The Buildings Around Us Thom Gorst, 2003-09-02 Buildings surround and affect us all In this clear and concise introduction to buildings Thom Gorst demystifies the culture of architecture and shows how an interest in our environment whatever our cultural position can be of great value to us

Culture and Democracy Hugh Dalziel Duncan, 1989-01-01 This work by the late and great sociologist Hugh Dalziel Duncan paints the great panorama of the Middle West where egalitarianism is the most cherished value and money is the most important vehicle of life How art finds a place in this society is shown in the specific struggle between the architects businessmen unionists and educators of Chicago Into such specifics Duncan reveals the place of supposedly abstract theories developed by John Dewey George Herbert Mead Thorstein Veblen and above all Louis H Sullivan whose school of architecture presents both a new form of physical design and a new order of society The rise seeming defeat and final triumph of Sullivan s principles of order in architecture are related to his social and aesthetic theories of form in society In democratic society all individuals must be capable of art just as all individuals share in art as experience Sullivan s description of the development within the individual of the idea of architecture is treated as an allegory of such development in the spirit of democratic values His life is offered as a parable of the problem facing American artists as they attempt to root art in democratic culture

In Sullivan's words The critical study of architecture becomes not merely the direct study of art but in extenso a study of the social conditions producing it The study of a newly shaping type of civilization By this light the study of architecture becomes naturally and logically a branch of social science Duncan's exceptional volume written with grace and clarity registers the achievements of this Chicago School showing how culture and democracy reached a special moment of consensus with the money based economy of our time New York Ric Burns, James Sanders, Lisa Ades, 2021-11-23 An expanded edition of the only comprehensive illustrated history of New York with more than 600 ravishing photographs and illustrations that tells the remarkable 400 year long story of the city from its beginning in 1624 up to the current moment The companion volume to the acclaimed PBS series This landmark book traces the spectacular growth of New York from its initial settlement on the tip of Manhattan through the destruction wrought by the Revolutionary War to its rise as the nation's premier commercial capital and industrial center and as a magnet for immigrant hopes and dreams in the 19th century to its standing as a beacon of modern culture in the 20th century and as a worldwide symbol of resilience in the 21st century The story continues here with new chapters delivering a sweeping portrait of New York at the dawn of the 21st century when it emerged after decades of decline to assert its place at the very center of a new globalized culture Here is a city challenged indeed sometimes shaken to its core by a series of profound crises the aftermath of 9/11 the continual struggle with racial injustice the financial crisis of 2008 the devastation of Superstorm Sandy the still unfolding cataclysm of the COVID-19 pandemic whose earliest and deadliest urban epicenter was New York itself Here too is a lively portrait of the city's vibrant street life and culture the birth of hip hop in the South Bronx Christo and Jeanne Claude's Gates in Central Park the musicals of Broadway the explosion in location filmmaking in every borough the pivotal rise of the tech industry and so much more The history of this city especially in the tumultuous and transformative two decades detailed in the new chapters is an epic story of rebirth and growth an astonishing transfiguration still in progress of the world's first modern city into a model and prototype for the global city of the future Picturepedia DK, 2020-10-13 Science and technology nature geography culture sports and hobbies and history all combine in this mind blowing visual encyclopedia From incredible insects and musical instruments to spacecraft and prehistoric life and from art and earthquakes to American football and dogs Picturepedia gives you a world of information on every page Did you know that more than half of the human body's weight is water and that a koi carp can live for more than 200 years Or how about there being more than 20 000 islands in the Pacific Ocean or that Turkey eats the most bread with each person getting through 104 6 kg 230 5 lb of it per year First published in 2015 Picturepedia has been revamped into a more thrilling edition that will take you on a visual odyssey This brilliant book is crammed with stunning photographs gripping information and explanatory diagrams that allow for fascinating discoveries New and updated and jam packed with thousands of pictures and fascinating facts about science nature culture sports and history Picturepedia is the ultimate visual encyclopedia Marking Time Fred Brown, 2005 The roadside historical markers of East Tennessee highlight the fascinating personalities and significant events of a culturally and historically rich region For three years Knoxville News Sentinel columnist Fred Brown presented the stories behind the local markers placed by the Tennessee Historical Commission He searched the highways and back roads of East Tennessee tracking down markers with directions that were sometimes no more specific than Highway 11 Greene County Arranged by county the entries link East Tennessee's past and present and highlight the enormous diversity of the state's history from its prehistoric past through its involvement in World War II The markers detail bitter struggles with Native Americans in the eighteenth century but also explain the unique contribution of Cherokee culture and civilization such as Sequoyah's development of the Cherokee syllabary Brown commemorates the numerous Civil War sites throughout the region but he also includes the service of East Tennesseans in later wars One marker commemorates Kiffin Yates Rockwell a founding pilot of the Lafayette Escadrille a famed squadron of aviators in World War I Another marker details the achievements of Sgt Elbert L Kinser of Greene County who was posthumously decorated for his leadership of a First Marine Division Rifle Platoon on Okinawa The markers also showcase East Tennessee's unique political history They tell the story of the lost state of Franklin in the 1780s and record the region's efforts to secede from the state when Tennessee left the Union in 1861 Brown's narrative also explains the nature of opposing political factions throughout the decades through the biographies of their leaders such as Elihu Embree a Quaker abolitionist who founded an antislavery paper in East Tennessee From the vantage of the armchair or out on the road Marking Time is a surprising and engaging trip on the byways of East Tennessee's politics culture and history through the stories of the men and women who shaped the state

National Parks, 2006 The flagship publication of the National Parks Conservation Association National Parks Magazine circ 340 000 fosters an appreciation of the natural and historic treasures found in the national parks educates readers about the need to preserve those resources and illustrates how member contributions drive our organization's park protection efforts National Parks Magazine uses images and language to convey our country's history and natural landscapes from Acadia to Zion from Denali to the Everglades and the 387 other park units in between

Modern Landscape Architecture Marc Treib, 1994-07-25 Twenty two essays that provide a forum for assessing the tenets accomplishments and limits of modernism in landscape architecture and for formulating ideas about possible directions for the future of the discipline These twenty two essays provide a rich forum for assessing the tenets accomplishments and limits of modernism in landscape architecture and for formulating ideas about possible directions for the future of the discipline During the 1930s Garrett Eckbo Dan Kiley and James Rose began to integrate modernist architectural ideas into their work and to design a landscape more in accord with the life and sensibilities of their time Together with Thomas Church whose gardens provided the setting for California living they laid the foundations for a modern American landscape design This first critical assessment of modern landscape architecture brings together seminal articles from the 1930s and 1940s by Eckbo Kiley Rose Fletcher Steele and Christopher Tunnard and includes contributions by contemporary writers and designers such as Peirce Lewis Catherine Howett John Dixon Hunt Peter Walker and Martha Schwartz who examine the historical and cultural framework within which modern landscape designers have worked There are also essays by Lance Neckar Reuben Rainey Gregg Bleam Michael Laurie and Marc Treib that discuss the designs and legacy of the Americans Tunnard Eckbo Church Kiley and Robert Irwin Doroth e Imbert takes up Pierre Emile Legrain and French modernist gardens of the 1920s and Thorbj rn Andersson reviews experiments with stylized naturalism developed by Erik Glemme and others in the Stockholm park system Fundamental Building Materials K. Ward-Harvey,2009 Written by an architect with many years experience in practice and teaching this book is a well illustrated introduction to the great range of materials used in much of the world s building and construction It is the only book of its type on the market and suitable for anyone teaching or studying for building trades architecture building landscape design structural engineering and allied disciplines When first published a reviewer commented This book has filled a large gap in publications available to both students and the building professions The Fourth 2009 Edition is now available incorporating many references to current standard codes research manufacturers and other authoritative information on the internet to expand content further if needed Architecture's Appeal Marc J. Neveu,Negin Djavaheerian,2015-02-11 This collection of previously unpublished essays from a diverse range of well known scholars and architects builds on the architectural tradition of phenomenological hermeneutics as developed by Dalibor Veseley and Joseph Rykwert and carried on by David Leatherbarrow Peter Carl and Alberto P rez G mez Taking an interdisciplinary approach and drawing on ideas from beyond the architectural canon contributors including Kenneth Frampton David Leatherbarrow Juhani Pallasmaa Karsten Harries Steven Holl Indra Kagis McEwen Paul Emmons and Louise Pelletier offer new insights and perspectives on questions such as the following Given the recent fascination with all things digital and novel what is the role of history and theory in contemporary architectural praxis Is authentic meaning possible in a technological environment that is so global and interconnected What is the nature and role of the architect in our shared modern world How can these questions inform a new model of architectural praxis Architecture's Appeal is a thought provoking book which will inspire further scholarly inquiry and act as a basis for discussion in the wider field as well as graduate seminars in architectural theory and history The American Architect and Building News ,1893
