Models Of Faith:

The Concept of Faith William Lad Sessions,1994 Faith lies at the heart of human life and not just in religious contexts But just what is faith In this book William Lad Sessions ventures a new approach to this age old problem Viewing it in global terms he provides an effective and insightful set of analytical tools for deepening our understanding of the ideas of belief

Models of Faith Carlos Gonzales Valles,1990 The Aesthetics and Ethics of Faith Christopher D. Tirres,2014-04 This groundbreaking work presents the first sustained discussion of the connections between two quintessentially American traditions liberation theology and pragmatism It explores the dynamic relationship between the aesthetic and ethical dimensions of faith practice with a focus on the liberating potential of religious ritual Encountering the God of Faith,

Hope, and Love in the Bible George M. Smiga,2025-08-15 Faith hope and love are three vital dimensions of our life with God Faith is entering into and clinging to a relationship with God Hope is what we expect from that relationship And love the greatest of these is the very essence of the relationship itself In Encountering the God of Faith Hope and Love in the Bible award winning Scripture commentator Fr George Smiga explores how God is revealed through various stages of salvation history from the call of Abraham through the resurrection of Jesus and how faith hope and love have evolved as our understanding of God grows Commentary study and reflection questions prayers and access to online lectures are included 6 lessons Foundations of Christian Thought Mark P. Cosgrove, Written by a veteran Christian educator this readable book describes the relationship between the Christian faith and the world of learning by looking at the five modern worldviews competing with Christian theism Faith in Certain Terms Olli-Pekka Vainio,2023-11-10 This book considers how certainty and faith are related in the Christian faith It asks How certain can Christian believers be about their beliefs about God Should Christians doubt the assurance of their salvation The chapters provide a historical analysis of both certainty of faith and assurance from the early Church to modern times while also paying attention to confessional differences The author explores contemporary debates in analytic epistemology on the certainty and fallibility of our beliefs and argues for a fallibilist understanding of Christian faith The book also addresses some less discussed arguments that threaten the certainty of faith and offers an account of faith as cognitive practice It will be of interest to scholars of both theology and philosophy

Acts of Faith and Imagination Brent Little,Mark Bosco, SJ,2023-08-04 Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith To speak of a person s faith life is to speak of change and development As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one s life Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one s affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction a consistent pattern emerges Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental often unconscious level as an act of the imagination Faith is the way one imagines themselves others and creation A person's primary faith conditions how they live in the world regardless of the level of conscious reflection and regardless of whether this is a religious faith Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones Readers will then consider well known works such as those by Graham Greene Flannery O'Connor and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison Alice McDermott Uwem Akpan and several others

Faith Community Nursing Janet Susan Hickman, 2006 This unique text combines traditional parish nursing content with community health nursing methodology coverage of community and faith community assessment and health education and health promotion disease prevention programming

Believing by Faith John Bishop, 2007-04-12 Can it be justifiable to commit oneself by faith to a religious claim when its truth lacks adequate support from one's total available evidence In Believing by Faith John Bishop defends a version of fideism inspired by William James's 1896 lecture The Will to Believe By critiquing both isolationist Wittgensteinian and Reformed epistemologies of religious belief Bishop argues that anyone who accepts that our publicly available evidence is equally open to theistic and naturalist atheistic interpretations will need to defend a modest fideist position This modest fideism understands theistic commitment as involving doxastic venture practical commitment to propositions held to be true through passionate causes causes other than the recognition of evidence of or for their truth While Bishop argues that concern about the justifiability of religious doxastic venture is ultimately moral concern he accepts that faith ventures can be morally justifiable only if they are in accord with the proper exercise of our rational epistemic capacities Legitimate faith ventures may thus never be counter evidential and furthermore may be made supra evidentially only when the truth of the faith proposition concerned necessarily cannot be settled on the basis of evidence Bishop extends this Jamesian account by requiring that justifiable faith ventures should also be morally acceptable both in motivation and content Hard line evidentialists however insist that all religious faith ventures are morally wrong Bishop thus conducts an extended debate between fideists and hard line evidentialists arguing that neither side can succeed in establishing the irrationality of its opposition He concludes by suggesting that fideism may nevertheless be morally preferable as a less dogmatic more self accepting even a more loving position than its evidentialist rival

Problems of Religious Luck Guy Axtell, 2020-07-07 To speak of being religious lucky certainly sounds odd But then so does My faith holds value in God's plan while yours does not This book argues that these two concerns with the concept of religious luck and with asymmetric or sharply differential ascriptions of religious value are inextricably connected It argues that religious luck attributions can profitably be studied from a number of directions not just theological but also social scientific and philosophical There is a strong tendency among adherents of different faith traditions to invoke asymmetric explanations of the religious value or salvific status of the home religion vis vis all others. Attributions of good and bad religious luck and exclusivist dismissal of the significance of religious disagreement are the central phenomena that the book studies. Part I lays out a taxonomy of kinds of religious luck, a taxonomy that draws upon but extends work on moral and epistemic luck. It asks: What is going on when persons' theologies or purported revelations ascribe various kinds of religiously relevant traits to insiders and outsiders of a faith tradition in sharply asymmetric fashion? I am saved but you are lost. My religion is holy but yours is idolatrous. My faith tradition is true and valued by God but yours is false and valueless. Part II further develops the theory introduced in Part I, pushing forward both the descriptive explanatory and normative sides of what the author terms his inductive risk account. Firstly, the concept of inductive risk is shown to contribute to the needed field of comparative fundamentalism by suggesting new psychological markers of fundamentalist orientation. The second side of what is termed an inductive risk account is concerned with the epistemology of religious belief but more especially with an account of the limits of reasonable religious disagreement. Problems of inductively risky modes of belief formation problematize claims to religion specific knowledge. But the inductive risk account does not aim to set religion apart or to challenge the reasonableness of religious belief tout court. Rather, the burden of the argument is to challenge the reasonableness of attitudes of religious exclusivism and to demotivate the polemical apologetics that exclusivists practice and hope to normalize.

The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar, 2021-12-16

This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N. T. Wright's model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith. The reader receives insights into the movement's narrative, semiotic, practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world. The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden's authority and blessings. This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith's causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden's perfection. The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism.

The Rescue of Faith; Or, a Vindication of the Cross of Christ. Being an Analysis and Refutation of the Rationalism of the Age, as Embodied in the Congregational Lecture on Christian Faith, by J. H. Godwin. Revised and Corrected from the "British Standard," Etc. Brewin GRANT, 1862

Reason and the Rule of Faith Christopher J. Thompson, Steven A. Long, 2010-11-04. Inspired by the Catholic intellectual tradition, these essays are the fruit of a series of seminars sponsored by the Center for Catholic Studies and the Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity at the University of St. Thomas in Saint Paul, Minnesota. With a special focus on the works of John Paul II, especially Veritatis Splendor and Fides et Ratio, the authors bring to light a host of considerations that set the work of his pontificate.

within the illuminating light of the living intellectual tradition      Two Models of Jewish Philosophy Daniel Rynhold, 2005-03-17 In a work that illustrates how Jewish philosophy can make a genuine contribution to general philosophical debate Daniel Rynhold attempts to formulate a model for the justification of practices by applying the methods of modern analytic philosophy to approaches to the rationalization of the commandments from the history of Jewish philosophy Through critical analysis of the methods of Moses Maimonides and Joseph Soloveitchik Rynhold argues against propositional approaches to justifying practices that he terms Priority of Theory approaches and offers instead his own method termed the Priority of Practice which emphasizes the need for a more pragmatic take on this whole issue

Introduction to Philosophy of Religion James Kellenberger, 2017-09-29 Using various and competing religious sensibilities Introduction to the Philosophy of Religion helps students work through the traditional material and their own religious questions      Age-Friendly Communities of Faith Kristen Miller, 2025-06-05 Age Friendly Communities of Faith delves into eleven unique challenges that older adults face as well as many practical solutions that faith communities can take to mitigate those challenges This book also explores issues that affect the overall health of places of worship such as intergenerational inclusion health ministry and how to conduct a congregational needs assessment analyze the results and effect changes to produce a faith community that is both age friendly and in tune to the community it serves      Foundation Theology 2006 Joseph Baunoch (Rev. Dr.), 2006 Contributions The Role of Theology in the Ministry of Spiritual Direction The Rev Fr Dennis J Billy C Ss R Conjectures of a Guilty Grandstander Joseph A Burkart Jr Santeria A Pastoral Problem The Rev Fr Jorge R Colon C Ss R From Homo Sapiens to Homo Noeticus Ann V Graber Is There a Balm Martin Luther King Jr The Bible and Christian Hope The Rev C Anthony Hunt Why eat Why worship The Rev Marlene Kropf The Mystic Way The Revd Canon John Macquarrie Personal Meaning as Psychotherapy The Interpretive Hermeneutic of Viktor Frankl John H Morgan Papal Leadership A Lesson from a Year in Retrospect The Rev Fr Bernard O Connor Pope Benedict XVI A Nascent Approach to International Diplomacy The Rev Fr Bernard O Connor Priesthood The Rev Fr James F Puglisi SA Praying the Lord's Prayer as Confessing Faith The Rev Peter E Roussak Communion in Crisis A Reflection on the Future of Anglicanism The Revd Canon Vincent Strudwick      Faith as Life in the Spirit Aaron Gabriel Ross, 2025-06-26 This incisive work shows that faith does not need to be understood as what one believes does or feels when faith is understood as being in Christ by being in the Spirit The way in which Christians and Christian theology at least in Western traditions including the family of Pentecostals and renewal movements engages with the idea of faith has a problem faith is often defined as what people must do whether that is to believe in a list of doctrines to do good works or to love properly in order for God to respond with forgiveness and salvation However this work takes a new approach with a pneumatological trajectory in constructing a theology of faith understood as life in the Spirit overcoming a stalemated discussion on faith as belief versus works As such faith is being in Christ by being in the Spirit is the theological recognition that faith is first relationality to the Spirit by which a person is invited into life with Christ and the triune God Faith is not what one does beliefs works affections but rather what one is in relationality with the Spirit Beliefs works and affections are best understood as those things that are the outward expressions of the relationality rather than that which brings one into relationality with God

An Evaluative Template for Peer-to-peer Models of Evangelism Applied to the "3Story" Model John James Eitel ,2009 This ministry focus paper examines the 3Story evangelism model through an evaluative template to establish if the model considers the theological historical developmental and environmental factors of the task of peer to peer evangelism While the language and methodology of evangelism seem to have remained unaltered within Christendom the surrounding culture continues to change Expectations and techniques that existed in the past now are being placed on an adolescent culture that neither understands nor connects with them The result of this evaluation will be a greater awareness of the issues facing both models and practitioners when approaching the task of adolescent peer to peer evangelism This study will be divided into four sections The first section will examine the historical approaches to evangelism in North America and the efforts made to adapt these strategies for the task of adolescent peer to peer evangelism This information will create evaluation markers for the evaluative template The second section will explore the theology of peer to peer evangelism along with the dynamic of human relationships in both the Old and New Testament the dynamics of how Jesus His disciples and the early Church shared the Good News in an interpersonal context and the role of the Church This information will create evaluation markers for the theological measure of the evaluative template The third section will explore the psychosocial development spiritual development and environmental issues of peer relationships and their implication to the task of peer to peer evangelism in a North American context This information will create additional markers for the evaluative template Finally the last section will examine the 3Story model through the template presented It will discuss if the model is a viable strategy for adolescent peer to peer evangelism

The Eyes of Faith Ormond Rush,2009 Winner of the 2010 Lynlea Rodger Australia Theological Form ATF Press Theological Book Prize The Eyes of Faith presents a systematic theology of the sense of the faithful sensus fidelium and shows the fundamental and necessary interrelationship between sensus fidelium tradition Scripture theology and the magisterium Ormond Rush provides fresh perspectives on a number of issues He proposes that tradition and Scripture are the products of the sensus fidelium and that the inspiration of Scripture is best understood in terms of the Holy Spirit working through the sensus fidelium In addressing the role of the sensus fidei in the lives of individual believers the book provides a unique approach to the way Christians make sense of their faith within the diverse contexts of daily life It shows how the imaginative capacity of the sensus fidei forms a foundational notion for understanding the diversity of spiritualities inculturations and contextualizations of the Gospel in the history of the church up to the present This ecclesial activity of interpreting the Christ event through the sensus fidelium enables the church to proclaim the Gospel in new times and cultures throughout history The Eyes of Faith proposes that for an effective teaching of the faith to contemporary

Christians the distinctive roles of the magisterium and of theology must be conceived primarily in terms of and in relationship to the ecclesial Spirit given capacity of the sensus fidelium

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ormond Rush is lecturer of theology and former president of St Paul's Theological College in Banyo Australia and is president of the Australian Catholic Theological Association. He is the author of Still Interpreting Vatican II: Some Hermeneutical Principles and The Reception of Doctrine: An Appropriation of Hans Robert Jauss' Reception Aesthetics and Literary Hermeneutics.

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK In addition to its internal argumentation, the book's extensive footnotes, Scriptural references and Church documents will make it a tremendously valuable tool for advanced researchers in several theological areas including pneumatology, ecclesiology, Scripture studies and hermeneutics. Highly recommended. C. A. Monteverchio, Choice. Some works of scholarship stand out providing a point of reference and showing the way forward. Ormond Rush's study is in this class and it is not surprising that its first release by CUA Press is a splendid hardback volume. This work makes a significant contribution to Catholic Theology. Rev. John Thornhill, SM The Australasian Catholic Record. Rush provides a theologically perceptive panorama of the sensus fidelium at work in the church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. In addition to offering numerous insights, usually beneficial and sometimes provocative, Rush's study is extraordinarily well researched. This volume is an outstandingly creative and comprehensive theological study of the grace of the Holy Spirit acting through the sensus fidelium in the reception of revelation in the church. John Ford, C. S. C. Theological Studies. Rush has here provided us with a sophisticated study of theological hermeneutics as well as a foundational work in ecclesiology. Lawrence S. Cunningham, Commonweal. This detailed and well argued book explores the phenomenon of reception in both the Bible and in contemporary Roman Catholic tradition. An insightful study for those interested in the newest wave of Roman Catholic dogmatic theology which tends to draw deeply from biblical sources as well as Vatican teaching, this book genuinely advances discussions of the doctrine of reception. Aaron Klink, Religious Studies Review.
