Repossessing the World Helen M. Buss,2006-01-01 Why does it seem as if everyone is writing memoirs and particularly women The current popularity of memoir verifies the common belief that we each have a story to tell And we do especially women Memoirs are not only representations of women's personal lives but also of their desire to repossess important parts of our culture in which women's stories have not mattered Beginning with her own motivations for writing memoirs Helen M Buss examines the many kinds of memoir written by contemporary women memoirs about growing up memoirs about traumatic events about relationships about work In writing memoirs these women publicly assert that their lives have mattered They reshape the memoir a form as old as the middle ages and as young as today into a social discourse that blends the personal with the political the self with the significant other literature with history and fiction with autobiography and essay Buss urges readers to use their reading experience to help themselves understand and write the significance of their own lives Repossessing the World is the first book length critical inquiry into women's use of a form that has often been dismissed as less important than autobiography less professional than the novel and less intellectual than the formal essay Buss demonstrates that the memoir makes its own art not only through selective borrowing from these genres but also through the unique way that the tripartite narrative voice of the memoir constructs the personal and public experience of the memorist as significant to our cultural moment sense of what I did and did not feel _From the Foreword Most of us learn of Auschwitz and the Holocaust through the writings of Anne Frank and Elie Wiesel Remarkable as their stories are they leave many voices of Auschwitz unheard Mary Lagerwey seeks to complicate our memory of Auschwitz by reading less canonical survivors Jean Amery Charlotte Delbo Fania Fenelon Szymon Laks Primo Levi and Sara Nomberg Przytyk She reads for how gender social class and ethnicity color their tellings She asks whether we can _whether we should _make sense of Auschwitz And throughout Lagerwey reveals her own role in her research tells of her own fears and anxieties presenting what she a non Jew born after the fall of Nazism can only know second hand For any student of the Holocaust for anyone trying to make sense of the final solution Reading Auschwitz represents a powerful struggle with what it means to read and tell stories after Auschwitz Sons of the Selected by the Independent Publisher's Book Awards as one of the top two New Age books of the year. Explores ancient prophecies and their relevance in the contemporary world. The Incan and Mayan cultures saw themselves as children of light descended from celestial realms and their prophecies foretell a time of great spiritual awakening. They prophesied a time when the gateways to higher consciousness would open once again. That time is now. Award winning author Judith Bluestone Polich draws on her extensive research in quantum physics, archaeoastronomy, holography, cosmology and pioneering studies of human consciousness to show how science and contemporary thought are consistent with this ancient knowledge. As the ancients predicted the human god seed is beginning to awaken and modern civilization is finally beginning to perceive human potential in ways that the ancient cultures accepted as truth. Polich introduces techniques for awakening our own human potential through dreaming meditations and the power of sacred sites.      The Works of the Rev. John Newton ...
