Rethinking Modern Austrian Art Beyond the Metropolis Julia Secklehner, 2024-10 Modern Austrian Art Kristian Sottriffer, 1963 Rethinking Modern Austrian Art Beyond the Metropolis Julia Secklehner, 2024-08-02 This study examines the role played by regional cultures in modern art and visual culture in Central Europe between 1918 and 1938. Analysing paintings, photographs, prints and illustrated magazines in relation to topics such as tourism, social activism, rural exoticism, gender and ethnic diversity, the book offers a fresh perspective on Central European art and visual culture. It pays particular attention to Austria, a country often ignored in histories of modernism in Central Europe, yet one where the countryside gained high visibility as a part of modern culture between the wars. Examples from Czechoslovakia and Hungary also play an important role in comparison and challenge the nationally fragmented histories of modernism in the region. The book's approach overall is also relevant beyond Central Europe; it corrects assumptions that modern art and visual culture were at home in the urban space and emphasises the role of the countryside as an agent of renewal and emancipation in order to construct a more nuanced history of modernism. The book will be of interest to scholars studying art history, Central European studies, European studies, modernism and cultural history. Periodization in the Art Historiographies of Central and Eastern Europe Shona Kallestrup, Magdalena Kunińska, Mihnea Alexandru Mihail, Anna Adashinskaya, Cosmin Minea, 2022-06-07 This volume critically investigates how art historians writing about Central and Eastern Europe in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries engaged with periodization At the heart of much of their writing lay the ideological project of nation building Hence discourses around periodization such as the mythicizing of certain periods the invention of historical continuity and the assertion of national specificity contributed strongly to identity construction Central to the book's approach is a transnational exploration of how the art histories of the region not only interacted with established Western periodizations but also resonated and entangled with each other In their efforts to develop more sympathetic frameworks that refined ignored or hybridized Western models they sought to overcome the centre periphery paradigm which equated distance from the centre with temporal belatedness and artistic backwardness The book thus demonstrates that the concept of periodization is far from neutral or strictly descriptive and that its use in art history needs to be reconsidered Bringing together a broad range of scholars from different European institutions the volume offers a unique new perspective on Central and Eastern European art historiography It will be of interest to scholars working in art history historiography and European studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
