Modern Herbal:

A Modern Herbal Maud Grieve, 1971-06-01 There is not one page of this enchanting book which does not contain something to interest the common reader as well as the serious student. Regarded simply as a history of flowers it adds to the joys of the country. B. E. Todd, Spectator. If you want to know how pleurisy root, lungwort and abscess root got their names, how poison ivy used to treat rheumatism or how garlic guarded against the Bubonic Plague, consult A Modern Herbal. This 20th century version of the medieval Herbal is as rich in scientific fact and folklore as its predecessors and is equally encyclopedic in coverage. From aconite to zedoary, not an herb, grass, fungus, shrub or tree is overlooked and strange and wonderful discoveries about even the most common of plants await the reader. Traditionally an herbal combined the folk beliefs and tales about plants, the medicinal properties and parts used of the herbs and their botanical classification. But Mrs. Grieve has extended and enlarged the tradition; her coverage of asafetida, bearberry, broom, chamomile, chickweed, dandelion, dock, elecampane, almond, eyebright, fenugreek, moss, fern, figwort, gentian, Hart's tongue, indigo, acacia, jaborandi, kava, kava, lavender, pimpernel, rhubarb, squill, sage, thyme, sarsaparilla, unicorn root, valerian, woundwort, yew, etc., more than 800 varieties in all, includes in addition methods of cultivation, the chemical constituents, dosages and preparations of extracts and tinctures unknown to earlier herbalists, possible economic and cosmetic properties and detailed illustrations from root to bud of 161 plants. Of the many exceptional plants covered in Herbal, perhaps the most fascinating are the poisonous varieties: hemlock, poison oak, aconite, etc., whose poisons in certain cases serve medical purposes and whose antidotes, if known, are given in detail. And of the many unique features, perhaps the most interesting are the hundreds of recipes and instructions for making ointments, lotions, sauces, wines and fruit brandies like bilberry and carrot jam, elderberry and mint vinegar, sagina sauce and cucumber lotion for sunburn and the hundreds of prescriptions for tonics and liniments for bronchitis, arthritis, dropsy, jaundice, nervous tension, skin disease and other ailments. 96 plates, 161 illustrations. The Modern Herbal Dispensatory Thomas Easley, Steven Horne, 2016-11-29 The beloved best selling classic for the modern herbalist, a definitive guide to 250 safe and effective herbal medicines, preparations and single herb remedies to make at home. This comprehensive full color guide offers detailed and easy to follow instructions for making and using approximately 250 all natural DIY herbal medicines. With practical tips in depth preparation techniques and an inside look at some of the author's own favorite formulas, The Modern Herbal Dispensatory walks beginners and advanced herbalists alike through the 12 major categories of herbs from aromatic to sweet. Herbal preparations, the many ways to prepare and use herbs from capsules and tinctures to standardized extracts and essential oils. Choosing the best dosage form for each category of herb. How to harvest dry and use fresh herbs. Extractions: terms, equipment, solvents and calculations plus how to extract herbs in water, alcohol, glycerin and vinegar. Advanced techniques like percolation, extracts, fluid extracts and Soxhlet extracts. Preparations like oil based extractions, topical applications, concentrates, lozenges, traditional Chinese methods and more. Formulas and dosages, how to design herbal formulas and use herbs safely and effectively Herbal insights and need to know wisdom like why different preparations of the same herb affect the body differently which herbs are medicinal when dry but could be toxic when fresh and why beginners typically see more potent results with formulations versus single herb preparations The text includes multiple appendices recommendations for further reading in depth full color photo guides and a helpful index With advice on herbal preparations for 100 illnesses and conditions and a comprehensive materia medica The Modern Herbal Dispensatory is an enduring classic and beloved plant medicine reference manual for herbalists natural medicine practitioners and anyone seeking safe holistic at home care and inexpensive all natural remedies A Modern Herbal (Volume 2) Margaret Grieve, 2021-11-11T12:15:00Z
