Production Work Territory:

Production, Work, Territory Allen John Scott, Michael Storper, 1988 Rural America and the Changing Structure of Manufacturing, 1993 New Models In Geography Richard Peet, Nigel Thrift, 2013-10-11 First published in 1989 It seems such a long time ago another age yet it is a mere twenty odd years since the original Models in Geography was published It is an even shorter time since the first tentative steps were taken towards an alternative formulation of what might constitute a geographical perspective within the social sciences What came to be called the political economy perspective has progressed with remarkable speed and energy to generate its own framework of conceptualization and analysis its own questions and debates The papers in these two volumes are witness to the richness and range of the work which has developed over this relatively short period within the political economy approach Moreover from being a debate within an institutionally defined discipline of geography to introducing into that discipline ideas and discussions from the wider fields of philosophy and social science and the humanities more generally it has now flowered into a consistent part of enquiries that span the entire realm of social studies Work-place Jamie Peck, 1996-04-06 Challenging the prevailing idea that labor markets are governed by universal economic processes this significant work argues instead that labor markets develop in tandem with social and political institutions and thus function in locally specific ways Focusing on the complex social processes that lie at the heart of the labor market the author offers a provocative new perspective and proposes new ways of conducting research in the area Politics and Practice in Economic Geography Adam Tickell, Eric Sheppard, Jamie Peck, Trevor J Barnes, 2007-07-17 The biggest strength of the book is its pedagogic design which will appeal to new entrants in the field but also leaves space for methodological debates It is well suited for use on general courses but it also involves far more than an introduction and is full of theoretical insights for a more theoretically advanced audience Economic Geography Research Group In the last fifteen years economic geography has experienced a number of fundamental theoretical and methodological shifts Politics and Practice in Economic Geography explains and interrogates these fundamental issues of research practice in the discipline Concerned with examining the methodological challenges associated with that cultural turn the text explains and discusses qualitative and ethnographic methodologies the role and significance of quantitative and numerical methods the methodological implications of both post structural and feminist theories the use of case study approaches the methodological relation between the economic geography and neoclassical economics economic sociology and economic anthropology Leading contributors examine substantive methodological issues in economic geography and make a distinctive contribution to economic geographical debate and practice Proceedings of the 21st Congress of the International Ergonomics Association (IEA 2021) Nancy L. Black, W. Patrick Neumann, Ian Noy, 2021-04-30 This book presents the proceedings of the 21st Congress of the International Ergonomics Association IEA 2021 held online on June 13 18 2021 By highlighting the latest theories and models as well as cutting edge technologies and applications and by combining findings from a range of disciplines including engineering design robotics healthcare management computer science human biology and behavioral science it provides researchers and practitioners alike with a comprehensive timely guide on human factors and ergonomics It also offers an excellent source of innovative ideas to stimulate future discussions and developments aimed at applying knowledge and techniques to optimize system performance while at the same time promoting the health safety and wellbeing of individuals The proceedings include papers from researchers and practitioners scientists and physicians institutional leaders managers and policy makers that contribute to constructing the Human Factors and Ergonomics approach across a variety of methodologies domains and productive sectors This volume includes papers addressing the following topics Activity Theories for Work Analysis and Design ATWAD Organisation design and management ODAM Ergonomic Work Analysis and Training EWAT Systems HF E HF E Education and Professional Certification Development

The Rise of the Gunbelt

Ann R. Markusen, 1991 Index and bibliographical references included Key Thinkers on Space and Place Phil Hubbard, Rob Kitchin, 2010-11-30 In this latest edition of Key Thinkers on Space and Place editors Phil Hubbard and Rob Kitchin provide us with a fully revised and updated text that highlights the work of over 65 key thinkers on space and place. Unique in its concept, the book is a comprehensive guide to the life and work of some of the key thinkers particularly influential in the current spatial turn in the social sciences. Providing a synoptic overview of different ideas about the role of space and place in contemporary social, cultural, political, and economic life, each portrait comprises biographical information and theoretical context. An explication of their contribution to spatial thinking. An overview of key advances and controversies. Guidance on further reading. With 14 additional chapters including entries on Saskia Sassen, Tim Ingold, Cindi Katz, and John Urry, the book covers ideas ranging from humanism, Marxism, feminism, and post-structuralism to queer theory, post-colonialism, globalization, and deconstruction, presenting a thorough look at diverse ways in which space and place have been theorized. An essential text for geographers, this now classic reference text is for all those interested in theories of space and place, whether in geography, sociology, cultural studies, urban studies, planning, anthropology, or women's studies.
