Prophesying Daughters:

Prophesying Daughters Chanta M. Haywood, 2003-05-12 In nineteenth century America many black women left their homes their husbands and their children to spread the Word of God Descendants of slaves or former slave girls themselves they traveled all over the country even abroad preaching to audiences composed of various races denominations sexes and classes offering their own interpretations of the Bible When they were denied the pulpit because of their sex they preached in tents bush clearings meeting halls private homes and other spaces They dealt with domestic ideologies that positioned them as subservient in the home and with racist ideologies that positioned them as naturally inferior to whites They also faced legalities restricting blacks socially and physically and the socioeconomic reality of often being part of a large body of unskilled laborers Jarena Lee Julia Foote Maria Stewart and Frances Gaudet were four women preachers who endured such hardships because of their religious convictions Often quoting from the scripture they insisted that they were indeed prophesying daughters whom God called upon to preach Significantly many of these women preachers wrote autobiographies in which they present images of assertive progressive pious women steadfast and unmovable in their religious beliefs and bold in voicing their concerns about the moral standing of their race and society at large Chanta M Haywood examines these autobiographies to provide new insight into the nature of prophesying offering an alternative approach to literature with strong religious imagery She analyzes how these four women employed rhetorical and political devices in their narratives using religious discourse to deconstruct race class and gender issues of the nineteenth century By exploring how religious beliefs become an avenue for creating alternative ideologies Prophesying Daughters will appeal to students and scholars of African American literature women s studies and religious studies

Daughters of the Church Ruth A. Tucker, Walter L. Liefeld, 2010-08-10 Rich in historical events and colorfully written this fascinating account of women in the church spans nearly two thousand years of church history It tells of events and aspirations determination and disappointment patience and achievement that mark the history of daughters of the church from the time of Jesus to the present The authors have endeavored to present an objective story The very fact that readers may find themselves surprised now and again by the prominent role of women in certain events and movements proves an inequality that historical narrative has often been guilty of This is a book about women It is a setting straight off the record a restoring of balance to history that has repeatedly played down the significance of the contributions of women to the theology the witness the movements and the growth of the church An exegetical study of relevant Scripture passages offers stimulating thought for discussion and for serious reevaluation of historical givens This volume is enriched by pictures appendixes bibliography and indexes Like many of the women whose stories it tells this book has a subdued strength that should not be underestimated

The Prophesying of Women George Francis Wilkin, 1895 The Female Prophets of the Bible The Rev. Debra Moody Bass PH.D, 2018-01-18 This book highlights five female prophets that have prophesied in both the Old Testament and New Testament The book encourages women to accept their calling from God at whatever level God appoints them Too often the female characters in the Bible have all been lumped together under the category women in the Bible This has diminished the role women like Deborah and Anna have played in Gods plan for salvation God is no respecter of persons God uses whom God chooses no matter the gender

Gospel truth demonstrated, in a collection of doctrinal books, given forth by that faithful minister of Jesus Christ, George Fox: containing principles essential to Christianity and salvation, held among the people called Quakers George Fox,1831 History of the Apostolic Church Philipp Schaff,1854 Gospel truth demonstrated, in a collection of doctrinal books...containing principles essential to Christianity and salvation, held among the people called Quakers George Fox,1831 God's Triple Threat Greg Carlson,2010-12 God is destroying the kingdom of darkness God equips and deploys us his saints in this magnificent campaign But the Almighty does not arm us from just a single arsenal of gifts as is commonly supposed Instead he draws from three distinct arsenals abilities leaders and the charismatic gifts The triune God gives triune gifts What are these gifts what are they like and how do they work These three arsenals differ profoundly from one another But the church has not truly discerned this and so a fog of confusion has enveloped the whole subject Confusion brings futility and frustration clarity brings effectiveness and fulfillment Who gives the gifts and to whom When are they given Are the gifts natural supernatural or both Can any Christian operate in any gift Where do the gifts live Can you use them at any time Can you operate in God s gifts at will The answers may surprise you God s Triple Threat An Inquiry into the Spiritual Gifts works carefully step by step to bring clarity to this often confusing subject with exuberant illustrations for application Author Greg Carlson prays that the vision in this book will become a reality in his lifetime So the clock is ticking for you and your church to more fully experience the dynamic of God s threefold gifts

Paul Transformed Adela Yarbro Collins,2022-09-27 A fascinating reception history of the theological ethical and social themes in the letters of Paul In the first decades after the death of Jesus the letters of the apostle Paul were the chief written resource for Christian believers as well as for those seeking to formulate Christian thought and practice But in the years following Paul s death the early church witnessed a proliferation of contested and often opposing interpretations of his writings as teaching was passed down debated and codified In this engaging study Adela Yarbro Collins traces the reception history of major theological ethical and social topics in the letters of Paul from the days of his apostleship through the first centuries of Christianity She explores the evolution of Paul s cosmic eschatology his understanding of the resurrected body marriage and family ethics the role of women in the early church and his theology of suffering Paying special attention to the ways these evolving interpretations provided frameworks for church governance practice and tradition Collins illuminates the ways that Paul s ideas were understood challenged and ultimately transformed by their earliest audiences

History of the Apostolic Church with a General Introduction to Church History Philip Schaff,1854 "Bodies, Borders, Believers" Anne Hege Grung,Marianne Bjelland Kartzow,Anna Rebecca Solevag,2016-05-26 This stimulating collection of essays by prominent scholars honours Turid Karlsen Seim Bodies Borders Believers brings together biblical scholars ecumenical theologians archaeologists classicists art historians and church historians working side by side to probe the past and its receptions in the present The contributions relate in one way or another to Seim's broad research interests covering such themes as gender analysis bodily practices and ecumenical dialogue The editors have brought together an international group of scholars and among the contributors many scholarly traditions theoretical orientations and methodological approaches are represented making this book an interdisciplinary and border crossing endeavour A comprehensive bibliography of Seim's work is included

The Literary Construction of the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Mitzi J Smith, 2012-06-28 Mitzi Smith engages the reader in explaining how as in the real world the characterization of the Others is used negatively in the biblical texts Smith shows how the concept of difference is constructed in order to distinguish ourselves from proximate others indeed the other who is most similar to us is most threatening and most problematic The process of Othering or Otherness is a synthetic and political social construct that allows us to create and maintain boundaries between them and us Thus this work demonstrates how proximate characters are constructed as the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Charismatics Jews and women are proximate others who are constructed as the external and internal Others

Your Women Did Prophecy Dr. Ambrose E. Edebe, PhD, 2012-11 The book Your Women Did Prophecy documents evidence for biblical and historical precedent for women's participation in preaching and prophesying ministries It cites specific activities of women as recorded in the New Testament apocryphal writings and a selection of early church fathers that refer to the first two centuries The focus of the book is on the activity of women rather than on opinions expressed about the role of women This book uses the historical critical method of interpretation applied to ancient primary sources The attempt has been to view these sources in light of their contexts with comment from secondary sources It reflects upon preaching issues and practices of today as they grow out of the research The findings are of a rich heritage of women preachers within the Christian tradition To date the church has neglected this aspect of its history To the extent that the church includes women in the foundation of the teaching and preaching ministries the stronger and more balanced the structure of the church will be Clergy and laywomen particularly benefit from an inclusive church in that their own rootedness in the faith is strengthened by knowledge of these foremothers The whole church will benefit from this knowledge as it will begin to see itself as growing in wholeness as reflected in creation Gen 1:27 The information contained in this book is suitable for studies in the local church It is also useful for preaching as it enlarges the church's concept of women in the scripture

Unlocking God's Freeing Truth about Women V. Prohibitions about Speaking Teaching Dr Rocco is an adjunct professor in Biblical languages at Evangel Theological Seminary and serves on a church ministry team The author has read through the entire Bible over 50 times in various translations and languages Doctor of Ministry Master of Divinity Biblical Studies Diploma Women in Scripture Carol Meyers, Toni Craven, Ross S.
