Modern Poetic Sequence The Genius Of Modern Poetry:

The Modern Poetic Sequence Macha Louis Rosenthal, Sally M. Gall, 1986-01-01 Ezra Pound's Cantos T S Eliot's Waste Land W B Yeats Irish civil war sequences and William Carlos Williams's Paterson are some of the most genuinely creative poems of the present age and all are examples of the modern poetic sequence In this revolutionary critical study Rosenthal and Gall establish the poetic sequence as the major genre of 20th century poetry claiming it as the decisive form toward which all the developments of modern poetry have tended The Modern Poetic Sequence explores 125 years of poetic history and examines the works of some fifty poets both major and minor to describe the evolution of this modern poetic form From Whitman and Dickinson to the Confessional poets Plath and Lowell to the recent writing of Kinsella Montague and Hill this volume encompasses the entire development of the modern sequence and offers provocative insights not only into the boundaries and features of this particular genre but into the whole of twentieth century poetry About the Author M L Rosenthal is Professor of English at New York University Sally M Gall is Poetry Editor of Free Inquiry Sylvia Plath Linda Wagner-Martin, 2013-04-15 This set comprises 40 volumes covering 19th and 20th century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set complements the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995 Reading the Ruins Leo Mellor, 2011-09-15 From fires to ghosts and from flowers to surrealist apparitions the bomb sites of London were both unsettling and inspiring terrains Yet throughout the years prior to the Second World War British culture was already filled with ruins and fragments They appeared as content with visions of tottering towers and scraps of paper and also as form in the shapes of broken poetries But from the outbreak of the Second World War what had been an aesthetic mode began to resemble a proleptic template During that conflict many modernist writers such as Graham Greene Louis MacNeice David Jones J F Hendry Elizabeth Bowen T S Eliot and Rose Macaulay engaged with devastated cityscapes and the altered lives of a nation at war To understand the potency of the bomb sites both in the Second World War and after Reading the Ruins brings together poetry novels and short stories as well as film and visual art Sylvia Plath L. Wagner-Martin, 2003-08-18 Sylvia Plath A Literary Life examines the way Plath made herself into a writer Close analysis of Plath's reading and apprenticeship writing both in fiction and poetry sheds considerable light on Plath's work in the late 1960s In this updated edition there will be discussion of the aftermath of Plath's death including the publication of her Collected Poems edited by Ted Hughes which won the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry in 1982 Biographies of Plath will be examined along with the publication of Hughes's Birthday Letters A chronology maps out key events and publications both in Plath's lifetime and posthumously Beyond Consolation Melissa F. Zeiger, 2018-05-31 Using as her starting point the story of Orpheus and Eurydice Melissa F Zeiger examines modern transformations of poetic elegy particularly as they reflect historical changes in the politics of gender and sexuality Although her focus is primarily on nineteenth and twentieth century poetry the scope of her investigation is grand

from John Milton's Lycidas to very recently written AIDS and breast cancer elegies Milton epitomized the traditional use of the Orpheus myth as an illustration of the female threat to masculine poetic prowess focused on the beleaguered Orpheus Zeiger documents the gradual inclusion of Eurydice from the elegies of Algernon Charles Swinburne through the work of Thomas Hardy and John Berryman re-examining the role of Eurydice and the feminine more generally in poetic production Zeiger then considers women poets who challenge the assumptions of elegies written by men sometimes identifying themselves with Eurydice Among these poets are H D Edna St Vincent Millay Anne Sexton and Elizabeth Bishop Zeiger concludes with a discussion of elegies for victims of current plagues explaining how poets mourning those lost to AIDS and breast cancer rewrite elegy in ways less repressive sacrificial or punitive than those of the Orphean tradition Among the poets discussed are Essex Hemphill Thom Gunn Mark Doty Audre Lorde Adrienne Rich and Marilyn Hacker

This book joins the notion that Second Isaiah is a poetic text with the task of interpreting it as a unified whole. In so doing it makes methodological suggestions for applying a lyric poetic approach to biblical texts. The practical application of this approach shows Second Isaiah to be characterized by tension, conflict, and juxtaposition. The lyric model shows these conflicts such as the presence of searing indictments in the book of comfort to be integral elements of the mode by which Second Isaiah addresses its audience. This book highlights the tonalities of the divine voice as central to Second Isaiah's particularly poetic mode of cohesion and essential to the conflicted comfort. Second Isaiah offers its reader Writing Home Elmer Kennedy-Andrews, 2008

The idea of place and of being displaced is a powerful leit motif in Northern Irish poetry. It is here explored in depth from the 1960s to the present day. Ideas of home, place, and identity have been continually questioned, reimagined, and re-constructed in Northern Irish poetry. Concentrating on the period since the outbreak of the Troubles in the late 1960s, this study provides a detailed consideration of the work of several generations of poets from Hewitt and MacNeice to Fiacca and Montague to Simmons, Heaney, Mahon, and Longley to Muldoon, Carson, Paulin, and McGuckian to McDonald, Morrissey, Gillis, and Flynn. It traces the extent to which their writing represents a move away from concepts of rootedness and towards a deterritorialized poetics of displacement, mobility, openness, and pluralism in an era of accelerating migration and globalisation. In the new readings of place, inherited maps are no longer reliable, and home is no longer the stable ground of identity but seems instead to be always where it is not. The crossing of boundaries and the experience of diaspora open up new understandings of the relations between places, a new sense of the permeability and contingency of cultures, and new concepts of identity and home. Writing in Real Time is the first book-length study of the American long poem as a complex adaptive system Selected Poems And Four Plays William Butler Yeats, 2011-11-08

Since its first appearance in 1962, M. L. Rosenthal's classic selection of Yeats's poems and plays has attracted hundreds of thousands of readers. This newly revised edition includes 211 poems and 4 plays. It adds The Words Upon the Window Pane, one of Yeats's most startling dramatic works, in its realistic use of a seance as the setting for an eerily powerful reenactment of Jonathan Swift's rigorous idealism, baffling love relationships, and tragic madness. The collection profits from recent scholarship that has helped to establish Yeats's most reliable texts in the order set by the poet himself. And his powerful lyrical sequences are amply represented, culminating in the selection from Last Poems and Two Plays, which reaches its climax in the brilliant poetic plays The Death of Cuchulain and Purgatory. Scholars, students, and all who delight in Yeats's varied music and sheer quality will rejoice in this expanded edition. As the introduction observes: Early and late, he has the simple indispensable gift of enchanting the ear. He was also the poet who, while very much of his own day in Ireland, spoke best to the people of all countries. And though he plunged deep into arcane studies, his themes are most clearly the general.

ones of life and death love and hate man's condition and history's meanings He began as a sometimes effete post Romantic heir to the pre Raphaelites and then quite naturally became a leading British Symbolist but he grew at last into the boldest most vigorous voice of this century Selected Poems and Four Plays represents the essential achievement of the greatest twentieth century poet to write in English Economies of Desire at the Victorian Fin de Siècle Jane Ford, Kim Edwards Keates, Patricia Pulham, 2015-10-14 This volume marks the first sustained study to interrogate how and why issues of sexuality desire and economic processes intersect in the literature and culture of the Victorian fin de siècle At the end of the nineteenth century the move towards new models of economic thought marked the transition from a marketplace centred around the fulfilment of needs to one ministering to anything that might potentially be desired This collection considers how the literature of the period meditates on the interaction between economy and desire doing so with particular reference to the themes of fetishism homoeroticism the literary marketplace social hierarchy and consumer culture Drawing on theoretical and conceptual approaches including queer theory feminist theory and gift theory contributors offer original analyses of work by canonical and lesser known writers including Oscar Wilde A E Housman Baron Corvo Vernon Lee Michael Field and Lucas Malet The collection builds on recent critical developments in fin de siècle literature including major interventions in the areas of Decadence sexuality and gender studies and asks for instance how did late nineteenth century writing schematise the libidinal and somatic dimensions of economic exchange How might we define the relationship between eroticism and the formal economies of literary production performance And what relation exists between advertising consumer culture and dissident sexuality in fin de siècle literary discourses This book marks an important contribution to 19th Century and Victorian literary studies and enhances the field of fin de siècle studies more generally

Atlantic Communities María Teresa Caneda-Cabrera, Rui Carvalho Homem, David Johnston, 2022-12-26 Historically the Atlantic Ocean has served to define the relationship between the so called worlds of the Old and the New A geographical divide between continents it is also no less a historical space across which peoples have travelled sharing ideas and cultural practices a site of encounter and exchange that has shaped the lives of communities and nations across the globe This book maps this productive web of multi layered connections not just in terms of military migratory economic and commercial actions and processes but also of shifting lines of translation that have mobilised ideas fomented the exchange of experiences and opened up channels of communication The Atlantic is considered here a global translation zone that has been created through a myriad of crossings physical and conceptual and historically shaped through the reciprocal influences between the different communities situated around and beyond its shores In the final analysis the book explores the Atlantic as a zone of created relation characterised by the interaction between processes of translation mobility and in the best of cases of hospitality and most importantly as a space no longer defined by economic and military power but by the multiplicity of identities forged in its ambit This book will be of interest to scholars and advanced students of translation studies literature history human geography politics sociology and cultural studies It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Atlantic Studies
