New York Magazine ,1972-04-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Encyclopedia Americana ,1927 Art as Seen in the Light of Mystery Wisdom Rudolf Steiner,2013-04-03 Within the Mystery cultures of ancient history art science and religion formed a unity that offered direction and spiritual nourishment to the broader society Today art science and religion can again be reunited However as Marie Steiner indicates in her introduction to these lectures these aspects of our culture need rejuvenation through fresh spiritual understanding and knowledge Art cannot be renewed through compromise but only by returning to the spiritual foundations of life As she says The remedy lies in unlocking the wisdom of the Mysteries and presenting it to humanity in a form adapted to contemporary needs In these wide ranging lectures Rudolf Steiner offers spiritual insight for the modern day into a revitalised world of the arts His themes include the relation of art to technology the moral experience of the worlds of colour and music the legendary Norwegian Dream Song of Olaf steson and the relationship between the various arts of architecture sculpture painting music poetry eurythmy and the human being The Aesthetic State Josef Chytry,2024-07-26 Shortly after the middle of the eighteenth century a number of thinkers from the German speaking lands began to create a paradigm drawn from their impressions of a distant historical reality ancient Athens added to it a new mode of thought modern dialectics and at times even paid homage to the ancient Greek deity Dionysos to materialize their longing for an ideal The influence of these forces came to permeate modern German consciousness deifying the concept and activity of art reviving the Platonic and Sanskrit vision of the cosmos as play and aesthetic creation and projecting a way of life and labor that would honor not the commodity but the aesthetic product With rigorous commitment to primary sources and an unflagging critical engagement with the ideas and concrete situations they raise Josef Chytry provides a comprehensive and extensive study of this central motif in German thought from Winckelmann to Marcuse Chytry takes aesthetic state to signify the concentrated modern intellectual movement to revitalize the radical Hellenic tradition of the polis as the site of a beautiful or good life The movement begins with the classicism of Winckelmann Wiemar aesthetic humanism Wieland Herder Goethe and Schiller s formal theory of the aesthetic state and continues through the idealism of the Swabian dialecticians Holderlin Hegel and Schelling and the realism of Marx Wagner and Nietzsche It culminates in the postrealism of Heidegger Marcuse and the aesthetic modernist artist Walter Spies who initiated a dialogue with the non Western theatre state of the isle of Bali Josef Chytry concludes that the future speculation on the ideal of an aesthetic state must come to terms with the postrealist themes of ontological anarchy aesthetic ethos and theatre state In a bold effort to stimulate such speculation Chytry indicates how proponents of the aesthetic state might join forces with Rawlsian political theory to promote further the organon of persuasion that in his view serves as the common fount for the ancient dialectical and contractarian quests for the polis This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1989

Alloys Marin R. Sullivan, 2022-03-01 A new look at the interrelationship of architecture and sculpture during one of the richest periods of American modern design Alloys looks at a unique period of synergy and exchange in the postwar United States when sculpture profoundly shaped architecture and vice versa Leading architects such as Gordon Bunshaft and Eero Saarinen turned to sculptors including Harry Bertoia Alexander Calder Richard Lippold and Isamu Noguchi to produce site determined large scale sculptures tailored for their buildings highly visible and well traversed threshold spaces The parameters of these spaces atriums lobbies plazas and entryways led to various designs like sculptural walls ceilings and screens that not only embraced new industrial materials and processes but also demonstrated art s ability to merge with lived architectural spaces Marin Sullivan argues that these sculptural commissions represent an alternate history of midcentury American art Rather than singular masterworks by lone geniuses some of the era s most notable spaces Philip Johnson s Four Seasons Restaurant in Mies van der Rohe s Seagram Building Max Abramovitz s Philharmonic Hall at Lincoln Center and Pietro Belluschi and Walter Gropius s Pan Am Building would be diminished without the collaborative efforts of architects and artists At the same time the artistic creations within these spaces could not exist anywhere else Sullivan shows that the principle of synergy provides an ideal framework to assess this pronounced relationship between sculpture and architecture She also explores the afterlives of these postwar commissions in the decades since their construction A fresh consideration of sculpture s relationship to architectural design and functionality following World War II Alloys highlights the affinities between the two fields and the ways their connections remain with us today
