How curating has changed art and how art has changed curating an examination of the emergence contemporary curatorship Once considered a mere caretaker for collections the curator is now widely viewed as a globally connected auteur Over the last twenty five years as international group exhibitions and biennials have become the dominant mode of presenting contemporary art to the public curatorship has begun to be perceived as a constellation of creative activities not unlike artistic praxis The curator has gone from being a behind the scenes organizer and selector to a visible centrally important cultural producer In The Culture of Curating and the Curating of Culture s Paul O'Neill examines the emergence of independent curatorship and the discourse that helped to establish it O'Neill describes how by the 1980s curated group exhibitions large scale temporary projects with artworks cast as illustrative fragments came to be understood as the creative work of curator auteurs The proliferation of new biennials and other large international exhibitions in the 1990s created a cohort of high profile globally mobile curators moving from Venice to Paris to Kassel In the 1990s curatorial and artistic practice converged blurring the distinction between artist and curator O'Neill argues that this change in the understanding of curatorship was shaped by a curator centered discourse that effectively advocated and authorized the new independent curatorial practice Drawing on the extensive curatorial literature and his own interviews with leading curators critics art historians and artists O'Neill traces the development of the curator as artist model and the ways it has been contested The Culture of Curating and the Curating of Culture s documents the many ways in which our perception of art has been transformed by curating and the discourses surrounding it What Makes a Great Exhibition? Paula Marincola, 2007-02-16 For better or worse museums are changing from forbidding bastions of rare art into audience friendly institutions that often specialize in blockbuster exhibitions designed to draw crowds But in the midst of this sea change one largely unanswered question stands out What makes a great exhibition Some of the world's leading curators and art historians try to answer this question here as they examine the elements of a museum exhibition from every angle What Makes a Great Exhibition investigates the challenges facing American and European contemporary art in particular exploring such issues as group exhibitions video and craft and the ways that architecture influences the nature of the exhibitions under its roof The distinguished contributors address diverse topics including Studio Museum in Harlem director Thelma Golden's examination of ethnically focused exhibitions and Robert Storr director of the 2007 Venice Biennale and formerly of the Museum of Modern Art on the meaning of exhibition and exhibitionmaker A thought provoking volume on the practice of curatorial work and the mission of modern museums What Makes A Great Exhibition will be indispensable reading for all art professionals and scholars working today Curating New Media Tamas Banovich, 2002 Julian Stallabrass discusses the exhibition he curated for Tate Britain Art and money online Matthew Gansallo discusses his work commissioning and curating artists for Tate Website

A Companion to Digital Art Christiane Paul, 2022-01-06 Reflecting the dynamic creativity of its subject this definitive guide spans the evolution aesthetics and practice of today's digital art combining fresh emerging perspectives with the nuanced insights of leading theorists Showcases the critical and theoretical approaches in this fast moving discipline Explores the history and evolution of digital art its aesthetics and politics as well as its often turbulent relationships with established institutions Provides a platform for the most influential voices shaping the current discourse surrounding digital art combining fresh emerging perspectives with the nuanced insights of leading theorists Tackles digital art's primary practical challenges how to present document and preserve pieces that could be erased forever by rapidly accelerating technological obsolescence Up to date forward looking and critically reflective this authoritative new collection is informed throughout by a deep appreciation of the technical intricacies of digital art

The Philosophy of Curatorial Practice Sue Spaid, 2020-10-15 This book walks us through the process of how artworks eventually get their meaning showing us how curated exhibitions invite audience members to weave an exhibition's narrative threads which gives artworks their contents and discursive sense Arguing that exhibitions avail artworks as candidates for reception whose meaning value and relevance reflect audience responses it challenges the existing view that exhibitions present already validated candidates for appreciation Instead this book stresses the collaborative nature of curatorial practices debunking the twin myths of autonomous artists and sovereign artistic directors and treating presentation and reception as separate processes Employing set theory to distinguish curated exhibitions from uncurated exhibitions installation art and collections it demonstrates how exhibitions grant spectators access to concepts that aid their capacity to grasp artifacts as artworks To inform and illuminate current debates in curatorial practice Spaid draws on a range of case studies from Impressionism Dada and Surrealism to more contemporary exhibitions such as Maurizio Cattelan All 2011 and Damien Hirst 2012 In articulating the process that cycles through exploration interpretation presentation and reception curating bears resemblance to artistic direction more generally

The New Curator: Exhibiting Architecture and Design Fleur Watson, 2021-05-30 The New Curator Exhibiting Architecture and Design examines the challenges inherent in exhibiting design ideas Traditionally exhibitions of architecture and design have predominantly focused on displaying finished outcomes or communicating a work through representation In this ground breaking new book Fleur Watson unveils the emergence of the new curator Instead of exhibiting finished works or artefacts the rise of performative curation provides a space where experimental methods for encountering design ideas are being tested Here the role of the curator is not that of custodian or expert but with the intent to create a shared space of encounter with audiences To illustrate this phenomenon the book explores a diverse international range of exhibitions Divided into six themes a series of project profiles are contextualized through conversations with influential curators and cultural producers such as Paola

Antonelli Kayoko Ota Mimi Zeiger Catherine Ince Aric Chen Zo Ryan Beatrice Leanza Prem Krishnamurthy Marina Otero Verzier Brook Andrew Carroll Go Sam Rory Hyde Eva Franch i Gilabert Patti Anahory and Paula Nascimento Featuring over 100 color illustrations this highly designed beautiful book offers an innovative contribution to the field An essential read for students and professionals in architecture design art visual culture museum studies curatorial studies and cultural theory The book also features a foreword by Deyan Sudjic and an afterword by Leon van Schaik AO Contemporary Curating, Artistic Reference and Public Reception Stéphanie Bertrand, 2021-07-31 Contemporary Curating Artistic Reference and Public Reception undertakes a unique critical survey and analysis of prevailing group exhibition making practices in Europe the UK and North America Drawing on curatorial literature and two in depth case studies of group exhibitions Bertrand advocates for a mode of curatorial practice that secures the content of artworks in contrast to prevailing open ended indeterminate approaches Proposing a third exhibition type beyond the current binary exhibition ontology that opposes art historical narratives to curatorial installations or Gesamtkunstwerk the book directly tackles the enduring critique of curating as a mediating activity that produces sameness in group exhibition contexts by establishing artistic equivalences The book relies on the principles of analytical philosophy to assess how different exhibition making approaches fix reference and determine artistic reception reintroducing a standard to evaluate exhibitions beyond personal taste and thematic coherence Bertrand ultimately proposes an alternative conception of practice that affirms the renewed relevance of the institutional group show in the present context Contemporary Curating Artistic Reference and Public Reception will be of interest to academics researchers and students working in museum and curatorial studies visual cultures art theory and art history programmes Art theorists and critics as well as curators of contemporary art with a research based practice should also find much to interest them within the pages of the book The Producers Susan Hiller, Sarah Martin, 2001-01-01

The Handbook of Textile Culture Janis Jefferies, Diana Wood Conroy, Hazel Clark, 2015-11-05 In recent years the study of textiles and culture has become a dynamic field of scholarship reflecting new global material and technological possibilities This is the first handbook of specially commissioned essays to provide a guide to the major strands of critical work around textiles past and present and to draw upon the work of artists and designers as well as researchers in textiles studies The handbook offers an authoritative and wide ranging guide to the topics issues and questions that are central to the study of textiles today it examines how material practices reflect cross cultural influences it explores textiles relationships to history memory place and social and technological change and considers their influence on fashion and design sustainable production craft architecture curation and contemporary textile art practice This illustrated volume will be essential reading for students and scholars involved in research on textiles and related subjects such as dress costume and fashion feminism and gender art and design and cultural history Cover image Anne Wilson To Cross Walking New York 2014 Site specific performance and sculpture at The Drawing Center NYC Thread cross research Photo Christie Carlson Anne Wilson Studio
