers,2002-12-16 The history of the Australian Aboriginal painting movement from its local origins to its career in the international art market Aboriginal Art Wally Caruana,2025-03-20 This concise survey showcases the incredible diverse work of Aboriginal and Torres Strait artists Building on traditions that stretch back at least 50 000 years these artists have long worked in a variety of contexts from the sacred and secret realm of ceremony to more public spheres From isolated beginnings to post colonialism and the present Wally Caruana explains how Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art has continually developed and responded to change and considers the impact of urban living the growth of local art centres that support the artists in these communities and the recognition of women artists This new edition has been expanded and updated to include and reflect on important artists who have emerged in the last decade with a focus on the burgeoning of activity in the Southern Desert region Queensland and the Torres Strait Islands all testament to Aboriginal arts continued dynamism and vitality Materiality Daniel Miller,2005-07-18 A collection of essays rethinking the current uses of material culture study in anthropology including engagements with art science and technology

Relationscapes Erin Manning,2012-08-17 A new philosophy of movement that explores the active relation between sensation and thought through the prisms of dance cinema art and new media With Relationscapes Erin Manning offers a new philosophy of movement challenging the idea that movement is simple displacement in space knowable only in terms of the actual Exploring the relation between sensation and thought through the prisms of dance cinema art and new media Manning argues for the intensity of movement From this idea of intensity the incipency at the heart of movement Manning develops the concept of preacceleration which makes palpable how movement creates relational intervals out of which displacements take form Discussing her theory of incipient movement in terms of dance and relational movement Manning describes choreographic practices that work to develop with a body in movement rather than simply stabilizing that body into patterns of displacement She examines the movement images of Leni Riefenstahl tienne Jules Marey and Norman McLaren drawing on Bergson's idea of duration and explores the dot paintings of contemporary Australian Aboriginal artists Turning to language Manning proposes a theory of prearticulation claiming that language's affective force depends on a concept of thought in motion Relationscapes takes a Whiteheadian perspective recognizing Whitehead's importance and his influence on process philosophers of the late twentieth century Deleuze and Guattari in particular It will be of special interest to scholars in new media philosophy dance studies film theory and art history

Publics and the City Kurt Iveson, 2011-07-22 Publics and the City investigates struggles over the making of urban publics considering how the production management and regulation of public spaces has emerged as a problem for both urban politics and urban theory Advances a new framework for considering the diverse spatialities of publicness in relation to the city Argues that a city's contribution to the making of publics goes beyond the provision of places for public gathering Examines a series of detailed case studies Looks at the relationship between urbanism public spheres and democracy

Book of Peoples of the World Wade Davis, K. David Harrison, Catherine Herbert Howell, 2007 From the foremost authority on history and civilization comes the definitive guide to world cultures showcasing human diversity in all its vast and startling richness 235 color photographs and 37 maps

Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines Mitchell Rolls, Murray Johnson, 2019-11-05 The Aboriginal Australians first arrived on the continent at least 60 000 years ago occupying and adapting to a range of environmental conditions from tropical estuarine habitats densely forested regions open plains and arid desert country to cold mountainous and often wet and snowy high country Cultures adapted according to the different conditions and adapted again to environmental changes brought about by rising sea levels at the end of the last ice age European colonization of the island continent in 1788 not only introduced diseases to which Aborigines had no immunity but also began an enduring and at times violent conflict over land and resources Reconciliation between Aborigines and the settler population remains unresolved This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines contains a chronology an introduction an extensive bibliography and more than 300 cross referenced entries on the politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the Aborigines This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the indigenous people of Australia

Shakespeare Studies Susan Zimmerman, Garrett A. Sullivan, Jr., 2010 SHAKESPEARE STUDIES is an international volume published every year in hard cover that contains essays and studies by critics and cultural historians from both hemispheres Although the journal maintains a focus on the theatrical milieu of Shakespeare and his contemporaries it is also concerned with Britain's intellectual and cultural connections to the continent its socio political history and its place in the emerging globalism of the period In addition to articles the journal includes substantial reviews of significant publications dealing with these issues as well as theoretical studies relevant to scholars of early modern literature Volume XXXVIII features another in the journal's ongoing series of Forums on an issue of importance to Renaissance studies Organised and introduced by Greg Colon Semenza this Forum After Shakespeare and Film includes the interdisciplinary perspectives of nine contributors on the positioning of Shakespeare studies in digital and other contemporary technologies The volume also features an article on representing blackness in Shakespearean productions from 1821 to 1844 and another on the influence of 19th century melodrama on the Shakespeare critical tradition as well as a review article on Shakespeare and the Gothic Strain Reviews in this issue address such disparate topics as Shakespeare and the problem of adaptation Renaissance culture and the rise of the machine and locating privacy in Tudor England Culture Incorporated Mark W.
