Muse Daniel Kornstein,2010 This trail blazing book explores previously uncharted aspects of law and literature as well as the psychology paradoxes and wonderful mystery of creativity A study of artistic inspiration Unlikely Muse examines and analyzes the lives and works of three very different writers who combine law literature and imagination nineteenth century French novelist Honor de Balzac modernist American poet Wallace Stevens and controversial playwright memoirist Lillian Hellman From the literary careers of those three writers emerge two intertwined and exciting new themes The first theme demonstrates unexpected synergy between law and literature Opening original lines of inquiry Unlikely Muse probes the possible relationship between legal training and artistic creativity A surprisingly large number of great creative artists writers such as Balzac poets such as Stevens painters such as Matisse and composers such as Tchaikovsky studied or practiced law This book asks whether such people became great creative artists because of or despite their legal background Others such as Hellman had no legal training but wrote much about the law This book sketches the intellectual atmosphere and biographical background that shaped these three writers creative process highlighting the impact of the law on their work The second theme uses these same three writers to focus on the changing role of imagination in literature From Balzac through Stevens to Hellman and beyond the author traces imagination s arc from a positive artistic quality to something that is sometimes more controversial perhaps deceitful and negative In the last few decades ever since Hellman s memoirs were attacked as untrue journalists memoirists and other writers have palmed off works of fiction as non fiction often causing literary scandals This book offers a new theory why this phenomenon is happening and how it should be regarded

The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor,2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

Mastering the Marketplace Anne O'Neil-Henry,2017-12 Mastering the Marketplace examines the origins of modern mass media culture through developments in the new literary marketplace of nineteenth century France and how literature itself reveals the broader social and material conditions in which it is produced Anne O Neil Henry examines how French authors of the nineteenth century navigated the growing publishing and marketing industry as well as the dramatic rise in literacy rates libraries reading rooms literary journals political newspapers and the advent of the serial novel O Neil Henry places the work of canonical author Honor de Balzac alongside then popular writers such as Paul de Kock and Eug ne Sue acknowledging the importance of low authors in the wider literary tradition By reading literary texts alongside associated advertisements book reviews publication histories sales tactics and promotional tools O Neil Henry presents a nuanced picture of the relationship between high and low literature one in which critics and authors alike grappled with the common problem of commercial versus cultural capital Through new literary readings and original archival research from holdings in the United States and France O Neil Henry revises existing understandings of a crucial moment in the development of industrialized culture In the process she discloses links between this formative period and our own in which mobile electronic devices internet based bookstores and massive publishing conglomerates alter once again the way literature is written sold and read George Moore on Parnassus George Moore, O M. Brack, 1988 Through the letters and commentary in this volume the Irish writer George Moore is revealed as a man and artist far more complex and important than most works on him suggest one who played a significant role in the Irish Literary Renaissance The Works of Honoré de Balzac Honoré de Balzac, 1901 Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Robert Penn Warren, 2006-01-01 Selected Letters of Robert Penn Warren Volume three provides an indispensable glimpse of Warren the writer and the man covering a crucial decade in his life Edited by Randy Hendricks and James A Perkins and introduced by William Bedford Clark this collection of largely previously unpublished letters and newly discovered material documents Warren s time at the University of Minnesota his writing and publication of the Pulitzer Prize winning novel All the King s Men his appointment as Consultant in Poetry at the Library of Congress and his divorce from Emma Cinina Brescia and subsequent marriage to the writer Eleanor Clark The period 1943 1952 also saw the publication of A Poem of Pure Imagination World Enough and Time The Ballad of Billie Potts At Heaven s Gate and Selected Poems 1923 1943 Warren s letters shed new light on those works and on his close relationship with his editors Lambert Davis and Albert Erskine Included too is correspondence concerning Warren s collaboration with Robert Rossen on the movie production of All the King s Men which received the Academy Award for best picture in 1949 The list of friends and colleagues with whom Warren communicated reads like a roll call of major twentieth century literary figures and clearly shows his ever widening influence on the world of letters Spanning a remarkable range in both style and tone the letters disclose Warren s attitudes toward his work as a teacher and his thoughts on the events of World War II the Korean War and the political conflicts in postwar Europe Thoroughly annotated and scrupulously researched Volume Three captures Warren in an extraordinary phase in his life and career reaching his maturity and making many commitments at once yet pursuing them all with a
