Islamic Movement during second half of the 1990 s in Turkey It was the Civil Society Project as proposed by Ali Bulac a prominent intellectual which claimed to establish philosophical basis for a political and social restructuring of Turkey depending upon the basic premises of the Medina Document which was signed among Muslims Jews and Pagans of Medina City just after the Prophet Muhammed s migration in 622 The Project was a break from the tradi tional understanding of Islamic politics both in Turkey and in the Muslim world It was because of its focus on pluralism multi culturalism democracy human rights and many other liberal assumptions This was a turning point in Turkish politics since the discussions created a liberal atmosphere among Islamist leftist and rightists which at the end resulted in the mass acceptance of Islamic political parties by the voters since midst 1990 s The rise of first Refah Party and then AK Party owe much to this new understanding
