Sensing Beauty Aesthetics The Human Spirit And The Church:

Sensing Beauty John Dykstra Eusden, John H. Westerhoff, 1998 The authors present a view of aesthetics and Christianity that is an alternative to movements of post modernity Going beyond philosophical conundrums their work probes what aesthetics reveals about beauty and truth and how it affects the human spirit and the church Sensing Sacred Jennifer Baldwin, 2016-08-30 Sensing Sacred is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of religion and body through the religious lens of practical theology with an emphasis on sensation as the embodied means in which human beings know themselves others and the divine in the world The manuscript argues that all human interaction and practice including religious praxis engages body through at least one of the human senses touch smell hearing taste sight kinestics proprioception Unfortunately body and more specifically and ironically sensation is eclipsed in contemporary academic scholarship that is inherently bent toward the realm of theory and ideas This is unfortunate because it neglects bodies physical or communal as the repository and generator of culturally conditioned ideas and theory It is ironic because all knowledge transmission minimally requires several senses including sight touch and hearing Sensing Sacred is organized into two parts The first section devotes a chapter to each human sense as an avenue of accessing religious experience while the second section explores religious practices as they specifically focus on one or more senses The overarching aim of the volume is to explicitly highlight each sense and utilize the theoretical lenses of practical theology to bring to vivid life the connections between essential sensation and religious thinking and practice Arts Ministry Michael J. Bauer, 2013-08-22 First United Methodist Church in Augusta Georgia gives concerts to raise money for local service organizations Trinity Lutheran Church in Mission Kansas has been sponsoring a religious art show for more than twenty five years Fellowship Lutheran Church runs a Christian arts camp for young people every summer These are just three of the eighteen case studies of practicing arts ministries in this book in which Michael Bauer encourages the nurture and support of all the creative gifts of God's people Bauer lays a solid foundation for arts ministry grounding it in the historic Christian tradition and urging churches to expand their engagement with the creative arts to live and worship in full color as he puts it A concluding chapter clearly lays out how to develop an arts ministry helping readers to take these ideas from theory to practice to embrace and celebrate the continuing creative activity of God in the church Toward a Theology of Beauty Jo Ann Davidson, 2008 Over the centuries theological studies have grappled with the comprehension of Truth and Goodness However theology unlike philosophy has neglected serious scrutiny of the study of Beauty or Aesthetics Jo Ann Davidson's Toward a Theology of Beauty investigates this omission Teaching Through the Storm Karen Hale Hankins, 2003-01-01 In this beautifully written narrative a first grade teacher takes us into her classroom during an emotionally stormy year Ride the storm with Hankins as she struggles to address the pressing emotional needs of her disparate students while also meeting their need for literacy development Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore, 2004-11-01 Moore asserts that

Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Dismembered Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church Taught by God: Teaching Andspiritual Formation , The history of the Christian spiritual life suggests that those who truly teach the spiritual life have been themselves taught by God The phrase taught by God occurs in Christian writings across several centuries This book draws on the teachers and teaching models that animate Christian history bringing it into conversation with the issues and concerns of contemporary teachers and learners who seek to follow Christ The authors contend that the various strands of the Christian spiritual and mystical tradition provide continuing guidance for Christian teachers in the cultivation of their own spiritual lives and the lives of their students They order this book around four aspects of Christian educational ministries the identity of the teacher contexts in which we teach models for teaching and evaluation of teaching Readers are invited to look at the world of teaching through multiple sides of a prism refracting differently with each effort drawing the eye toward a variety of subtle nuance and inviting varied interpretations of the subject we see Each chapter focuses on particular spiritual teachers Francis de Sales Catherine of Siena S ren Kierkegaard practices monastic rules spiritual direction examination of conscience and images pilgrimage imitation apprenticeship as exemplars of or frameworks for teaching and spiritual formation in the church today Will Our Children Have Faith? John H. Westerhoff,2012-08-01 This classic critique of Christian education is revised expanded and includes Westerhoff s overview on the state Christian education over the past forty years According to Westerhoff instead of guiding faith formation within the family the church and the school we relegate religious education to Sunday morning classes There children learn the facts about religion but how will they learn or experience faith How can we nourish and nurture the faith of children instead of only teaching the facts The Publishers Weekly ,1998 Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 The Aesthetics of Enchantment in the Fine Arts M. Kronegger,Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2013-03-14 Let us revive the true sense of fine arts enchantment In the conceptualised commercialised artificial approach to fine arts we forgot its authentic experiential sense It lies at the imaginative heart of all arts there to be retrieved by the creative recipient as the very truth of it all American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing,1999-03 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003-04

Restoring the First century Church in the Twenty first Century Essays on the Stone Campbell Restoration Movement in Honor of Don Haymes is a snap shot of a major American religious movement just after the turn of the millennium When the Disciples of Alexander Campbell and the Christians of Barton Warren Stone joined forces early in the 19th century the first indigenous ecumenical movement in the United States came into being Two hundred years later this American experiment in biblical primitivism has resulted in three possibly four large segments Best known is the Christian Church Disciples of Christ active wherever ecumenical Christians gather The denomination is typically theologically open having been reshaped by theological Liberalism and the Social Gospel in the twentieth century and has been re organized on the model of other Protestant bodies The largest group the Churches of Christ easily distinguished by their insistence on a cappella music singing only is theologically conservative now tending towards the evangelical and congregationally autonomous though with a denominational sense of brotherhood The Christian Churches Churches of Christ Independent are a via media between the two other bodies theologically conservative and evangelical congregationally autonomous pastorally oriented and comfortable with instrumental music The fourth numerically significant group the churches of Christ Anti Institutional is a conservative reaction to the a cappella churches much in the way that the Southern a capella churches reacted against the emerging intellectual culture and social location instrumental music and institutional centrism of the Northern Disciples following the Civil War Besides these four numerous smaller fragments typically one article splinter groups decorate the history of the Restoration Movement One Cup brethren Premillennialists No Sunday School congregations No Located Preacher churches and others This movement to unite Christians on the basis of faith and immersion in Jesus Christ and to restore New Testament Christianity is too little recognized on the American religious landscape and it has been too little studied by the academic community This volume is focused primarily on the a cappella churches and their interests but implications for the entire Stone Campbell Restoration Movement abound The voices that speak freely within were unimpeded in authoring these essays by standards of orthodoxy imposed from without All of the contributors are acquainted with Don Haymes the honoree of the volume and have been inspired by this friend and colleague a man with a rigorous and earthy intellect and a heavenly spirit David Bundy series editor Studies in the History and Culture of World Christianities

For Him Who Has Eyes to See Edmund J. Rybarczyk, 2016-09-30 Too many Christians are afraid of beauty This fear disconnects these Christians from their larger culture a culture that is increasingly visual increasingly aware of the presence and power of images and more commonly fascinated by the power of beauty and form This historical theological overview presents the thought of ten theologians and one philosopher in an attempt to give Christians helpful vocabulary concerning beauty and aesthetics It is time to use beauty and aesthetics for the mission of Christ And yet rather than simply parrot the larger post Christian culture Christians and churches need to employ beauty and aesthetics in a manner that echoes God's own revelation creation and redemption through Jesus Christ We need to develop a sensitivity that can perceive beauties ignored We need theological framing that both respects the glory of God's handiwork and keeps it from becoming idolatrous We need to live with wonder for the bounty that routinely surrounds us In short we need eyes to see

Living Beauty Alejandro García-Rivera, Alex García-Rivera, Thomas J. Scirghi, 2008 The Christian mystery celebrated in the Roman Catholic liturgy is a sensible mystery and calls out for artistic expression Living Beauty explores the Christian mystery and points to the need for a liturgical aesthetic as a means to encounter the divine mystery A liturgical aesthetic gives an account of Christian worship in terms of a new set of categories that includes divine beauty a theology of sensibility and the new notion of a unitive revelatory experience These categories help to reveal the aesthetic dimensions of the Church's watershed document on the liturgy Sacrosanctum Concilium The Church today stands in need of a new conversation on the aesthetic dimension of the liturgy and the role of the arts Contrary to common opinion the arts provide more than an environment or mere extrinsic ornamentation for the liturgy they are intrinsic to the very nature of liturgy They provide the means of being sanctified in the encounter with divine beauty that is the mystery of Christian worship Artistic expression enables the worshipping community to receive the divine mystery in beauty stic expression enables the worshipping community to receive the divine mystery in beauty stic expression enables the worshipping community to receive the divine mystery in beauty Theology and the (post)apartheid condition Rian Venter, 2016-12-01 Knowledge transmission and generation belong to the core mission of the public university In democratic South Africa the transformation of these processes and practices in higher education has become an urgent and contested task The Faculty of Theology at the University of the Free State has already done some original work on the implications of these for theology One area of investigation that has not yet received due attention concerns the role of theological disciplines and especially the relation between academic disciplines and societal dynamics This research project addresses the challenge and this volume reflects the intellectual endeavour of lectures research fellows and a post graduate student associated with the faculty Each theological discipline has its own history and has already experienced reconstruction both globally and in South Africa Some of these genealogical developments and re-envisioning are mapped by the contributions in this volume The critical questions addressed are what are the contours of the post apartheid condition and what are the implications for responsible disciplinary practices in theology The chapters convey an impression of the vitality of theology at the University of the Free State and in South Africa and give expression to fundamental shifts that have taken place in theological disciplines and also of future tasks This research project aims to stimulate reflection on responsible and innovative disciplinary practices of theology in South Africa which we envisage will contribute to social justice and human flourishing Rian Venter University of the Free State Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1959-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world The Father's Spirit of Sonship Thomas Weinandy, 2011-01-01 This book attempts to reconceive the Trinity Its thesis is that the Father beget the Son in or by the Holy Spirit The Spirit proceeds from the Father as the one in whom the Son is begotten While some contemporary authors have proposed a similar view no one has done so in such a complete and systematic fashion Reconceiving the Trinity in this way has a number of advantages Firstly it is more in keeping with the New Testament proclamation and thus it more closely aligns the economic and immanent Trinity Secondly it overcomes the inadequacies of traditional trinitarian formulations in both Eastern and Western Churches which incorporates erroneous philosophical presuppositions Thirdly it offers a resolution to the filioque controversy which may be acceptable to both the Latin and the Orthodox Churches This book is therefore highly ecumenical in importance Fourthly it gives a more active and essential role to the Holy Spirit within the immanent Trinity something that has been lacking throughout the trinitarian tradition The true subjectivity or personality of the Holy Spirit is more clearly defined This book brings out the spiritual and practical importance of the Trinity for the everyday lives of Christians It defines more clearly how Christians are grafted into the very life of the Trinity how they come to relate to the persons of the Trinity in a manner analogous to the way they relate to one another
