Robert Burns and Pastoral Nigel Leask, 2010-07-02 Robert Burns and Pastoral is a full scale reassessment of the writings of Robert Burns 1759-1796 arguably the most original poet writing in the British Isles between Pope and Blake and the creator of the first modern vernacular style in British poetry Although still celebrated as Scotland's national poet Burns has long been marginalised in English literary studies worldwide due to a mistaken view that his poetry is linguistically incomprehensible and of interest to Scottish readers only Nigel Leask challenges this view by interpreting Burns's poetry as an innovative and critical engagement with the experience of rural modernity namely to the revolutionary transformation of Scottish agriculture and society in the decades between 1760 and 1800 thereby resituating it within the mainstream of the Scottish and European enlightenments Detailed study of the literary social and historical contexts of Burns's poetry explodes the myth of the Heaven taught ploughman revealing his poetic artfulness and critical acumen as a social observer as well as his significance as a Romantic precursor Leask discusses Burns's radical decision to write Scots pastoral rather than English georgic poetry in the tradition of Allan Ramsay and Robert Fergusson focusing on themes of Scottish and British identity agricultural improvement poetic self fashioning language politics religion patronage poverty antiquarianism and the animal world The book offers fresh interpretations of all Burns's major poems and some of the songs the first to do so since Thomas Crawford's landmark study of 1960 It concludes with a new assessment of his importance for British Romanticism and to a Four Nations understanding of Scottish literature and culture From an Antique Land Anne MacLeod,2012-11-05 This book looks at visual images as an alternative and undervalued source of evidence for ideas about the Scottish Gàidhealtachd in the period 1700-1880 Illustrated with 100 plates it brings together many little known and previously unrelated images Addressing the textual bias inherent in Scottish historical studies the book examines a broad range of maps plans paintings drawings sketches and printed images arguing that the concept of antiquity was the single most powerful influence driving the visual representation of the Highlands and Islands from 1700 to 1880 and indeed beyond Successive chapters look at archaeological ethnological and geological motives for visualising the Highlands and at the bias in favour of antiquity which resulted from the spread of these intellectual influences into the fine arts The book concludes that the shadow of time which hallmarked visual representations of the region resulted in a preservationist mentality which has had powerful repercussions for approaches to Highland issues down to the present day The book will appeal to historians art historians cultural geographers and the general reader interested in Highland history and culture Virtue, Learning and the Scottish Enlightenment David Allan,2020-03-31 No detailed description available for Virtue Learning and the Scottish Enlightenment The Burns Supper Clark McGinn,2018-12-12 This annual celebration of the life and works of the poet Robert Burns is held in Scotland and across the globe around the anniversary of the poet's birthday in the form of a convivial dinner with particular some may say peculiar ritual traditions When the Reverend Hamilton Paul agreed to arrange the first anniversary dinner for Robert Burns patrons and friends in July 1801 he began a tradition that quite soon became a global celebration Over two hundred years later Burns Suppers are held all over the world to commemorate the life and work of a poet beloved wherever people celebrate life love and liberty From its beginning with nine Scotsmen in Burns Cottage to today where over nine million people join in the Burns Supper festivities from the USA to Russia Australia to China and somewhere near you The long and happy story of Burns Night is explored in this history of the annual event which has been called the biggest party in the world The Making of the Scottish Rural Landscape David Turnock,2016-12-05 This book looks at the evolution of rural settlement in Scotland from the Mesolithic period through to the improving movement of the 18th and 19th centuries The main emphasis is on changes in society and technology but the book also considers how the development of the physical landscape laid the foundation for such changes The author strikes a balance between general perspectives including relevant contextual materials such as the political structures and local studies with much emphasis on individual sites Lack of documentation prior to the 10th century places particular importance on the archaeological evidence but imaginative interpretation of this evidence has led to a major re evaluation Ideas emphasizing continuity of settlement and local adaptation are replacing older invasionist theories emphasizing Celtic war lords and broch building pirates
