Children's Books that Nurture the Spirit Louise Margaret Granahan, 2003 Children develop in so many ways: physically, intellectually, socially, and spiritually. Story is just one of the ways to foster and support a child's faith development. This supplement to standard children's literature textbooks will be a help to instructors as they engage their students in discussions about selection of materials, censorship, dealing with curricular issues, the need to understand administrative policies, community beliefs, and their responses to these issues. It is designed to help instructors discuss books in ways that inspire collegiality, collaboration, and scholarship in book evaluation and selection. Using actual case studies, resource reviews, and/or scenarios of censorship, religion, violence, ethnicity, and other issues, the instructor will be able to encourage discussion and reflective thought about real issues faced by teachers and librarians as they select materials for classroom or school library use.
