Portland Rose Festival George R. Miller, Portland Rose Festival Foundation, 2013-04-29 At the end of the Lewis and Clark Exposition in 1905 the president of the Portland Street Fair and Carnival Association E W Rowe presented the idea of an annual festival to Portland mayor Harry Lane From that idea came the first Rose Festival called the Rose Carnival and Fiesta held June 22 1907 It was hailed as a huge success There is no reason in the world why Portland should not hold a rose festival every year remarked the Oregonian on June 21 Everyone will be happier and better all the rest of the year for the festival of roses And indeed that has been the case From just a three day event the Rose Festival has expanded over the years to include many activities covering several months every spring and summer

 1989 Like these previous books this latest rare bird title has been brought to you by well known and experienced British novel way of presenting rare bird data will prove fascinating to anyone with an interest in finding and watching rare migrant and vagrant species It will also prove a valuable and fun tool for the keenest rarity hunters enabling them to use the book as a rare bird predictor by following closely the birds found on each date over the 36 years covered by the book The book is
