Proclaim Christ Until He Comes:

Proclaim Christ Until He Comes James Dixon Douglas,1990 Proclaiming Christ in Christ's Way Vinay Samuel,Albrecht Hauser,2007-09 In March 1987 forty five Christians from around the world met to consider evangelism at the invitation of the Commission for World Mission and Evangelism of the World Council of Churches In this volume thirteen of the participants from five continents expand on an aspect of integral evangelism discussed in that statement The collection is a sixtieth birthday tribute to the host of the Stuttgart meeting Walter Arnold of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Wuerttemberg The Lord's Supper Thomas R. Schreiner,2010 An exploration of the Baptist view of the Lord s Supper contrasting it with Roman Catholic Lutheran Calvinist and Zwinglian perspectives Mission as Integrated Witness Jae-Suk Lee,2021-05-25 This study aims to read Jesus s foot washing narrative missionally John 13 1 38 A missional reading is identical to a missional hermeneutics based on the literary theological interpretation of the text John uses sending language and formulae and the frame of as so throughout the whole Gospel which clarifies Jesus s and his disciples mission as integrated witness In this literary context the foot washing narrative signifies the integrated witness of Jesus and the disciples The narrative consists of two parts one Jesus s symbolic action for his death and the other for its interpretation for the disciple community Jesus s death as his unique mission results in purifying both his disciples and the world so that they might dwell in the holy union with the triune God The disciples are sent into the world Just as Jesus did so must they proclaim Jesus and his teachings Also they should bear witness to him by living Jesus s life pattern of self giving sacrificial love and humble service Their verbal proclamation as evangelism and life witness cannot be separated to testify to Jesus and their identity Finally today s Christians specifically Evangelicals are invited to participate in the Johannine mission as the integrated witness of evangelism and life witness Traditional Ritual as Christian Worship Burrows, William R.,Shaw, R. Daniel,2018-03-27 A necessary task of missionaries in recent decades has been to help local Christians inculturate or contextualize their faith although the criteria for doing so often came from outside the context in which new believers developed their understanding of Christianity Highlighting the voices of non Western scholars this work recognizes the importance of ritual and ceremony in the life of communities that seek to worship God in ways that reflect culturally appropriate responses to Scripture The contributors some of missiology s leading lights discuss rituals beliefs and practices of diverse peoples supporting the conclusion that orthodox Christianity is hybrid Christianity The Missionary Spirit Ireland, Jerry M.,2021-08-25 Argues for a return to the early emphasis in Pentecostal missiology on the need for cross cultural evangelism as opposed to the current trend focusing on a broader more amorphous understanding of the field The Christian Ministry: what it Is, and what it is Not James BARDSLEY,1872 Come and See Edward Rommen,2013-07-18 The mission of the Church is to introduce the person of Christ to individual human beings who by faith enter into communion with God This does not involve adapting information to a particular context but rather establishing the context prescribed by God for the presence of Christ wherever we happen to be among the peoples of the world Contextualization then creates a new invitational core context which is host to the presence of the divine person This is defined with the help of the gifts of ecclesial Tradition which enables conditions that facilitate communion and which thus helps us engage the world

Christian Mission in the Twentieth Century Timothy Yates, 1994 Offering an essential historical overview of the chief developments in Christian mission this should become a standard textbook

The Apocalyptic Heart Ron Browning, 2015-05-19 Is the book of Revelation the biblical book for the twentieth first century due to the growing interest in apocalyptic A fresh approach is needed to help access its symbolic mysteries an approach that avoids fundamentalist literal interpretation and the tendency in liberal thinking to doubt that God will act decisively in the future in some way These meditations take us far and wide in an understanding of Christian apocalyptic thought from the lived faith of refugee and oppressed communities to traditions of the Orthodox Church Emphasized throughout is a direction in modern scholarship that sees the catastrophes described in Revelation as symbolic of events that are already happening in the course of world history It presents the bringing of the era to its end because of the victory of Christ over evil which is to be finally vanquished with universal judgment and glorious consummation in store The unfolding work of God's justice is displayed Fellowship with the martyrs the servants of the Lamb is of special significance The Apocalyptic Heart traces these themes based on particular moments in the text of Revelation and explores their meaning for the present Edinburgh 2010

Daryl Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010-08-01 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010 witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God's purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2-6 June 2010 There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world Book jacket

Holistic Mission Hannes Wiher, 2022-05-16 For the last 50 years one of the most important discussions in global evangelicalism has concerned the idea of holistic mission which proposes the integration of verbal evangelism and social engagement within Christian mission This book examines how key terms such as evangelism and mission have been understood in contemporary evangelical declarations from 1966 to 2011 in the Bible and in the missiological debate It adopts an in depth approach to the historical biblical and theological analysis The main thesis is that the different conceptions of evangelism and mission in general and that of holistic mission in particular have their root in the worldview of the various theologians and Christian leaders preparing these statements The book evaluates the missiological conceptions of evangelism and mission proposed in the various declarations in the light of the Bible so as to derive a biblical understanding of evangelism and mission

Making a Meal of it Ben Witherington (III), 2007 A biblical historical and theological study of the Lord's Supper in Christian tradition

Biblical Counsel, 1993

To Bring the Good News to All Nations Lauren Frances Turek, 2020-05-15 When American evangelicals flocked to Latin America Africa Asia and Eastern Europe in the late twentieth century to fulfill their Biblical mandate for global evangelism their experiences abroad led them to engage more deeply in foreign policy activism at home Lauren Frances Turek tracks these trends and illuminates the complex and significant ways in which religion shaped America's role in the late Cold War world In To Bring the Good News to All Nations she examines the growth and influence of Christian foreign policy lobbying groups in the United States beginning in the 1970s assesses the effectiveness of Christian efforts to attain foreign aid for favored regimes and considers how those same groups promoted the imposition of economic and diplomatic sanctions on those nations that stifled evangelism Using archival materials from both religious and government sources To Bring the Good News to All Nations links the development of evangelical foreign policy lobbying to the overseas missionary agenda Turek's case studies Guatemala South Africa and the Soviet Union reveal the extent of Christian influence on American foreign policy from the late 1970s through the 1990s Evangelical policy work also reshaped the lives of Christians overseas and contributed to a reorientation of U.S. human rights policy Efforts to promote global evangelism and support foreign brethren led activists to push Congress to grant aid to favored yet repressive regimes in countries such as Guatemala while imposing economic and diplomatic sanctions on nations that persecuted Christians such as the Soviet Union This advocacy shifted the definitions and priorities of U.S. human rights policies with lasting repercussions that can be traced into the twenty first century

Christians Meeting Hindus Bob Robinson, 2011-06-16 With rare exceptions serious intentional reflective and sustained interfaith encounter is a novel and recent enterprise This book looks in detail at one such encounter the intentional recent Hindu Christian dialog in India and asks why and how the practice of dialog came to replace previous attitudes of confrontation and monologue especially on the part of Christians Part I sets the encounter in its global context Part II offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of the actual encounter Part III draws on aspects of the Christian tradition as it critically examines the ways in which the dialog has been justified in Christological categories A final chapter discusses the future of the encounter Unlike many other works in the area of interfaith studies this work combines both descriptive detail of the actual encounter and critical theological analysis of the strengths and weakness of the dialog model Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe s most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword
