Boyajian, 2020-09-28 Fair Tomorrow Emilie Loring, 2022-08-01 In Fair Tomorrow Emilie Loring intertwines themes of romance and personal growth within the richly textured backdrop of early 20th century America. The narrative follows the journey of its protagonist who navigates the complexities of love, ambition, and societal expectations. Loring's fluid prose and vivid characterizations draw readers into a world where emotional resilience triumphs over adversity. The book, reflecting the post World War I era's hopeful ethos, is marked by its optimistic outlook exploring the interplay of fate and free will in the shaping of one's destiny. Emilie Loring, a pioneer in American women's literature, wrote during a time when women's roles were evolving. The Collected Novels Volume One Taylor Caldwell, 2017-09-05 A collection of New York Times bestselling novels about wealth, power, ambition, and the American Dream from a wonderful storyteller, A. Scott Berg. From one of the most prolific and widely read authors of the twentieth century, these three mesmerizing turn-of-the-century sagas are now available in one volume: Captains and the Kings. Joseph Francis Xavier Armagh is twelve years old when he gets his first glimpse of the promised land through a dirty porthole on an Irish immigrant ship. In America, his long journey will eventually catapult him from the bigoted small town of Winfield, Pennsylvania, to the highest echelons of society and grant him entry into the most elite political circles. And even as misfortune follows the Armagh family like an ancient curse, Joseph will exact his revenge against the uncaring world that once took everything from him, settling for nothing less than the pinnacle of glory: the crowning of his son as the first Catholic president of the United States. Sweeping from the 1850s through the 1920s, this spellbinding tale was the basis for the 1976 Emmy Award-winning television miniseries Hartford Courant: Testimony of Two Men. Hambleton, Pennsylvania, is still reeling from the sensational murder trial that shattered the peace of the bucolic hamlet less than a year ago. Accused of killing his beautiful young wife, Dr. Jonathan Ferrier hired the best attorneys money could buy and was acquitted. Many townspeople believe he bought his freedom, but Robert Morgen, a young idealistic doctor, is determined to make up his own mind about the accused's innocence or guilt. Is Dr. Ferrier a cold-blooded murderer or a brilliant physician unjustly accused and wrongly maligned? This powerful story touches on faith, religion, and the then-new field of mental health as it explores the evolution of modern medicine. The Sound of Thunder. The son of a socialist German shopkeeper Edward Enger has one dream to turn his father's modest delicatessen into an empire. With an astute head for business, he achieves success beyond his wildest imagination. Yet something is keeping him from enjoying his extraordinary good fortune. As a boy, Edward thought he would love Margaret Proster all the days of his life until she moved away. Now she is engaged to another man, someone very close to Edward. He vows to take on this latest challenge along with more mortgages, more debt, and speculative investments on Manhattan's burgeoning Wall Street. As his family life begins to unravel, a day of reckoning nears. Soon Edward will have to confront a painful event from his boyhood, a secret buried deep inside that he has never told another living soul.

General Catalogue of the Standard Reading Club in Conjunction with the Booklovers Library ..., 1906 Giftwares, 1924 Performing Pippin Pearmain 2 Lark Westerly, Pip hasn't worked in a decade when her new agent calls unexpectedly. A movie role is on offer and Magda Quest Saxer wants an answer in less than a week. She gives Pip an implied ultimatum: Take it and fly to Sydney for a screen test. Turn it down, and never work again. With no one else to advise her, Pip consults the cats. Kittisack and Amberjill are probably real. Lupin's cat is made of pottery. All of them think she ought to take the role. This disruption is bad enough, but Cousin Lupin's legacy is confusing. Pip risks a call to ask what it's all about, and within the hour she's off on a magical mystery tour on a yacht crewed by people she doesn't know. It's bewildering stuff, especially when one of the crew goes missing and the other two don't seem to care. Pip cares, but dialling triple zero has its complications when someone nearby can make the phone jump right out of her hand.

Catalogue of the Books in the Senior Section Johannesburg (South Africa). Public Library, 1905 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1910 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1910 The Connoisseur, 1905 Cooking Club Magazine, 1915 The Aristocrat Conrad Richter, 2013-08-28. An infinitely attractive human being, a great lady, American style comes alive in Conrad Richter's wonderful new novel. She is Miss Alexandria Morley, and in her eighties a doughty warrior against creeping modernity and mediocrity. She has the warmest of hearts. She is the coolest of strategists. It is a joy to see her do battle. Secure in her Victorian mansion in her Pennsylvania town, flying her flag in defense of principle and old-time decorum, she takes on and outclasses the mighty coal company she's caught cheating on taxes, civilizes her rough-hewn young doctor, good character is no license for crudity, copes patiently, family obligations are sacred with the poor old cousin who is a tidal wave of garrulous idiocy, stands firm against the poisonous cousin who is a knot of destructive envy, puts herself gently at the service of a sweet young cousin who cannot decide among her eligible beaux. All around her, in her house, in her memories, the past swirls. But Miss Alexandria lives in the now. She hopes out of courtesy to her heirs to die when her stocks are up. She tells the truth to those who can bear it, most especially to herself. She has learned from the Southern belle who was her mother to love the graces of life, and from the mining potentate who was her father to give no quarter to foolish circumstances. Even on her deathbed, Miss Alexandria, who has warned the officious clergyman that she won't have anyone praying aloud over her, wins a gallant victory. Like her dear ones and her adversaries her servants and her fellow townspeople the reader will take his hat off to the Aristocrat She is the last of her kind Keith's Magazine on Home Building ,1925 Ainslee's ,1906 The Sound of Thunder Taylor Caldwell,2016-11-15 From the New York Times bestselling author of Captains and the Kings A self made man sacrifices everything for his family in turn of the century New York The son of a socialist German shopkeeper Edward Enger has one dream to turn his father s modest delicatessen into an empire With an astute head for business and talent for making money he achieves success beyond his wildest imagination Yet something is keeping him from enjoying his extraordinary good fortune Fourteen year old Edward believed he would love ten year old Margaret Proster all the days of his life until she moved away Now she has returned and is planning to marry another man someone very close to Edward His need to succeed at all costs drives him to take on this latest challenge along with more mortgages more debt and speculative investments on Manhattan s burgeoning Wall Street A man does not become powerful without making enemies and as his family life begins to unravel a day of reckoning is nearing Soon Edward will have to confront a painful event from his boyhood a secret buried deep inside that he has never told another living soul A man in the right place at the right time Edward s meteoric ascent coincides with the rise of America s middle class as the nation transforms from an agricultural and industrial force to a financial world leader But his success comes at a great cost in this towering novel of love and sacrifice by one of our most gifted storytellers Keith's Magazine for Home Builders ,1924 Persistent Ruskin Keith Hanley,2016-05-13
