Modern Persian Short Stories Minoo S. Southgate, 1980 15 noveller af persiske forfattere Modern Persian short stories, 1, 1976 Modern Persian Short Stories, 1980 15 noveller af persiske forfattere Modern Persian short stories, 4, 1979 The Modern Persian Short Story, 1921-1981 John Green, 1987 and the close coincidence of the development of public literacy with that of the short story is discussed Modern Persian short stories, 3, 1983 Modern Persian short stories, 2, 1989 Sammlung Şamad Bihrangī, 1978 A collection of stories that express criticism of the social political and economic structures of contemporary Iran The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation Pouneh Shabani-Jadidi, Patricia J. Higgins, Michelle Quay, 2022-07-08 The Routledge Handbook of Persian Literary Translation offers a detailed overview of the field of Persian literature in translation discusses the development of the field gives critical expression to research on Persian literature in translation and brings together cutting edge theoretical and practical research The book is divided into the following three parts I Translation of Classical Persian Literature II Translation of Modern Persian Literature and III Persian Literary Translation in Practice The chapters of the book are authored by internationally renowned scholars in the field and the volume is an essential reference for scholars and their advanced students as well as for those researching in related areas and for independent translators of Persian literature Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction Mohammad Khorrami, 2014-09-25 The main focus of Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction is to identify components and elements which define Persian modernist fiction placing an emphasis on literary concepts and devices which provide the dynamics of the evolutionary trajectory of this modernism The question of who writes Iran refers to a contested area which goes beyond the discipline of literary criticism Non literary discourses have made every effort to impose their committed readings on literary texts they have even managed to exert influence on the process of literary creation In this process inevitably many works or segments of them and many concepts which do not lend themselves to such readings have been ignored at the same time many of them have been appropriated by these discourses Yet components and elements of Persian literary tradition have persistently engaged in this discursive confrontation mainly by insisting on literature's relative autonomy so that at least concepts such as conformity and subterfuge essential in terms of defining modern and modernist Persian fiction could be defined in a literary manner Proffering an alternative in terms of literary historiography this book supports a methodological approach that considers literary narratives which occur in the margins of dominant discourses and indeed promote non discursivity as the main writers of Persian modernist fiction It is an essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in Persian and comparative literature as well as Middle Eastern Studies more broadly Postmodern Approaches to the Short Story Farhat Iftekharudin, Joseph Boyden, Joseph Longo, Mary Rohrberger, 2003-03-30 Postmodernism as a mode of the contemporary short story has been clearly established and recognized by short story theorists But postmodern theory as pervasive as it has become among academics in the last half century has scarcely been applied to the short story genre in particular. Many contemporary scholars nonetheless are currently making use of certain postmodern thematic approaches to help them determine meanings of particular short stories. Short story theory began with Edgar Allan Poe's review of Twice Told Tales, a collection of stories by his contemporary Nathaniel Hawthorne. But theoretical discussions of the short story languished until modernism and the new criticism provided impetus for further development. Surprisingly though, the next large critical movement, postmodernism, failed to address the short story as a genre. But while there is little postmodern theory concerning the short story, contemporary scholars have used certain postmodern critical approaches to help determine meaning. This book demonstrates the effect of postmodern theory on the study of the short story genre. The expert contributors to this volume examine such topics as genre and form, the role of the reader, cultural and ethnic diversity, and feminist perspectives on the short story. In doing so, they apply postmodern theoretical approaches to international short stories, be they in the traditional mode, the modern mode, or the postmodern mode. The volume looks at fiction by Edith Wharton, Henry James, Katherine Mansfield, and other authors, and at Iranian short fiction, the postcolonial short story, the fantastic in short fiction, and other subjects.

The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry Farshad Sonboldel, 2024-02-08. An analysis of the aesthetic, cultural, and political aspects of alternative poetic movements and individual poets in three periods: the Constitutional Revolution (1900-1920), the post-constitutional era (1920-1940), and the ascendancy of modernism (1940-1960). Farshad Sonboldel shines new light on the history of modern Persian poetry by reimagining the roles that the aesthetic experimentations of alternative poets played in different phases of the literary revolution in modern Persian poetry. Dominant narratives portray modern Persian poetry as a gradual, rational, and moderate change in the classical regime of aesthetics, as well as a response to and reflection of cultural and socio-political changes within Iranian society. They also disregard the significance of radical experiments by alternative poets and undervalue the part they played in the initiation and progress of the so-called literary revolution. These mainstream narratives minimize the socio-political engagement of literary works with the direct reflection of the social reality and thus neglect the way many alternative poems struggle with socio-political issues through deconstructing the old and constructing new aesthetic systems. Each chapter of The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry is centred around poems chosen for their potential to showcase notable experiments of pioneer movements and individuals in each given period. Examining the formal and thematic aspects of these poems, this book reformulates the story of modern Persian poetry and unravels the relationship between radical aesthetic changes in the practice of poetry and resistance against political and cultural domination in society.

Persian Literature and Modernity Hamid Rezaei Yazdi, Arshavez Mozafari, 2018-12-07. Persian Literature and Modernity recasts the history of modern literature in Iran by elucidating the bonds between the classical tradition and modernity and exploring textual, generic, and discursive formations through heterodoxical investigations. This is first done through the rehabilitation of concepts embedded in tradition including the mun zirah debate Ahr man the demonic tajarrud radical aloneness and n riz yat discontent Following this are broader structural and processual treatments including the emergence of the genre of the social novel the international dimension of Persian and Persianate canon formation and the development of salvage ethnography and anthropological discourse in Iran Covering literary experiments from the twelfth to the twentieth centuries the chapters in this volume make a case for stepping outside the bounds of orthodox literary scholarship in Iranian studies with its associated political and orientalist determinants in order to provide a more nuanced conception of literary modernity in Iran Offering an alternative reading of modernity in Persian literature this book is an invaluable resource for scholars and students interested in the history of modern Iran and Persian Literature The Little Black Fish and Other Modern Persian Stories Šamad Bihrangī, Eric Hooglund, Mary Hooglund, Thomas Ricks, Ghulām Ḥusayn Sā'īdī, 1976 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 1991 The Three Dervishes and Other Persian Tales and Legends Reuben Levy, 1928 In a Persian Mirror M. R. Ghanoonparvar, 2010-07-05 The extreme anti Western actions and attitudes of Iranians in the 1980s astonished and dismayed the West which has characterized the Iranian positions as irrational and inexplicable In this groundbreaking study of images of the West in Iranian literature however M R Ghanoonparvar reveals that these attitudes did not develop suddenly or inexplicably but rather evolved over more than two centuries of Persian Western contact Notable among the authors whose works Ghanoonparvar discusses are Sadeq Hedayat M A Jamalzadeh Hushang Golshiri Gholamhoseyn Sa'edi Simin Daneshvar Moniru Ravanipur Sadeq Chubak and Jalal Al-e Ahmad This survey significantly illuminates the sources of Iranian attitudes toward the West and offers many surprising discoveries for Western readers not least of which is the fact that Iranians have often found Westerners to be as enigmatic and incomprehensible as we have believed them to be Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Lucian Stone, 2014-07-31 Since cosmopolitanism has often been conceived as a tenet of Western civilization that emanates from its Enlightenment based origins in a humanist age of modernity Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Spheres of Belonging advances a highly innovative gesture by contemplating the implications and relevance of the idea in a so called non Western cultural territory The particularities of the Iranian and Islamic context shed new light on advancements and obstacles to cosmopolitan praxis The volume provides four principle disciplinary assessments of cosmopolitanism philosophy political science sociology and cultural studies including literary criticism The authors in this collection critically examine topics including the historical encounter between Iranian and Western thinkers and its impact on Iranian political ideals the tension between maintaining apolitical theology rooted in metaphysical assumptions and the prerequisite of secularism in cosmopolitan and democratic philosophies This highly innovative volume will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern and Iranian Studies Islamic Studies Globalization Political Science and Philosophy Encyclopedia of Islam Juan Eduardo Campo, 2009 Explores the terms concepts personalities historical events and institutions that helped shape the history of this religion and the way it is practiced today Iranian Intellectuals and the West Mehrzad Boroujerdi, 1996-11-01 Mehrzad Boroujerdi challenges the way many Americans perceive present day Iran as well as how Iranians view the West He examines the works of thinkers seminal in defining modern Iran virtually unknown in the U S and concludes that Islam was not the primary source of their inspiration Their efforts forge an authentic national identity lay at the heart of Iranian thought These intellectuals both religious and secular appropriated Islam as the vehicle through which they could most effectively challenge or accommodate modernity and Westernization Through such a fitting appropriation Boroujerdi asserts could modern Iranian thinkers lay the foundation for a nativist vision of an unsullied culture seemingly free of Western influence Drawing on the works of Michel Foucault and Edward Said this book explore how Iranians use their own misunderstandings about the West to form their own identity and in return how Westerners describe Iran in negative terms to help them reaffirm the superiority of their own culture Boroujerdi also argues that Iranian intellectuals have been deeply indebted to Western thought which has served as the cultural reference through which they continue to struggle with issues of identity and selfhood
