Michaels Women:

Women who Opt Out Bernie D. Jones, 2012 In a much publicized and much maligned 2003 New York Times article The Opt Out Revolution the journalist Lisa Belkin made the controversial argument that highly educated women who enter the workplace tend to leave upon marrying and having children Women Who Opt Out is a collection of original essays by the leading scholars in the field of work and family research which takes a multi disciplinary approach in questioning the basic thesis of the opt out revolution The contributors illustrate that the desire to balance both work and family demands continues to be a point of unresolved concern for families and employers alike and women s equity within the workforce still falls behind Ultimately they persuasively make the case that most women who leave the workplace are being pushed out by a work environment that is hostile to women hostile to children and hostile to the demands of family caregiving and that small changes in outdated workplace policies regarding scheduling flexibility telecommuting and mandatory overtime can lead to important benefits for workers and employers alike

Beyond the Architect's Eye Mary N. Woods, 2013-12-11 Typical architectural photography freezes buildings in an ideal moment and rarely captures what photographer Berenice Abbott called the medium s power to depict how the past jostled the present In Beyond the Architect s Eye Mary N Woods expands on this range of images through a rich analysis that commingles art amateur and documentary photography genres usually not considered architectural but that often take the built environment as their subject Woods explores how photographers used their built environment to capture the disparate

American landscapes prior to World War II when urban and rural areas grew further apart in the face of skyscrapers massive industrialization and profound cultural shifts Central to this study is the work of Alfred Stieglitz Frances Benjamin Johnston and Marion Post Wolcott but Woods weaves a wider narrative that also includes Alice Austen Gertrude Kasebier Berenice Abbott Margaret Bourke White Helen Levitt Lisette Model Louise Dahl Wolfe Morgan and Marvin Smith Eudora Welty Samuel Gottscho Walker Evans Max Waldman and others In such disparate places as New York City the rural South and the burgeoning metropolis of Miami these unconventional architectural photographers observed buildings as deeply connected to their context Whereas Stieglitz captured New York as the quintessential modern urban landscape in the period the South was its opposite a land supposedly frozen in the past Yet just as this myth of the Old South crystallized in photographs like Johnston's a New South shaped by popular culture and modern industry arose Miami embodied both of these visions In Wolcott's work agricultural fields where stoop labor persisted were juxtaposed with Art Deco hotels a popular modernism of the machine age that remade Miami Beach into a miniaturized Manhattan on the beach Beyond the Architect's Eye is a groundbreaking study that melds histories of American art cities and architecture with visual studies of landscape photography and cultural geography Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice Saturday Night Live & American TV Nick Marx, Matt Sienkiewicz, Ron Becker, 2013-10-02 Thought provoking and undeniably interesting essays on this cultural institution of comedy and what it says about our society Booklist Since 1975 Live from New York it's Saturday Night has greeted late night TV viewers looking for the best in sketch comedy and popular music SNL is the variety show that launched the careers of countless comedians including Dan Aykroyd Chevy Chase Chris Farley Will Ferrell Tina Fey Amy Poehler and Adam Sandler Week after week SNL has produced everything from unforgettable parodies to provocative political satire adapting to changing times decade after decade while staying true to its original vision of performing timely topical humor With essays that address issues ranging from race and gender to authorship and comedic performance Saturday Night Live and American TV follows the history of this iconic show and its place in the shifting social and media landscape of American television

Mothering, God, and the Mothering God V. Jean Thomas,2025-09-05 Mothers today face unprecedented pressure as contemporary American society feeds into the culture of intensive mothering leading many to be consumed by their role as mothers Many grapple with additional expectations stemming from the teachings of today s evangelical church Rather than serving as a countercultural influence encouraging women to cultivate their primary identity in Christ women often receive the message that to be a good Christian they need to make mothering their top priority The effects of this ideology impact not only women who are mothers but also the church and society at large How does Scripture inform this conversation including both biblical mothers and references to God as Mother Which biblical and historical mothers have been celebrated why and how do they stack up with today s expectations How can mothers today simultaneously follow God and faithfully fulfill their roles as mothers and how can the church support this endeavor This book seeks to reset mothering expectations for the church today by examining examples and expectations of mothers as depicted by Scripture and church history namely the expectation to locate primary identity in Christ
