The Development of Black Theater in America Leslie Catherine Sanders, 1989-08-01 In The Development of Black Theater in America Leslie Sanders examines the work of the American black theater's five most productive playwrights Willis Richardson Randolph Edmonds Langston Hughes LeRoi Jones and Ed Bullins Sanders sees the history of black theater as the process of creating a black stage reality while at the same time transforming conventions borrowed from white European culture into forms appropriate to black artists and audiences The author argues that only when these things were accomplished could the aim of black playwrights often articulated as the realistic portrayal of the Negro be fully realized This study also examines the changing nature of the dialogue black playwrights have held with the dominant tradition and how that dialogue has shaped their imaginations Sanders discussion of Richardson Edmonds Hughes Jones and Bullins provides a context for approaching the work of other black playwrights such as James Baldwin Lorraine Hansberry and Owen Dodson And her argument provides a concrete way of understanding how the context of a dominant culture influences the artistic imagination of writers not of that culture who must come to terms with its influences and transform it into a vehicle of their own

From Obscurity into God'S Marvelous Light J. C. Johnson, 2015-05-05 We were created for a purpose but in this constantly changing world many of us become disillusioned by life and fail to discover our purposes and embrace our destinies We meander through life seeking to find ourselves and a meaning for our existence yet we remain disoriented and unfilled But there is hope Our lives do not have to be like this we can discover our purpose and walk in our predestined roles The person God created us to be is within us but has become obscured with the trivial issues we allow to define us Author J C Johnsons From Obscurity into Gods Marvelous Light Finding the You that You Were Predestined to Be demonstrates how answering Gods call on our lives empowers us to find our purposes and live in our destinies When we answer Gods call we embark on a life changing journey We are transformed and become the persons God intends us to be We emerge from obscurity and into His marvelous light Johnson uses her personal experiences and life lessons to inspire and empower us to travel our journey and to find and embrace the person God predestined us to be Are you willing to find who you were predestined to be From Obscurity into Gods Marvelous Light Finding the You that You Were Predestined to Be will help you find that person and leave a legacy that will impact the lives of others for generations WORDS for Thinking AND THOUGHTS for Meditation Paul Krebill,2004-05-13 WORDS for Thinking AND THOUGHTS for Meditation is a Christian resource for an ordered and effective spiritual devotional experience Life concerns as well as social and ethical issues are considered in the light of God s message through Jesus Christ Readers will find in this volume three hundred and sixty six daily devotional readings Each day s devotional has a suggested scripture reference as the basis for a brief comment provided for the day In addition each reading includes a short prayer These can be used in a family or small group setting as well as privately Since each day s devotional reading contains a separate and complete message one can begin using this volume at any time and continue on a daily inspired journey of faith for one s life In addressing personal and social issues I have drawn upon more than forty years of pastoral ministry as well as upon a life long study of Christian theology In this way I believe my sharing in the real struggles of persons facing life problems and my awareness of the accumulated insights of Christian thinkers come together in this book of devotions which is designed to give the reader thoughts upon which to meditate along life s way Paul Krebill Prodigal Son Rev. Larry James Goodnough,2011-06 This book is a true account of my journey through life in hopes it would encourage those on the journey of faith and self discovery I was taken away as a child abandoned Children s Aide Society lost family Reform School for Boys my escape returning home to my parents and leaving again at age sixteen I was married at age eighteen had three children I suffered through mental illness divorce and homelessness This book is about my spiritual awakening and about a prophecy It is about God s love and patience and my journey into religion ordination ministry and rejection of conventional religion It is about my founding of the Franciscan Lutheran Community Ministry After years of ministry and a period of self reflection I recognized it was the time to fulfill the prophecy I began a new journey of faith and the actualization and fulfillment of myself and a new beginning Nityarajya Andi Sulistiadi,2025-07-01 In the prophetic age heralding the Second Coming thirteen youths from across the Nusantara are summoned by vivid dreams each receiving a divine call to become heirs of a sacred legacy the Kingdom of Light Drawn from diverse islands languages and traditions they are led to a hidden and holy place the sacred ancestral land of the Baduy tribe Yet not all will endure As spiritual battles rage within and around them loyalty is tested Of the thirteen ten remain faithful while three fall into rebellion and darkness Among the mentors three stand steadfast but one is drawn to the shadow they were meant to guard against It is the name of the true Sovereign of the Kingdom of Light a name that can only be seen or spoken by those whose hearts are utterly pure emptied of pride and ambition Only the worthy will know it Only the chosen may enter

The Bible, Justice, and Public Theology David J. Neville, 2014-10-09 Public theology is a developing field of discourse concerned to address matters of pressing public concern in theological perspective for the common good Themes of ecology poverty human rights and especially justice feature prominently in its discourse Although justice is also a prominent theme in the Bible there is no single perspective on what constitutes justice in the Bible and no single view on how biblical perspectives on justice should contribute to contemporary discussion regarding the meaning and implementation of justice Informed and inspired by Christopher Marshall s landmark work on Compassionate Justice Cascade Books 2012 in dialogue with Jesus parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son this collection of studies addresses various interrelations between the Bible justice and public theology Marshall himself proposes that certain parables of Jesus are paradigmatic for public theology and some contributors respond to different dimensions of his treatment of the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son in terms of restorative justice Other contributors by contrast examine broader related concerns such as justice in biblical theological and philosophical perspective the hermeneutics of engagement for justice the relation between feminist theology and restorative justice biblical resources for public theology and popular culture as both a conversation partner with and a medium for public theology
