Clausewitz and African War Isabelle Duyvesteyn, 2004-09-30 Oil diamonds timber food aid just some of the suggestions put forward as explanations for African wars in the past decade. Another set of suggestions focuses on ethnic and clan considerations. These economic and ethnic or clan explanations contend that wars are specifically not fought by states for political interests with mainly conventional military means as originally suggested by Carl von Clausewitz in the 19th century. This study shows how alternative social organizations to the state can be viewed as political actors using war as a political instrument.

Government Leaders, Military Rulers and Political Activists David W. Del Testa, 2014-01-27 In each volume an introductory essay outlines the history of the disciplines under discussion and describes how changes and innovations in these disciplines have affected our lives. The biographies that follow are organized in an A-Z format. Each biography is divided into a life section describing the individual's life and influences and a legacy section summarizing the impact of that individual's work throughout history. These biographies cover a diverse group of men and women from around the globe and throughout history. Franklin Delano Roosevelt Mao Tse tung and Genghis Khan are among the 200 well known historical figures included in this volume. Examples of other lesser known yet important individuals covered in this work are Gustavus Adolphus Swedish empire creator Hatshepsut queen of ancient Egyptian dynasty and Jean Jaurès French socialist leader and pacifist. Each synopsis provides information on each individual's enduring impact on the common understanding of fundamental themes of human existence.
