Nothing Lost Vintage Contemporaries:

Nothing Lost John Gregory Dunne, 2007-12-18 A grisly racial murder in what news commentators insist on calling the heartland A feeding frenzy of mass media and seamy politics An illicit love affair with the potential to wreck lives In his grandly inventive last novel John Gregory Dunne orchestrated these elements into a symphony of American violence chicanery and sadness In the aftermath of Edgar Parlane's killing the small prairie town of Regent becomes a destination for everyone from a sociopathic teenaged supermodel to an enigmatic attorney with secret familial links to the worlds of Hollywood and organized crime Out of their manifold convergences their jockeying for power publicity or love Nothing Lost creates a drama of magnificent scope and acidity Lost in the New West Mark Asquith, 2021-10-07 Lost in the New West investigates a group of writers John Williams Cormac McCarthy Annie Proulx and Thomas McGuane who have sought to explore the tensions inherent to the Western where the distinctions between old and new myth and reality authenticity and sentimentality are frequently blurred Collectively these authors demonstrate a deep seated attachment to the landscape people and values of the West and offer a critical appraisal of the dialogue between the contemporary West and its legacy Mark Asquith draws attention to the idealistic young men at the center of such works as Williams's Butcher's Crossing 1960 McCarthy's Blood Meridian 1985 and Border Trilogy Proulx's Wyoming stories and McGuane's Deadrock novels For each writer these characters struggle to come to terms with the difference between the suspect mythology of the West that shapes their identity and the reality that surrounds them They are in short lost in the new West The Vintage Contemporaries Reader Vintage Contemporaries Staff, Vintage Contemporaries, 1998-06-23 The Lost City Henry Shukman, 2009-04-07 Jackson Small barely twenty and just discharged from the military sets off in search of something he cannot even be sure is real La Joya the lost capital of an ancient vanished Peruvian empire Traveling through South America Jackson makes his way through desert arid mountains inhospitable villages and impenetrable jungle meeting several unforgettable characters including an American woman who both redefines and fulfills all of Jackson's expectations And though he's warned at almost every turn he still enters the lethal forest that hides La Joya where he will discover other searchers with motives far more sinister than his own With its lyrical voice heart stopping pace and the audacious romanticism of the quest that fuels it The Lost City is a novel at once suspenseful unexpected and thoroughly mesmerizing The Vintage Book of Contemporary American Poetry J. Kierkegaard and Issues in Contemporary Ethics Méliissa Fox-Muratón,2020-10-26 While Kierkegaard s philosophy focuses on concrete human existence his thought has rarely been challenged regarding concrete and contemporary moral issues This volume offers an overview of contemporary ethical issues from a Kierkegaardian perspective deliberately taking him out of the sphere of Theology and Christian Ethics and examining the ways in which his works can provide fruitful insight into questions which Kierkegaard certainly never himself envisaged such as accepting refugees into our communities understanding how we relate to social media issues of identity with regard to bioengineering or transgender identity or problems of interreligious dialogue The contributions in this volume by international scholars seek to address both the challenges and insights of Kierkegaard s existential ethics for our contemporary societies and its relation to topics of current interest in the field of moral philosophy The volume is organized into three major sections the first focusing on the relation between ethics and religion a topic of primary importance with regard to the development of religious foundationalism and the challenges of dealing with diverse belief systems within our communities the second on our understandings of ourselves and our relations to others with regard to issues of media and community and the third targeting more specifically questions of identity and the ways in which the developments of modern science impact identity construction This work offers new paths for critically engaging with the moral issues of our times from an existential perspective Elderberry Wine Vintage 2010 Deborah Guyol, 2011

Elderberry Wine Vintage 2010 is an anthology of student writing from the Mature Learning Program at Clark College in Vancouver Washington offers something for everyone The pieces in this collection range from Poetry sonnets and haiku free verse meter and rhyme to fiction both fanciful and serious and nostalgia for the past and visions of the future Come along on adventures in a swampy town in the American South in the 1930s an apartment building in the squalid northwest Portland of the 1970s and the lair of a drug lord in the Caribbean of the 1980s Exploring all manner of topics from the natural world to the lives of houses to human life and aging this collection presents a wide range of unique views and perspectives on life with something for everyone Looking for Love The little green lizard struts across the woman's porch railing with a proprietary air then suddenly stops and flicks down a flap of vermilion colored skin from his throat and freezes in place He bobs his head up and down several times before moving on Wordless soundless but with such eloquence of expression does he signal his desire for a mate that without conscious intent the woman touches fingers to her throat then catches herself and with a rueful smile nods back Herb Stokes long time creative writing student The Vintage Book of Contemporary American Short Stories

Nelson, 2013-10-10 Though one of the most popular genres for decades the western started to lose its relevance in the 1960s and 1970s and by the early 1980s it had ridden into the sunset on screens both big and small The genre has enjoyed a resurgence however and in the past few decades some remarkable westerns have appeared on television and in movie theaters From independent films to critically acclaimed Hollywood productions and television series the western remains an important part of American popular culture Running the gamut from traditional to revisionist with settings ranging from the old West to the new Wests of the present day and distant future contemporary westerns continue to explore the history geography myths and legends of the American frontier In Contemporary Westerns Film and Television since 1990 Andrew P Nelson has collected essays that examine the trends and transformations in this underexplored period in Western film and television history Addressing the new Western they argue for the continued relevance and vibrancy of the genre as a narrative form The book is organized into two sections Old West New Stories examines Westerns with common frontier locales such as Dances with Wolves Unforgiven Deadwood and True Grit New Wests Old Stories explores works in which familiar Western narratives characters and values are represented in more modern and in one case futuristic settings Included are the films No Country for Old Men and There Will Be Blood as well as the shows Firefly and Justified With a foreword by Edward Buscombe as well as an introduction that provides a comprehensive overview this volume offers readers a compelling argument for the healthy survival of the Western Written for scholars as well as educated viewers
