Producing The Pacific Maps And Narratives Of Spanish Exploration 1567-1606 Portada Hispanica 18:

Producing the Pacific Mercedes Maroto Camino, 2005 This volume offers the reader an interdisciplinary reading of the maps narratives and rituals related to the three Spanish voyages to the South Pacific that took place between 1567 and 1606 These journeys were led by Alvaro de Mendana Pedro Fernandez de Quiros and Isabel Barreto the first woman ever to become admiral of and command a fleet Mercedes Maroto Camino presents a cultural analysis of these journeys and takes issue with some established notions about the value of the past and the way it is always rewritten from the perspective of the present She highlights the social political and cultural environment in which maps and narratives circulate suggesting that their significance is always subject to negotiation and transformation Beckett, Joyce and the Art of the Negative

Colleen Jaurrette, 2005 Contains English Literature of the 20th century Transculturation Felipe Hernández, Mark Millington, Iain Borden, 2005 Deals with cultural studies European Perceptions of Terra Australis Alfred Hiatt, Christopher Wortham, 2016-04-22 Terra Australis the southern land was one of the most widespread concepts in European geography from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries although the notion of a land mass in the southern seas had been prevalent since classical antiquity Despite this fact there has been relatively little sustained scholarly work on European concepts of Terra Australis or the intellectual background to European voyages of discovery and exploration to Australia in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Through interdisciplinary scholarly contributions ranging across history the visual arts literature and popular culture this volume considers the continuities and discontinuities between the imagined space of Terra Australis and its subsequent manifestation It will shed new light on familiar texts people and events such as the Dutch and French explorations of Australia the Batavia shipwreck and the Baudin expedition by setting them in unexpected contexts and alongside unfamiliar texts and people The book will be of interest to among others intellectual and cultural historians literary scholars historians of cartography the visual arts women s and post colonial studies Archiv für Diplomatik ,

Exploring the Explorers Mercedes Maroto Camino, 2008 Exploring the Explorers is the first study of cross cultural engagements between the indigenous peoples of the Pacific and Spanish explorers during the early modern period Bridging disciplines the book sets out to analyze in detail eight voyages and their aims and outcomes looking at the different patterns of contact and the use of gift giving and bartering as social cement This fascinating and original study will broaden the investigation of world exploration and Pacific ethnography as many of the sources from these voyages are scarcely known and have not been translated before It will also expand an understanding of Spanish and world exploration developing the history of the Spanish Pacific beyond the long standing colony of the Philippines The study will be of particular interest to scholars and students of Early Modern European history as well as anthropologists ethnographers and those interested in stories of exploration and discovery throughout history Álvaro de Mendaña - Auf der Suche nach der Terra
