Sembene Imagining Alternatives In Film Fiction:

Sembene David Murphy, 2000 Sembene is one of the major figures of African literature and also one of Africa's foremost film directors This is the first study to give an overview of his work in fiction and on screen This book examines Sembene Ousmane's radical reinterpretation of African history and culture focusing on representations of the African city animism the role of women colonialism and neo colonialism The author argues that Sembene imagines alternatives to the dominant narratives of both Africa in general and Senegal in particular North America Africa World Press Ousmane Sembene and the Politics of Culture Lifongo J. Vetinde, Amadou T. Fofana, 2014-11-12 Undoubtedly one of Africa's most influential first generation of writers and filmmakers Ousmane Sembene's creative works of fiction as well as his films have been the subject of a considerable number of scholarly articles The schemas of reading applied to Sembene's oeuvre novels short stories and films have in the main focused either on his militant posture against colonialism his disenchantment with African leadership or his infatuation with documenting the past in an attempt to present a balanced and nuanced view of African history While these studies unquestionably contribute to a better understanding of his works they collectively ignore Sembene's relentless preoccupation with culture in his entire career as a writer and filmmaker The collection of essays in Sembene and the Politics of Culture sets out to fill that gap as the contributors at once foreground Sembene's fixation on the centrality of culture in the articulation of the discourse of national consciousness and reevaluate his intellectual and artistic legacy within an overarching framework of African liberation The contributors critically reassess the ideological underpinnings of Sembene's thoughts his role as one of the foundational pillars of African cultural production and his relevance in current discourses of nationhood They do so through a wide variety of interdisciplinary approaches that draw on linguistics feminist theory film theory historiography Marxist criticism psychoanalysis and a host of other approaches that give novel insights in the critical analysis of the works under study In the part entitled Testimonies a collection of conversations with people who worked closely with Sembene each of the interlocutors provide illuminating insights into the man's life and work The variety of themes and critical approaches in this critical anthology will certainly be of interest not only to students and scholars of African literature and cinema at various levels of intellectual and cultural sophistication but also anyone interested in the analysis of the nexus between power culture and the discourse of liberation La francophonie ou l'éloge de la diversité Michaël Abecassis, Gudrun Ledegen, Karen Zouaoui, 2011-05-25 The first part of this volume La Francophonie ou l'éloge de la diversité is devoted to Francophone cinema between Bollywood and Hollywood What in particular does Francophone cinema have to offer compared with American or Indian cinema What more does Francophone cinema have to offer What genres does it prefer For what audience The second part deals with the promotion of diversity in Francophone countries taking into consideration the cultural aspects of Francophonie in the 21st century the linguistic description of systems in contact tracing the historical stages which have led to the creation of this locus of cultural diversity and focusing finally on university cooperation and Franco British scientific research This book brings together contributions by outstanding authors who gathered in Oxford in October 2010 at the Maison française including Louis Jean Calvet Professor at the University of Provence In collaboration with the Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie he works on language policy particularly the struggle to maintain linguistic diversity Bernard Cerquiglini Rector of the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie An eminent linguist and specialist on the French language Bernard Cerquiglini is known as the Professor from TV5 Monde s Merci Professeur Philippe Lane is the Cultural Attaché at the French Embassy in London Gudrun Ledegen Sociolinguist Lecturer in Linguistics at the Université de la Réunion She specialises in contact between French and Creole in La Réunion The discussion is complemented by contributions by Maryse Bray Karine Chevalier Anne Caroline Fivet Hélène Gill Amélie Hien Gaëlle Planchenault and Alena Podhorn Polick Oral Tradition in African

Literature Chin Ce, Charles Smith, 2015-09-04 This study of oral tradition in African literature is borne from the awareness that African verbal arts still survive in works of discerning writers and in the conscious exploration of its tropes perspectives philosophy and consciousness its complementary realism and ontology for the delineation of authentic African response to memory history and other possible comparisons with modern existence such as witnessed in recent developments of the African novel In this series we have strived to adopt innovative and multilayered perspectives on orality or indigeneity and its manifestations on contemporary African and new literatures These studies use multifaceted theories of orality which discuss and deconstruct notions of history truth claims and identity making not excluding gender and genealogy cultural and biological studies in African contexts Cultural Representations of Massacre Sabrina Parent, 2014-07-10 In this book Parent puts together a history of representations of the 1944 mutiny in Senegal Combining firsthand analysis of the works and their intertextual interactions as well an external perspective Parent engages with history literature film poetics and politics and highlights the importance of remembering the past Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films Sabine Haenni, Sarah Barrow, John White, 2014-09-15 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films comprises 200 essays by leading film scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting films of all time Arranged alphabetically each entry explores why each film is significant for those who study film and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the film was produced Ranging from

Hollywood classics to international bestsellers to lesser known representations of national cinema this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing decades boundaries and genres The encyclopedia thus provides an introduction to the historical range and scope of cinema produced throughout the world

Meaninglessness Vlad Dima, 2022-09-01 For too long the approach to seemingly universal experiences like love death and even time in film has been dominated by the Global North But what if such explorations developed horizontally instead Drawing from both European and African cultural theorists including Gilles Deleuze and Wole Soyinka Vlad Dima invites us to consider what happens to postcolonial African film if we no longer privilege the idea of time How else might we understand the cinematic image and how would its meanings change

Meaninglessness Time Rhythm and the Undead in Postcolonial Cinema is a study of meaning and meaninglessness through the figure of the undead beginning with francophone Africa and extending to postcolonial France Through the analysis of films like Mati Diop's Atlantics and Jean Pierre Bekolo's Miraculous Weapons Dima shows how the African cinematic image may produce meaning without any attachment to European time and how that meaning is connected instead to the philosophy of negritude and to the notion of rhythm

Meaninglessness introduces the concept of the rhythm sequence as a new way to understand the African moving image

Reading Communities Oana Panaïté, 2016-08-17 This volume is the product of a long term collaboration between French and American scholars who share a common preoccupation with reading canonical and contemporary works of literature and cinema in a theoretical and pedagogical context It offers a multipolar approach informed by different historical thematic aesthetic philosophical and formal perspectives that allows for a more complete and nuanced understanding of the complex relations between artists and works commonly separated by disciplinary boundaries The chapters cover a variety of literary genres and artistic forms such as the novel Madame de Lafayette Gustave Flaubert Andr Weckmann Ahmadou Kourouma Calixthe Beyala and Am lie Nothomb poetry Charles Baudelaire theater Aim C saire Anne H bert the aphorism Blaise Pascal the essay Andr Breton the manifesto mile Zola and film Fran ois Truffaut Ousmane Semb ne while also drawing parallels to works in other languages such as English and German in order to highlight the translingual and intercultural dimensions of the artistic process

The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures Aga

Skrodzka,Xiaoning Lu,Katarzyna Marciniak,2020-04-01 Stereotypes often cast communism as a defunct bankrupt ideology and a relic of the distant past However recent political movements like Europe s anti austerity protests the Arab Spring and Occupy Wall Street suggest that communism is still very much relevant and may even hold the key to a new idealized future In The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures contributors trace the legacies of communist ideology in visual culture from buildings and monuments murals and sculpture to recycling campaigns and wall newspapers all of which work to make communism s ideas and values material Contributors work to resist the widespread demonization of communism demystifying its ideals and suggesting that it has visually shaped the modern world in undeniable and complex ways Together contributors answer curcial questions like What can be salvaged and reused from past communist experiments How has communism impacted the cultures of late capitalism And how have histories of communism left behind visual traces of potential utopias An interdisciplinary look at the cultural currency of communism today The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures demonstrates the value of revisiting the practices of the past to form a better vision of the future

Diplomatic Para-citations Sam Okoth Opondo,2022-02-09 Taking seriously the critical conception of diplomacy as the mediation of estrangement Diplomatic Para citations turns to the politics and laws that tie modern diplomacy to colonial cultures and the genres of Man that they privilege In an attempt to read the diplomatic from the African postcolony the book probes the injunction at the center of the law of genre that states that genres are not to be mixed This enables it to investigate the citational recitational forms of knowledge and practices of recognition that reproduce the diplomatic and colonial order of things in the African context Through a reading of literature philosophy and a multiplicity of everyday practices in Africa and its diasporas Sam Okoth Opondo explores amateur diplomatic practices that provide a counterforce to laws that prescribe faithfulness to a norm form while proscribing the mixing of genres Intertextuality in Contemporary

African Literature Ode Ogede,2011-09-16 This book is a study in African literary influence It focuses on the importance of indigenous sources to new writing The analytical framework for the study draws on recent conceptual advances in theories of authorship Juxtaposing works and authors that are traditionally thought to be unlikely bedfellows the book persuasively identifies their hitherto unexamined points of contact opening up a vigorous debate about the roots of African literature and offering a radical critique of the assumptions underlying conventional notions of African literature The book provides valuable insight on the roles of such activities as appropriation copying pastiche parody simulation foraging grafting padding recycling and remodeling in underwriting literary expression in Africa Alive with wit and full of delight in the texts it discusses it is a marvel of close and attentive detective reading Storytelling in World Cinemas, Volume 1 Lina Khatib,2012-04-24 Storytelling in World Cinemas Vol 2 Contexts addresses the questions of what and why particular stories are told in films around the world both in terms of the forms of storytelling used and of the political religious historical and social contexts informing cinematic storytelling Drawing on films from all five continents the book approaches storytelling from a cultural historical multidisciplinary perspective focusing on the influence of cultural politics postcolonialism women s social and cultural positions and religious contexts on film stories Publisher website

Existentialism and Contemporary Cinema Jean-Pierre Boulé,Enda McCaffrey,2011-10-01 At the heart of this volume is the assertion that Sartrean existentialism most prominent in the 1940s particularly in France is still relevant as a way of interpreting the world today Film by reflecting philosophical concerns in the actions and choices of characters continues and extends a tradition in which art exemplifies the understanding of existentialist philosophy In a scholarly yet accessible style the contributors exploit the rich interplay between Sartre s philosophy plays and novels and a number of contemporary films including No Country for Old Men Lost in Translation and The Truman Show with film makers including the Dardenne brothers Michael Haneke and Mike Leigh This volume will be of interest to students who are coming to Sartre s work for the first time and to those who would like to read films within an existentialist perspective

Realisms in Contemporary Culture Dorothee Birke,Stella Butter,2013-08-01 Realism is a pervasive term in discussions of contemporary developments in the cultural sphere By drawing on different theories of realism the authors explore how the term may be used as a helpful concept in order to analyse and evaluate current trends in cultural production and in turn how cultural production changes our understanding of what counts as realism The contributions deal with realism in narrative fiction drama and audiovisual media film television news within the context of national traditions examples drawn on in the case studies range from Africa Britain Germany Iceland Russia Turkey to the United States While the authors take their cues from media specific realisms focusing especially on narrative fiction the volume also highlights continuities and intersections between notions of realism in different genres and media With its original essays this collection invigorates the transdisciplinary engagement with forms and socio political functions of realism in contemporary culture

The Tongue-Tied Imagination Tobias Warner,2019-03-05 Winner 2021 African Literature Association First Book Award Should a writer work in a former colonial language or in a vernacular The language question was one of the great intractable problems that haunted postcolonial literatures in the twentieth century but it has since acquired a reputation as a dead end for narrow nationalism This book returns to the language question from a fresh perspective Instead of asking whether language matters The Tongue Tied Imagination explores how the language question itself came to matter Focusing on the case of Senegal Warner investigates the intersection of French and Wolof Drawing on extensive archival research and an under studied corpus of novels poetry and films in both languages as well as educational projects and popular periodicals the book traces the emergence of a politics of language from colonization through independence to the era of neoliberal development Warner reads the francophone works of well known authors such as L opold Senghor Ousmane Semb ne Mariama B and Boubacar Boris Diop alongside the more overlooked Wolof language works with which they are in dialogue Refusing to see the turn to vernacular languages only as a form of nativism The Tongue Tied Imagination argues that the language question opens up a fundamental struggle over the nature and limits of literature itself Warner reveals how language debates tend to pull in two directions first they weave vernacular traditions into the normative patterns of world literature but second they create space to imagine how literary culture might be configured otherwise Drawing on these insights Warner brilliantly rethinks the terms of world literature and charts a renewed practice of literary comparison Past Imperfect Pierre-Philippe Fraiture, 2021-04-15 This book proposes to examine French and Francophone intellectual history in the period leading to the decolonization of sub Saharan Africa 1945 1960 The analysis favours the epistemological links between ethnology museology sociology and art history In this discussion a specific focus is placed on temporality and the role ascribed by these different disciplines to African pasts presents and futures It is argued here that the post war context characterized inter alia by the creation of UNESCO the birth of Pr sence Africaine and the prevalence of existentialism bore witness to the development of new regimes of historicity and to the partial refutation of a progress based modernity This investigation is predicated on case studies from West and Central Africa AOF AEF and Belgian Congo and whilst adopting a postcolonial methodology it explores African and French authors such as Georges Balandier Cheikh Anta Diop Frantz Fanon Chris Marker Joseph Ki Zerbo Claude L vi Strauss Alain Resnais Jean Paul Sartre and Placide Tempels This study explores the intellectual legacy of the long nineteenth century and the difficulty encountered by these authors to articulate their anti colonial agenda away from the modern methodologies of the colonial library By focussing on issues of intellectual alienation this book also demonstrates that the post WW2 period foreshadowed twenty first century debates on extroversion racial inequalities the decolonization of history and cultural mis appropriation

Deconstruction and the Postcolonial Michael Syrotinski, 2007-01-01 Postcolonial studies and the rich body of theory that it applies in its analyses has transformed and unsettled the ways in which across a whole range of disciplines we think about notions such as subjectivity national identity globalization history language literature or international politics Until recently the emphasis of the groundbreaking work being carried out in these areas has been almost exclusively within an Anglophone context but increasingly the focus of postcolonial studies is shifting to a more comparative approach One of the most intriguing developments in this shift Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Oliver

Lovesey, 2012-01-01 Ng g wa Thiong o is one of the most important and celebrated authors of postindependence Africa as well as a groundbreaking postcolonial theorist His work written first in English then in Gikuyu engages with the transformations of his native Kenya after what is often termed the Mau Mau rebellion It also gives voice to the struggles of all Africans against economic injustice and political oppression His writing and activism have continued despite imprisonment the threat of assassination and exile Part 1 of this volume Materials provides resources and background for the teaching of Ng g s novels plays memoirs and criticism The essays of part 2 Approaches consider the influence of Frantz Fanon Karl Marx and Joseph Conrad on Ng g how the role of women in his fiction is inflected by feminism his interpretation and political use of African history his experimentation with orality and allegory in narrative and the different challenges of teaching Ng g in classrooms in the United States Europe and Africa Xala James S. Williams, 2024-05-02 Xala 1974 by the pioneering Senegalese director Ousmane Sembene was acclaimed on its release for its scorching critique of postcolonial African society and it cemented Sembene s status as a wholly new kind of politically engaged pan African auteur film maker Centring on the story of businessman El Hadji and the impotence that afflicts him on his marriage to a young third wife Xala vividly captures the cultural and political upheaval of 1970s Senegal while suggesting the radical potential of dissent solidarity and collective action embodied by El Hadji s student daughter Rama and the group of urban undesirables who act as a kind of raw chorus to the affairs of the neocolonial elite James S Williams s lucid study traces Xala s difficult production history and analyses its daring combination of political and domestic drama oral narrative social realism symbolism satire documentary mysticism and Marxist analysis Yet from its dazzling extended opening sequence of revolution as performance to its suspended climax of redemption through ritualised spitting Xala presents a series of conceptual and formal challenges that resist a simple reading of the film as allegory Highlighting often overlooked elements of Sembene s intricate experimental film making including provocative shifts in mood and poetic even subversively erotic moments Williams reveals Xala as a visionary work of both African cinema and Third Cinema that extended the parameters of postcolonial film practice and still resounds today with its searing inventive power
