Reading, Learning, Teaching Barbara Kingsolver Paul Lee Thomas, 2005 Our English classrooms are often only as vibrant as the literature that we teach This book explores the writing of contemporary American author Barbara Kingsolver who offers readers and students engaging fiction nonfiction and poetry that confront the reader and the world Here teachers will find an introduction to the works of Kingsolver and an opportunity to explore how to bring those works into the classroom as a part of the reading and writing curriculum This volume attempts to confront what we teach and how we teach as English teachers through the vivid texts Kingsolver offers her readers Seeking Home Leslie Harper Worthington, Jürgen Grandt, 2024-01-12

Appalachian people are frequently depicted as poorly educated whites who isolate themselves in mountain hollows In Seeking Home editors Leslie Harper Worthington and Jürgen E Grandt turn that stereotype upside down by showcasing Appalachia s ethnic diversity through a lively collection of essays discussing fiction poetry letters and songs This distinct collection begins with a personal narrative in which Worthington relates how she discovered her own home through teaching Lee Smith s Fair and Tender Ladies Other essays range from the anticipated Ron

Rash Barbara Kingsolver Harriette Simpson Arnow to the unanticipated Charles Frazier's magical realism a Confederate soldier's journals and three different examinations of Appalachian poets Adding further texture to the collection are essays examining the diversity in Appalachian music including Cherokee song and dance a discussion of Appalachian mining songs and an examination of recording technology and authenticity Seeking Home confirms that just as there are many Souths there are also many Appalachias The region is multifaceted multicultural and all we have to do is be willing to examine the variety Ecofeminism and Allied Issues Dipanwita Pal, Prasun Banerjee, 2024-02-14 Ecofeminism is an emerging field of literary study which seeks to explore the interconnections between feminism and ecology, green studies, and market economy and globalization and the politics of care. It also examines the idea of nature as a mother figure and the world being begotten by the celestial intercourse between Nature, the Mother, and God, the Father. This branch of study is taking center stage in the realm of gender studies but it is yet to develop into a full school of thought as new dimensions are constantly being attached to it. This volume seeks to take a multi-disciplinary approach to address the issues most pertinent to ecofeminism and to do so from various perspectives so that any sort of hegemonic categorization may be avoided.

Barbara Kingsolver's World Linda Wagner-Martin, 2024-05-16 A revised edition of Linda Wagner-Martin's comprehensive study of the novels, stories, essays, and poetry of American author Barbara Kingsolver. Now updated so that coverage runs from Kingsolver's first novel The Bean Trees through to her most recent Demon Copperhead. Author of the only biography of Barbara Kingsolver and of a reader's guide to The Poisonwood Bible, Wagner-Martin has become the leading authority on this Pulitzer prize-winning author. Here she covers every work in Kingsolver's oeuvre, emphasizing the writer's blend of the scientific method in which she was formally trained with her convincing understanding of the human characters that fill her books. What Kingsolver achieves throughout all her writing is a seamless blending of the various parts of human existence. She melds important themes through parts and pieces of the natural world: the African snakes, the monarch butterflies, the coyotes in Deanna Wolfe's existence. Repeatedly, Kingsolver writes to create both characters and the characters' worlds, bringing all these pieces into masterful and whole realities. This edition includes two new chapters: one on her 2018 novel Unsheltered and the second on her 2022 novel Demon Copperhead, and is the first study of Kingsolver to publish since she was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 2023.

Feminist Ecocriticism Douglas A. Vakoch, 2012-08-09 After uncovering the oppressive dichotomies of male/female and nature/culture that underlie contemporary environmental problems, Feminist Ecocriticism focuses specifically on emancipatory strategies employed by ecofeminist literary critics as antidotes, asking what our lives might be like as those strategies become increasingly successful in overcoming oppression. Thus, ecofeminism is not limited to the critique of literature but also helps identify and articulate liberatory ideals that can be actualized in the real world in the process transforming everyday life Providing an alternative to rugged individualism for example ecofeminist literature promotes a more fulfilling sense of interrelationship with both community and the land In the process of exploring literature from ecofeminist perspectives the book reveals strategies of emancipation that have already begun to give rise to more hopeful ecological narratives

Postsouthern Sense of Place in Contemporary Fiction Martyn Bone,2014-01-13 For generations southern novelists and critics have grappled with a concept that is widely seen as a trademark of their literature a strong attachment to geography or a sense of place In the 1930s the Agrarians accorded special meaning to rural life particularly the farm in their definitions of southern identity For them the South seemed an organic and rooted region in contrast to the North where real estate development and urban sprawl evoked a faceless raw capitalism By the end of the twentieth century however economic and social forces had converged to create a modernized South How have writers responded to this phenomenon Is there still a sense of place in the South or perhaps a distinctly postsouthern sense of place Martyn Bone innovatively draws upon postmodern thinking to consider the various perspectives that southern writers have brought to the concept of place and to look at its fate in a national and global context He begins with a revisionist assessment of the Agrarians who failed in their attempts to turn their proprietary ideal of the small farm into actual policy but whose broader rural aesthetic lived on in the work of neo Agrarian writers including William Faulkner and Eudora Welty By the 1950s adherence to this aesthetic was causing southern writers and critics to lose sight of the social reality of a changing South Bone turns to more recent works that do respond to the impact of capitalist spatial development on the South and on the nation generally including that self declared international city Atlanta Close readings of novels by Robert Penn Warren Walker Percy Richard Ford Anne Rivers Siddons Tom Wolfe and Toni Cade Bambara illuminate evolving ideas about capital land labor and class while introducing southern literary studies into wider debates around social cultural and literary geography Bone concludes his remarkably rich book by considering works of Harry Crews and Barbara Kingsolver that suggest the southern sense of place may be not only post Agrarian or postsouthern but also transnational
