Profiles of Eminent Goans, Past and Present I. Clement Vaz. 1997 Goa and Portugal Charles J. Borges, Oscar Guilherme Pereira, Hannes Stubbe, 2000 Papers presented at the 2nd Conference on Goa and Portugal History and Development held in Goa during Sept 6 9 1999 Portuguese Colonialism, Food, and Society in Goa Maria de Lourdes Brava da Costa, 2025-06-30 This interdisciplinary study examines the food history of colonial Goa between 1900 and 1961 foregrounding the centrality of food in the region s sociocultural economic and political life Drawing on archival materials periodicals in Konkani Portuguese and English oral history folklore and literary sources the book brings together perspectives from anthropology history and literary studies to analyse how food scarcity and abundance shaped everyday experiences and power structures Focusing on the staple crop of rice the work explores its symbolic and material significance in Goan society particularly through a close reading of O Signo da Ira by Orlando da Costa The study reveals how rice shortages empowered elite landlords entrenched social hierarchies and intensified the exploitation of mundkars tenant labourers and small cultivators by gaunkars village elites and the Comunidade agrarian institution It critiques the collusion between landlords and the colonial government in manipulating rice prices and maintaining systemic inequities through taxation and landholding practices By recovering the voices and struggles of the subaltern classes this book offers a nuanced and critical history of food in Goa during the late colonial period It addresses a significant gap in Goan historiography highlighting food as a vital lens through which to understand colonialism s enduring impact on everyday life

Pio Gama Pinto Shiraz Durrani,2018-10-19 Pio Gama Pinto was born in Kenya on March 31 1927 He was assassinated in Nairobi on February 24 1965 In his short life he became a symbol of anti colonial and anti imperialist struggles in Kenya and India He was actively involved in Goa's struggle against Portuguese colonialism and in Mau Mau during Kenya's war of independence For this he was detained by the British colonial authorities in Kenya from 1954 59 His contribution to the struggle for liberation for working people spanned two continents Africa and Asia And it covered two phases of imperialism colonialism in Kenya and Goa and neo colonialism in Kenya after independence His enemies saw no way of stopping the intense lifelong struggle waged by Pinto except through an assassin's bullets But his contribution his ideas and his ideals are remembered and upheld even today by people active in liberation struggles This book does not aim or claim to be a comprehensive record on Pio Gama Pinto just the beginning of the long journey necessary to record the history of Kenya from an anti imperialist perspective It introduces readers to voices of many people who have written about Pinto to build up as clear a picture of Pinto as possible In that spirit it seeks to make history available to those whose story it is people of Kenya Africa and progressive people around the world The Colonial Periodical Press in the Indian and Pacific Ocean Regions Sandra Ataíde Lobo, Jessica Falconi, Remy Dias, Dave A. often entails conflict and discrepancies between expectations and reality Medical Education in Western India Sunil Pandya, 2018-10-25 Medical knowledge is not communicable to the natives of this country With these words James McAdam Secretary of the Medical Board of Bombay sounded the death knell in 1832 of the pioneering medical school set up in Bombay by Governor Mountstuart Elphinstone Sir Robert Grant appointed Governor of Bombay in 1834 disagreed however He aimed at the general improvement of medical and surgical science and practice among the native practitioners With Dr Charles Morehead he created a medical college superior to those in Calcutta and Madras Parsi philanthropist Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy single handedly donated an entire hospital to complement this college Graduates from these institutions trained in scientific medicine of the highest standards went on to serve their fellow countrymen with distinction This book narrates how against great odds Grant Medical College went on to rival medical colleges in Europe and America and Dr Morehead was invited to help improve medical education at the University of London Poles Apart Aditya Sondhi, 2024-07-24 Is there a predominant reason why India is not Pakistan Many would likely point to the omnipresence of the military in the polity of the latter While the interventionist attitude of the army in Pakistan easily explains the democratic shortfall in its history the mirror opposite in India is rarely studied or credited Poles Apart is a unique and original investigation of the comparative roles of the military to study their influences on the growth of democracy in the two nations. The book highlights the divisive outcomes of military coups on Pakistan's democratic trajectory while also closely analysing potential scenarios in India when the army could have gone astray but chose to stay apolitical Disgrace at the hands of China in 1962 the Emergency and Operation Blue Star among others make for fascinating case studies of how the army was treated shabbily but still remained politically disinclined On the other hand the overarching presence of Field Marshal Ayub Khan General Yahya Khan General Zia ul Hag and General Pervez Musharraf in the Pakistani political space represent a very different set of choices and interventions A crisp chapter on Bangladesh and its experiments with democracy and martial rule rounds off the deeply researched study Cracks in the Dome: Fractured Histories of Empire in the Zanzibar Museum, 1897-1964 Sarah Longair, 2016-03-09 As one of the most monumental and recognisable landmarks from Zanzibar's years as a British Protectorate the distinctive domed building of the Zanzibar Museum also known as the Beit al Amani or Peace Memorial Museum is widely known and familiar to Zanzibaris and visitors alike Yet the complicated and compelling history behind its construction and collection has been overlooked by historians until now Drawing on a rich and wide range of hitherto unexplored archival photographic architectural and material evidence this book is the first serious investigation of this remarkable institution Although the museum was not opened until 1925 this book traces the longer history of colonial display which culminated in the establishment of the Zanzibar Museum It reveals the complexity of colonial knowledge production in the changing political context of the twentieth century British Empire and explores the broad spectrum of people from diverse communities who shaped its existence as staff informants collectors and teachers Through vivid narratives involving
