PATRICIA ADAMS FARMER author of Embracing a Beautiful God After being introduced to the worldview of process thought Christian readers so often ask But how can this worldview be connected with traditional Christian belief and practice The Process Perspective offers a process response to the questions that are truly on people s minds Is God personal Is prayer effective Who was Jesus Why do the innocent suffer It presents a way of thinking about Christian faith and living the Christian life that is a viable alternative to fundamentalism on the one hand and lukewarm liberalism on the other It displays a Christianity with roots and wings Thank you John Cobb

JAY McDANIEL author of Living from the Center Spirituality in an Age of Consumerism In this fresh perspective on faith from a man of faith internationally renowned process theologian John B Cobb Jr addresses more than thirty questions about God Christ the Bible the church humankind and ethics He seeks to put process ideas into plain language with clear implications for faithful living

The Old Testament and Process Theology Robert Karl Gnuse, 2016-03-08 Using the insights of process theology Gnuse explores the Old Testament beginning with the categories of classic Old Testament theology revelation suffering creation covenant justice law and salvation

Process Theology Bruce G. Epperly, 2014-02-17 Process theology is considered a very complex and difficult to understand system Is it possible to get a basic grasp of what it is and how it impacts our lives and service to others In this brief lively and engaging book Dr Bruce Epperly untangles the difficult concepts of process theology and shows how we can envision a God who is in relation to us throughout our lives here and in the next world He believes that God is present at the moment of our conception guides us through the adventures of this lifetime urging us to rejoice in embodiment and bring healing to our world and upon our final earthly breath receives us with open arms with visions of future adventures in communion with God and our fellow creatures Not only is this theology easy to understand but it also challenges us to live out God s adventure in with joy sharing God s life with all of God s creatures This book is an excellent introduction to process theology useful for small groups or individual study and includes a list of resources for further study

Abortion and the Christian Tradition Margaret D. Kamitsuka, 2019-10-29 Abortion remains the most contested political issue in American life Poll results have remained surprisingly constant over the years with roughly equal numbers supporting and opposing it A common perception is that abortion is contrary to Christian teaching and values While some have challenged that perception few have attempted a comprehensive critique and constructive counterargument on Christian ethical and theological grounds Margaret Kamitsuka begins with a careful examination of the church's biblical and historical record refuting the assumption that Christianity has always condemned abortion or that it considered personhood as beginning at the moment of conception She then offers carefully crafted ethical arguments about the pregnant woman's authority to make reproductive decisions and builds a theological rationale for seeing abortion as something other than a sin

Process Theology and the Revival We Need Bruce G. Epperly, 2023-03-29 Revival has not been a popular word in mainline and progressive circles but as more and more progressive and open relational theologians have become open to spiritual and mystical possibilities interest has grown Bruce Epperly who has previously tackled such controversial issues as angels miracles healing and prayer now takes on this challenging topic With renewed discussion as the result of the Asbury Awakening and the release of the movie Jesus Revolution his response to revival movements in the church is especially welcome Bruce has long been a prominent proponent of process theology for every church member explaining some of the more difficult concepts in relatable terms for the people in the pews In this book he recognizes the need for revival and asks what this should look like Too often moves of the Spirit die out as people find it difficult to see a way to live out the divine encounter they have experienced This book is addressed both to those hungry for more and to those who have felt the presence of the Divine in various ways and are asking how they can understand and live in the light of that they have experienced

The Bible in Theology and Preaching Donald K. McKim, 1999-05-05 Major Themes in the Reformed Tradition Donald K. McKim, 1998-03-11 A compilation of thirty seven essays outlining and exemplifying Reformed views on the major Christian doctrines and practices As editor Donald McKim notes this volume constitutes the only substantial theological reference tool for studying the major emphases of Reformed theology Process Thought and Roman Catholicism John Becker, Marc A. Pugliese, 2022-03-21 This collection of essays explores convergences and divergences between process thought and Roman Catholicism with the goal of identifying reasons for why process philosophy and theology has not had the same impact in Roman Catholic circles as in Protestantism and of constructively navigating avenues of promising engagement between Process thought and Roman Catholicism In creatively considering the Roman Catholic tradition from the vantage point of Process thought different theoretical perspectives are brought to bear on Catholic characteristics of historical theology fundamental theology systematic theology moral theology social justice and theology of religions While the contributors draw upon a broad range of resources from the disciplines of the physical and social sciences philosophy and ethics from a process perspective the primary methodology employed is theological reflection Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa

The Process of Buddhist-Christian Dialogue Paul O Ingram, 2011-09-29 While process philosophers and theologians have written numerous essays on Buddhist Christian dialogue few have sought to expand the current Buddhist Christian dialogue into a trilogy by bringing the natural sciences into the discussion as a third partner This was the topic of Paul O Ingram's previous book Buddhist Christian Dialogue in an Age of Science The thesis of the present work is that Buddhist Christian dialogue in all three of its forms conceptual social engagement and interior are interdependent processes of creative transformation Ingram appropriates the categories of Whitehead's process metaphysics as a means of clarifying how dialogue is now mutually and creatively transforming both Buddhism and Christianity Drawing also on the work of theologian John Hicks and philosopher of science Imre Lakatos Ingram develops an understanding of Buddhist Christian dialogue in the context of a religious pluralism that is both open and dynamic and methodologically rigorous Wide ranging and full of insight The Process of Buddhist Christian Dialogue will be invaluable to scholars and students of comparative religion

The Divine Decision Donna Bowman, 2002-01-01 Donna Bowman utilizes the work of process thinker Alfred North Whitehead to develop a doctrine of election that dialogues with the view of Reformed theologian Karl Barth Taking seriously Barth's contention that election is the best of all words that can be spoken about God Bowman reinterprets Whitehead's description of God's provision of the initial aim to each entity as the central cosmological and theological fact of universal election By combining Barth's concerns with process categories she concludes that both systems are aimed at common theological and philosophical enemies

The Greening of Protestant Thought Robert Booth Fowler, 2000-11-09 The Greening of Protestant Thought traces the increasing influence of environmentalism on American Protestantism since the first Earth Day which took place in 1970 Robert Booth Fowler explores the extent to which ecological concerns permeate Protestant thought and examines contemporary controversies within and between mainline and fundamentalist Protestantism over the Bible's teachings about the environment Fowler explores the historical roots of environmentalism in Protestant thought including debates over God's relationship to nature and the significance of the current environmental crisis for the history of Christianity Although he argues that mainline Protestantism is becoming increasingly green he also examines the theological basis for many fundamentalists' hostility toward the environmental movement In addition Fowler considers Protestantism's policy agendas for environmental change as well as the impact on mainline Protestant thinking of modern eco theologies process and creation theologies and ecofeminism

Panentheism--The Other God of the Philosophers John W. Cooper, 2006-11-01 Panentheism has gained popularity among contemporary thinkers This belief system explains that all is in

God as a soul is related to a body so God is related to the world In Panentheism The Other God of the Philosophers philosopher and theologian John Cooper traces the growth and evolution of this intricate theology from Plotinus to Alfred North Whitehead to the present This landmark book the first complete history of panentheism written in English explores the subject through the lens of various thinkers such as Plato Jürgen Moltmann Paul Tillich Wolfhart Pannenberg and Charles Hartshorne and discusses how panentheism has influenced liberation feminist and ecological theologies Cooper not only sketches the evolution of panentheism but also critiques it ultimately he offers a defense of classical theism This book is for readers who care deeply about theology and think seriously about their faith Christianity and International Law Pamela Slotte, John D. Haskell, 2021-05-20 This cross disciplinary collaboration offers historical and contemporary scholarship exploring the interface of Christianity and international law Christianity and International Law aims to understand and move past arguments narratives and tropes that commonly frame law religion studies in global governance Readers are introduced to a range of confessional and critical perspectives explicitly engaging a diverse range of methodological and theoretical orientations to rethink how we experience and find ourselves caught within the phenomena of Christianity and international law Divine Presence as Activity and the Incarnation Alexander S. Jensen, 2024-07-22 This book offers an original perspective on the doctrine of incarnation through a discussion of divine presence and action arguing for the plausibility of Chalcedonian Christology It draws on a range of theological and philosophical sources from St Athanasius of Alexandria's approach regarding the presence of the logos asarkos in the world to the relational understanding of personhood put forward by John Zizioulas Christos Yannaras and others The suggestion is that divine presence needs to be understood in consistently Trinitarian terms and the book sets out the possibility of a theology of presence which understands God as present and immanent in the world while at the same time remaining transcendent and ineffable Alexander Jensen maintains that the classical understanding of divine presence which sees God as being present according to God's activity is much more useful in Christology than today's predominant modern notion of presence as occupying space and combines this with an ontological understanding of personhood The book gives an account of the person and work of Christ that takes seriously the insights of historical research and critical biblical interpretation It takes seriously the full humanity of Jesus of Nazareth and asserts that in this man we encounter God It will be of particular interest to systematic theologians as well as those concerned with the history of Christian theology and philosophical theology Way of Blessing Way of Life Clark M. Williamson, 1999 Nature, Human Nature, and God Ian G. Barbour, Ian Barbour offers analyses of the shape and import of evolutionary theory indeterminacy neuroscience information theory and artificial intelligence He also addresses deeper philosophical issues and the idea of nature itself Then Barbour advances to the interconnected religious questions at the core of contemporary debate Are humans free Does religion itself evolve Are we immortal Is God omnipotent How does God act in nature Barbour's work offers hope that newer religious insights and imperatives occasioned by deep interaction with science can address the environmental and global challenges posed by the relentless advance of science God in Postliberal Perspective Robert Andrew Cathey, 2016-04-22 Who is God The variety of images of God tends to overwhelm us in the present age Is God a fiction of human construction or a reality that makes claims upon how we practice faith in God How does this quest for an understanding of God illumine who we are God in Postliberal Perspective presents an introduction to the doctrine and concept of God in contemporary philosophy and theology exploring how some theologians and philosophers dare to speak of God as real in our sceptical pluralistic and interfaith age Robert Cathey tours the house of realism as constructed by postliberal Christians David Burrell William Placher Bruce Marshall in conversation with living communities of faith and critical work in philosophy and theology and develops a distinctive argument about the relation of realism and non realism in constructing the doctrine of God in postliberal theology Offering a reading of postliberal theology which is open to critical discussion with other types of theology philosophy and faith traditions this book proposes a model of theological reflection that may be extended to the reality claims of a wide range of doctrines and concepts
