Secret Writings of Hoshang Merchant Akshaya K. Rath, 2016-07-07 Never a shrinking violet Hoshang Merchant came out of the closet early in his youth A bard a teacher and a lover who has lived many lives he is the quintessential gay who once cross dressed and yet defies categorization In Secret Writings he recounts his extraordinary life and splendid experiences ranging across countries and cultures His is a story of the prejudice and neglect that are part of everyday gay life and how he channelled his despair into creating poetry He quotes Rumi Ghalib and Mir and writes with searing honesty about his long and short love affairs his improbable sex life as both an initiator and a yielding partner and his inner turmoil Sex becomes love and love becomes poetry in his writing Merchant yells at the moral guardians of law and culture asks uncomfortable questions and shocks his readers This rare book opens a window to the myriad worlds of an avant garde

The Cambridge Companion to Modernist Poetry Alex Davis, Lee M. Jenkins, 2007-07-19 This Companion offers the most comprehensive overview available of modernist poetry its forms its major authors and its contexts The first part explores the historical and cultural contexts and sexual politics of literary modernism and the avant garde The chapters in the second part concentrate on individual authors and movements while the concluding part offers a comprehensive overview of the early reception and subsequent canonisation of modernist poetry As well as insightful readings of canonical poets the Companion features extended discussions of poets whose importance is now being increasingly recognised such as Mina Loy poets of the Harlem Renaissance and postcolonial poets in the Caribbean Africa and India While modernist poets are often thought of as difficult these essays will help students to understand and enjoy their experimental playful and fascinating responses to contemporary social and cultural change and their dialogue with the arts and with each other An Intellectual History of the Caribbean S. Torres-Saillant, 2006-01-08 This is first intellectual history of the Caribbean written by a top Caribbean studies scholar The book examines both the work of natives of the region as well as texts interpretive of the region produced by Western authors Stressing the experimental and cultural particularity of the Caribbean the study considers major questions in the field

Teaching Creative Writing H. Beck, 2012-10-18 Teaching Creative Writing includes lively contributions from two dozen leading practitioners in the field Topics addressed include history of Creative Writing workshops undergraduate postgraduate reflective activities assessment critical theory and information technology Reading Hegel Robert Lucas Scott, 2025-03-14 Retrieves Hegelian speculative experience for literary theory The relationship between Hegel and literary theory has for a long time been both contested and paradoxical On the one hand theory is often skeptical of all that Hegel ostensibly stood for idealism systematicity and identity at the expense of difference Yet in spite of itself literary theory is taken to owe a profound debt to Hegel's philosophy Robert Lucas Scott's book complicates this account and argues that literary theory has made the mistake of abstracting Hegel's thought from its more dynamic presentation in Hegel's writings reducing Hegel to a series of propositions or positions Literary theory Scott argues misses what is perhaps the greatest innovation of Hegel's philosophy a presentation of experience that begins precisely by setting aside all preconceptions or prior assumptions It is on this point that Hegel's philosophy itself approaches literature its content cannot be simply abstracted from the singular experience of reading it Only through a mode of reading alive to speculative experience can literary theory become truly Hegelian Scott's exposition of Hegel offers a model of reading with relevance beyond philosophy one that is critical without pretensions of mastery and detachment and that honors the singularity of the reading experience without succumbing to the subjectivism of the postcritical The book also includes engagements with the work of Luther Kant Marx Gillian Rose Fredric Jameson Robert Brandom Catherine Malabou and more in its recovery of Hegel's thought for a critical understanding of our time Christianity and Confucianism Christopher Hancock, 2020-12-10 Christianity and Confucianism Culture Faith and Politics sets comparative textual analysis against the backcloth of 2000 years of cultural political and religious interaction between China and the West As the world responds to China's rise and China positions herself for global engagement this major new study reawakens and revises an ancient conversation As a generous introduction to biblical Christianity and the Confucian Classics Christianity and Confucianism tells a remarkable story of mutual formation and cultural indebtedness East and West are shown to have shaped the mind heart culture philosophy and politics of the other and far more perhaps than either knows or would want to admit Christopher Hancock has provided a rich and stimulating resource for scholars and students diplomats and social scientists devotees of culture and those who pursue wisdom and peace today

Regional Modernisms Neal Alexander,2013-10-14 Where did literary modernism happen This book answers this question re evaluating the parameters of modernism in the light of recent developments in literary geography and literary history through an examination of novels poetry theatre and little magazines Essays identify and appraise the local attachments of modernist texts in particular geographical regions and question the idea of the regional in light of the alienating displacements of transnational modernity

Marx and We Sun Zhengyu,2024-08-01 Marxist ideology is the only fully scientific ideology the only one able to guide mankind toward the settlement of fundamental social problems and to point out the royal road for the proletariat to take in its march toward socialism and communism Without Marxism modern people cannot establish true social ideals nor can they engage in the rational pursuit of values Without Marxism modern people cannot choose the correct path of development nor can they build up new forms of civilizations Without Marxism modern people would never base their commitments to schedule the consensus building effort and support the consensus building process on any irrefutably and sufficiently sound theoretical foundations

Archiving Loss Martine Hawkes,2018-05-11 Drawing together many stories from the archives of difficult events and volatile histories Archiving Loss Holding Places for Difficult Memories asks how we might cut and walk a path for memory loss and silence in the archive The difficult events discussed in this book include state responses to refugees events of genocide alongside other less documented pockets of trauma violence and loss This book describes the archives whose language and logic have shaped our ways we remember and respond to difficult events and the ways in which we expect memory and loss to be coherent credible and lead to clear conclusions In asking what is missing and what is found in the archives of difficult events this book argues for the necessity of looking more closely at other ways of remembering loss and archiving memory

Nuclear Theory Degree Zero: Essays Against the Nuclear Android John Kinsella, Drew Milne, 2021-05-13 Nuclear Theory Degree Zero Essays Against the Nuclear Android investigates the threat conveyed and maintained by the nuclear cycle mining research health power generation and weaponry Central to this polyvalent report on the infiltration of our lives and control over them exerted by the industrial military complex are critiques of the creation storage and use of atomic weapons the exploitation of Australian Aboriginal people and their lands through British atomic testing in the 1950s and an exposé of a language of denial in the world of nuclear mining energy military usages Nuclear is also parenthetically investigated in its function as extended metaphor and question for poetry and poetics Key is a consideration of the use of the language of the atomic in cultural spaces and in the arts Indigenous land rights claims in the face of uranium mining the semantics of waste and of the glib usage by nuclear power companies of the fact of global warming to suit their own corrosive agendas The triumphalism of scientific and cultural discourse around nuclear and the threats by nuclear fission are by association brought into question The nuclear cycle throws the whole future of human beings into doubt and this book seeks to assemble new resources of resistance through creative and critical mediums including poetry and poetics The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Angelaki

Feminism Art Theory Hilary Robinson, 2015-04-20 Charting over 45 years of feminist debate on the significance of gender in the making and understanding of art the long anticipated new edition of Feminism Art Theory has been extensively updated and reworked Completely revised retaining only one third of the texts of the earlier edition with all other material being new inclusions Brings together 88 revealing texts from North America Europe and Australasia juxtaposing writings from artists and activists with those of academics Embraces a broad range of threads and perspectives from diverse national and global approaches lesbian and queer theory and postmodernism to education and aesthetics Includes many classic texts but is particularly notable for its inclusion of rare and significant material not reprinted elsewhere Provides a uniquely flexible resource for study and research due to its scale and structure each of the seven sections focuses on a specific area of debate with texts arranged chronologically in order to show how issues and arguments developed over time Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06

Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Putting

Theory into Practice in the Contemporary Classroom Becky McLaughlin,2017-01-06 This collection of fourteen essays by scholars from Canada Europe the United Kingdom and the United States emerges from a growing interest in the ways postmodern theory can illuminate not just the products and ideas of high culture but also the ins and outs of everyday life Taking the university classroom broadly construed as a site of theoretical investigation this volume helps us to understand troublesome classroom dynamics as well as offering pedagogical strategies for dealing with them It also illuminates current pressures on higher education that find expression in the classroom As a forum for these issues these essays draw upon Deleuzian feminist Foucauldian and psychoanalytic approaches among others recognizing not only that these approaches are often in conflict but also that collectively they enhance our understanding of the classroom Important questions posed here include whether and if so how we can combine a Marxist or Foucauldian emphasis on the disciplinary and hegemonic practices of educational institutions with a Lacanian or Barthesian appreciation for the disruptive pleasures and drives that the unconscious produces within and through students teachers and classrooms Which theoretical and pedagogical innovations can help teachers and students to get the job done as well as to theorize the job to simultaneously practice education and imagine other forms and ends for education How can theory help us to historicize criticize and re draw the productive but sometimes disabling lines that make the classroom and its subjects A site for lively theoretical debate about these and related pedagogical issues this volume will prove useful for anyone wanting to reinterpret reinvent and reinvigorate the classroom The Bloomsbury Handbook of 21st-Century Feminist Theory Robin Truth

Goodman,2019-02-07 The Bloomsbury Handbook of 21st Century Feminist Theory was a PROSE Award finalist The Bloomsbury Handbook of 21st Century Feminist Theory is the most comprehensive available survey of the state of the art of contemporary feminist thought With chapters written by world leading scholars from a range of disciplines the book explores the latest thinking on key topics in current feminist discourse including Feminist subjectivity from identity difference and intersectionality to affect sex and the body Feminist texts writing reading genre and critique Feminism and the world from power trauma and value to technology migration and community Including insights from literary and cultural studies philosophy political science and sociology The Bloomsbury Handbook of 21st Century Feminist Theory is an essential overview of current feminist thinking and future directions for scholarship debate and activism Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century and Du Bois's Dialectics Reiland Rabaka's Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climatic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois's rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe's ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academe
