Siegel, 2015-08-10 Processes of Constitutional Decisionmaking Cases and Materials 2015 Supplement The Making of a European Constitution Sonja Puntischer Riekmann, Wolfgang Wessels, 2007-08-19 The aim of this publication is an analysis of the process of European constitutionalisation and its entanglement with relevant national discourses Thus national constitutional traditions in Austria France Germany and the United Kingdom are evaluated with regard to the positions of the respective national representatives in the European Convention Interviews with Members of National Parliaments and of the European Parliament as well as a content analysis of the debate on the future of Europe in print media form the empirical basis of this study Information Ethics Adam D. Moore, 2005 This anthology which focuses on the ethical issues surrounding free speech and information control includes writings by Aristotle John Stuart Mill and Immanuel Kant as well as expert 20th and 21st century commentators on aspects of the current debate Processes of Constitutional Decisionmaking Paul Brest, Sanford Levinson, 1983 The authors seek to explore the structure and operation as well as the doctrines of American constitutional law by examining the processes of constitutional decisionmaking Part I examines the four recurring constitutional issues of federalism property rights racial equality and judicial review concurrently within each of several periods Part II focuses on contemporary issues under the due process and equal protection clauses and is concerned with strategies of constitutional decisionmaking when the text of the constitution does not provide significant guidance Part III covers issues of institutional competence and authority justifications for judicial review decisionmaking authority of nonjudicial institutions such as that of the U S Congress under the political question doctrine Part IV deals with the clauses of the First Amendment protecting the freedoms of speech and the press ISBN 0 316 10794 8 32 00 Information Ethics Adam Daniel Moore, 2012-09-01 This anthology focuses on the ethical issues surrounding information control in the broadest sense Anglo American institutions of intellectual property protect and restrict access to vast amounts of information Ideas and expressions captured in music movies paintings processes of manufacture human genetic information and the like are protected domestically and globally The ethical issues and tensions surrounding free speech and information control intersect in at least two important respects First the commons of thought and expression is threatened by institutions of copyright patent and trade secret While institutions of intellectual property may be necessary for innovation and social progress they may also be detrimental when used by the privileged and economically advantaged to control information access consumption and expression Second free speech concerns have been allowed to trump privacy interests in all but the most egregious of cases At the same time our ability to control access to information about ourselves what some call informational privacy is rapidly diminishing Data mining and digital profiling are opening up what most would consider private domains for public consumption and manipulation Post 9 11 issues of national security have run headlong into individual rights to privacy and free speech concerns While constitutional guarantees against unwarranted searches and seizures have been relaxed access to vast amounts of information held by government agencies libraries and other information storehouses has been restricted in the name of national security Netherlands Yearbook of International Law - 2003 Niels M. Blokker,N. J. Schrijver,2011-01-07 Two major factors brought about the establishment of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law in 1970 demand for the publication of national practice in international law and the desirability for legal practitioners state representatives and international lawyers to have access to the growing amount of available data in the form of articles notes etc The Documentation section contains an extensive review of Dutch state practice from the parliamentary year prior to publication an account of developments relating to treaties and other international agreements to which the Netherlands is a party summaries of Netherlands judicial decisions involving questions of public international law many not published elsewhere lists of Dutch publications in the field and extracts from relevant municipal legislation Although the NYIL has a distinctive national character it is published in English and the editors do not adhere to any geographical limitations when deciding upon the inclusion of articles Current Law Index ,2007
