Programs Manifestoes On 20th Century Architecture:

Programs and Manifestoes on 20th-Century Architecture Ulrich Conrads, 1975-11-15 The present volume offers eloquent testimony that many of the master builders of this century have held passionate convictions regarding the philosophic and social basis of their art Nearly every important development in the modern architectural movement began with the proclamation of these convictions in the form of a program or manifesto The most influential of these are collected here in chronological order from 1903 to 1963 Taken together they constitute a subjective history of modern architecture compared with one another their great diversity of style reveals in many cases the basic differences of attitude and temperament that produced a corresponding divergence in architectural style In point of view the book covers the aesthetic spectrum from right to left from programs that rigidly generate designs down to the smallest detail to revolutionary manifestoes that call for anarchy in building form and town plan The documents placed in context by the editor are also international in their range among them are the seminal and prophetic statements of Henry van de Velde Adolf Loos and Bruno Taut from the early years of the century Frank Lloyd Wright's 1910 annunciation of Organic Architecture Gropius's original program for the Bauhaus founded in Weimar in 1919 Towards a New Architecture Guiding Principles by Le Corbusier the formulation by Naum Gabo and Antoine Pevsner of the basic principles of Constructivism and articles by R Buckminster Fuller on universal architecture and the architect as world planner Other pronouncements some in flamboyant style including those of Erich Mendelsohn Hannes Meyer Theo van Doesburg Oskar Schlemmer Ludwig Mies van der Rohe El Lissitzky and Louis I Kahn There are also a number of collective or group statements issued in the name of movements such as CIAM De Stijl ABC the Situationists and GEAM Since the dramatic effectiveness of the manifesto form is usually heightened by brevity and conciseness it has been possible to reproduce most of the documents in their entirety only a few have been excerpted Programs and Manifestoes on 20th, 1970 Programs and Manifestoes of 20th-century

Architecture Ulrich Conrads, 1964 Building Knowledge in Architecture Richard Foqué, 2010 Foqué establishes a general design theory based on the axioms of pragmatic thinking a crucial unity between experience and the process of learning and between conceptual thought and situational consciousness Building Knowledge develops a theoretical framework and practical instrumentation to establish a knowledge base for the discipline of architecture Part one of the book presents design methods as a third way of investigating reality apart from scientific methods or the conception of art By describing the science philosophical context Foqué extensively analyses the nature of design activity and the design process its inherent characteristics and the differences between science and art As such it is argued that design processes have a research dimension in sich which are essentially contextual and action driven Foqué offers an integrated and comprehensive perspective to understand design activity both from an epistemological and practical standpoint This results in an expanded discourse about the true nature of architectural design processes Within this theoretical framework part two explains how case study research is a primordial means to establish a knowledge base for the discipline and profession of architecture From this premise Foqu compares case study research in law medicine and business administration and develops a practical and comprehensive approach to case studies in architecture The methodology offers a solid and general framework wherein a consistent body of knowledge regarding architectural design processes can be generated This promotes deeper insight in the complex relationship between context product and process which governs every design process on the one hand and between the several stakeholders involved on the other hand Publisher Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman,2005 A detailed and innovative re assessment of the work of three architects Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck who sought to represent a utopian content in their work Dwell ,2001-04 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Programmes and Manifestoes on 20th-century Architecture Ulrich Conrads,1970 The present volume offers eloquent testimony that many of the master builders of this century have held passionate convictions regarding the philosophic and social basis of their art Nearly every important development in the modern architectural movement began with the proclamation of these convictions in the form of a program or manifesto The most influential of these are collected here in chronological order from 1903 to 1963 Taken together they constitute a subjective history of modern architecture compared with one another their great diversity of style reveals in many cases the basic differences of attitude and temperament that produced a corresponding divergence in architectural style In point of view the book covers the aesthetic spectrum from right to left from programs that rigidly generate designs down to the smallest detail to revolutionary manifestoes that call for anarchy in building form and town plan The documents placed in context by the editor are also international in their range among them are the seminal and prophetic statements of Henry van de Velde Adolf Loos and Bruno Taut from the early years of the century Frank Lloyd Wright s 1910 annunciation of Organic Architecture Gropius s original program for the Bauhaus founded in Weimar in 1919 Towards a New Architecture Guiding Principles by Le Corbusier the formulation by Naum Gabo and Antoine Pevsner of the basic principles of Constructivism and articles by R Buckminster Fuller on universal architecture and the architect as world planner Other pronouncements some in flamboyant style including those of Erich Mendelsohn Hannes Meyer Theo van Doesburg OskarSchlemmer Ludwig Mies van der Rohe El Lissitzky and Louis I Kahn There are also a number of collective or group statements issued in the name of movements such as CIAM De Stijl ABC the Situationists and GEAM Since the dramatic effectiveness of the manifesto form is usually heightened by brevity and conciseness it has been possible to reproduce most of the documents in their entirety only a few have been excerpted Creating Through Mind and Emotions Mário Ming Kong,Maria do Rosário Monteiro,Maria João Pereira Neto,2022-07-01 The texts presented in Proportion Harmonies and Identities PHI Creating Through Mind and Emotions were compiled to establish a multidisciplinary platform for presenting interacting and disseminating research This platform also aims to foster the awareness and discussion on Creating Through Mind and Emotions focusing on different visions relevant to Architecture Arts and Humanities Design and Social Sciences and its importance and benefits for the sense of identity both individual and communal The idea of Creating Through Mind and Emotions has been a powerful motor for development since the Western Early Modern Age Its theoretical and practical foundations have become the working tools of scientists philosophers and artists who seek strategies and policies to accelerate the development process in different contexts Rethinking Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries An Architecture Manifesto Nadir Lahiji, 2019-02-06 In this manifesto the author takes a leap of faith It is a faith in Lost Causes He asserts that today architectonic reason has fallen into ruins As soon as architecture leaves the limits set to it by architectonic reason no other path is open to it but the path to aestheticism This is the wrong path contemporary architecture has taken In its reduction to a pure aesthetic object architecture negatively affects the human sensorium Capitalist consumer society creates desires by generating surplus enjoyment for capitalist profit and contemporary architecture has become an instrument in generating this surplus enjoyment with fatal consequences This manifesto is thus both a critique and a work of theory It is a siren alarm klaxon to the current status quo within architectural discourse and a timely response to the conditions of architecture today

The Autopoiesis of Architecture, Volume I Patrik Schumacher, 2011-04-20 Take a theoretical approach to architecture with The Autopoiesis of Architecture which presents the topic as a discipline with its own unique logic Architecture's conception of itself is addressed as well as its development within wider contemporary society Author Patrik Schumacher offers innovative treatment that enriches architectural theory with a coordinated arsenal of concepts facilitating both detailed analysis and insightful comparisons with other domains such as art science and politics He explores how the various modes of communication comprising architecture depend upon each other combine and form a unique subsystem of society that co evolves with other important autopoietic subsystems like art science politics and the economy The first of two volumes that together present a comprehensive account of architecture's autopoiesis this book elaborates the theory of architecture's autopoiesis in 8 parts 50 sections and 200 chapters Each of the 50 sections poses a thesis drawing a central message from the insights articulated within the respective section The 200 chapters are gathering and sorting the accumulated intelligence of the discipline according to the new conceptual framework adopted in order to catalyze and elaborate the new formulations and insights that are then encapsulated in the theses However while the theoretical work in the text of the chapters relies on the rigorous build up of a new theoretical language the theses are written in ordinary language with the theoretical concepts placed in brackets The full list of the 50 theses affords a convenient summary printed as appendix at the end of the book The second volume completes the analysis of the discourse and further proposes a new agenda for contemporary architecture in response to the challenges and opportunities that confront architectural design within the context of current societal and technological developments Programs and Manifestoes on 20th-Century

Architecture. Translated by Michael Bullock Ulrich Conrads (Comp), 1970 Event-Space Dorita Hannah, 2018-07-11 As the symbolists constructivists and surrealists of the historical avant garde began to abandon traditional theatre spaces and embrace the more contingent locations of the theatrical and political event the built environment of a performance became not only part of the event but an event in and of itself Event Space radically re evaluates the avant garde's championing of nonrepresentational spaces drawing on the specific fields of performance studies and architectural studies to establish a theory of performative architecture Event was of immense significance to modernism's revolutionary agenda resisting realism and naturalism and simultaneously the monumentality of architecture itself Event Space analyzes a number of spatiotemporal models central to that revolution both illuminating the history of avant garde performance and inspiring contemporary approaches to performance space Rethinking Technology William W. Braham, Jonathan A.

Hale, 2006-12-05 This essential reference for all students of architecture design and the built environment provides a convenient single source for all the key texts in the recent literature on architecture and technology The book contains over fifty carefully selected essays manifestoes reflections and theories by architects and architectural writers from 1900 to 2004 This mapping out of a century of architectural technology reveals the discipline's long and close attention to the experience and effects of new technologies and provides a broad picture of the shift from the age of tools to the age of systems Chronological arrangement and cross referencing of the articles enable both a thematic and historically contextual understanding of the topic and highlight important thematic connections across time With the ever increasing pace of technological change this Reader presents a clear understanding of the context in which it has and does affect architecture

Darwin Day in America John G. West, 2014-04-22 At the dawn of the last century leading scientists and politicians giddily predicted that science especially Darwinian biology would supply solutions to all the intractable problems of American society from crime to poverty to sexual maladjustment Instead politics and culture were dehumanized as scientific experts began treating human beings as little more than animals or machines In criminal justice these experts denied the existence of free will and proposed replacing punishment with invasive cures such as the lobotomy In welfare they proposed eliminating the poor by sterilizing those deemed biologically unfit In business they urged the selection of workers based on racist theories of human evolution and the development of advertising methods to more effectively manipulate consumer behavior In sex education they advocated creating a new sexual morality based on normal mammalian behavior without regard to longstanding ethical and religious imperatives Based on extensive research with primary sources and archival materials John G West's captivating Darwin Day in America tells the story of how American public policy has been corrupted by scientific ideology Marshaling fascinating anecdotes and damning quotations West's narrative explores the far reaching consequences for society when scientists and politicians deny the essential differences between human beings and the rest of nature It also exposes the disastrous results that ensue when experts claiming to speak for science turn out to be wrong West concludes with a powerful plea for the restoration of democratic accountability in an age of experts

Representing Landscape Architecture Marc Treib, 2008-02-19 Written by a team of renowned practitioners and academics this book offers a broad investigation of how the designed landscape is and has been represented for design study for criticism and even for its realization

Democracy & the Arts Arthur M. Melzer, Jerry Weinberger, M. Richard Zinman, 1999 In this book some of our most prominent cultural critics explore the relationships between culture and politics as played out in the world of novels television museums and even fashion The authors John Simon Greil Marcus Arthur C Danto and other well known commentators from across the political spectrum examine the arts in their relation to democracy and consider whether and how they serve one another

The Taylorized Beauty of the Mechanical Mauro F. Guillén, 2020-11-10 The dream of scientific management was a rationalized machine world where life would approach the perfection of an assembly line But since its early twentieth century peak this dream has come to seem a dehumanizing nightmare Henry Ford's assembly lines turned out a quarter of a million cars in 1914 but all of them were black Forgotten has been the unparalleled new aesthetic beauty once seen in the ideas of Ford and scientific management pioneer Frederick Winslow Taylor In The Taylorized Beauty of the Mechanical Mauro Guill n recovers this history and retells the story of the emergence of modernist architecture as a romance with the ideas of scientific management one that permanently reshaped the profession of architecture Modernist architecture s pioneers Guill n shows found in scientific management the promise of a new functional machine like and beautiful architecture and the prospect of a new role for the architect as technical professional and social reformer Taylor and Ford had a signal influence on Bauhaus founder Walter Gropius and on Le Corbusier and his Towards a New Architecture the most important manifesto of modernist architecture Architects were so enamored with the ideas of scientific management that they adopted them even when there was no functional advantage to do so Not a traditional architectural history but rather a sociological study of the profession of architecture during its early modernist period The Taylorized Beauty of the Mechanical provides a new understanding of the degree to which modernist architecture emerged from a tradition of engineering and industrial management
