Professional Service Management:

Managing The Professional Service Firm David H. Maister, 2012-12-11 Professional service firms differ from other business enterprises in two distinct ways first they provide highly customised services thus cannot apply many of the management principles developed for product based industries Second professional services are highly personalised involving the skills of individuals Such firms must therefore compete not only for clients but also for talented professionals Drawing on more than ten years of research and consulting to these unique and creative companies David Maister explores issues ranging from marketing and business development to multinational strategies human resources policies to profit improvement strategic planning to effective leadership While these issues can be complex Maister simplifies them by recognising that every professional service firm in the world regardless of size specific profession or country of operation has the same mission statement outstanding service to clients satisfying careers for its people and financial success for its owners

Strategic Management of Professional Service Firms Bente Løwendahl, 2005 Aimed at practitioners and academics this third edition discusses various issues such as to what extent are professional service firms PSFs different when is a service not professional what are particular challenges in managing PSFs what are important strategic issues for PSFs and more Handbook of Services and Artificial Intelligence Ada Scupola, Jon Sundbo, Lars Fuglsang, Anders Henten, 2024-08-06 This Handbook examines the impacts of AI on the innovation of services service processes and business models It presents state of the art conceptual and empirical evidence concerning uses and applications of AI in different service sectors and from varying perspectives

Managing the Modern Law Firm Laura Empson, 2010-06-10 The last ten years have been a period of extraordinary change for law firms The rapid growth of corporate law firms and the emergence of global mega firms such as Clifford Chance Linklaters and Freshfields have strained the traditional partnership model of management Some managers of law firms are appalled at the creeping corporatism that they fear may result However a growing number believe that it is time to move on and adopt more contemporary forms of structure and management Successfully meeting the challenges of this new business environment is vital for the continuing prosperity of law firms Featuring contributions from both management researchers and legal practitioners Managing the Modern Law Firm presents the latest insights from Management Studies in an approachable practical and relevant manner for lawyers and other professionals involved directly and indirectly with the management of law firms
