Yongey Mingyur Rinpoche, Helen Tworikov, 2019-05-07 A rare intimate account of a world renowned Buddhist monk's near death experience and the life changing wisdom he gained from it One of the most inspiring books I have ever read Pema Chodron author of When Things Fall Apart This book has the potential to change the reader's life forever George Saunders author of Lincoln in the Bardo At thirty six years old Yongey Mingyur Rinpoche was a rising star within his generation of Tibetan masters and the respected abbot of three monasteries Then one night telling no one he slipped out of his monastery in India with the intention of spending the next four years on a wandering retreat following the ancient practice of holy mendicants His goal was to throw off his titles and roles in order to explore the deepest aspects of his being He immediately discovered that a lifetime of Buddhist education and practice had not prepared him to deal with dirty fellow travelers or the screeching of a railway car He found he was too attached to his identity as a monk to remove his robes right away or to sleep on the Varanasi station floor and instead paid for a bed in a cheap hostel But when he ran out of money he began his life as an itinerant beggar in earnest Soon he became deathly ill from food poisoning and his journey took a startling turn His meditation practice had prepared him to face death and now he had the opportunity to test the strength of his training In this powerful and unusually candid account of the inner life of a Buddhist master Yongey Mingyur Rinpoche offers us the invaluable lessons he learned from his near death experience By sharing with readers the meditation practices that sustain him he shows us how we can transform our fear of dying into joyful living Praise for In Love with the World Vivid compelling This book is a rarity in spiritual literature Reading the intimate story of this wise and devoted Buddhist monk directly infuses our own transformational journey with fresh meaning luminosity and life Tara Brach author of Radical Acceptance and True Refuge In Love with the World is a magnificent story moving and inspiring profound and utterly human It will certainly be a dharma classic Jack Kornfield author of A Path with Heart This book makes me think enlightenment is possible Russell Brand

The Life of Milarepa Gtsaṅ-smyon He-ru-ka, 1977 Includes Translator's notes p 204 221 Tibetan Diary Geoff Childs, 2004-09-27 In this rich and deeply personal account of life in the highlands of Nepal Geoff Childs chronicles the daily existence of a range of people from venerated lamas to humble householders Offering insights into the complex dynamics of the ethnically Tibetan enclave of Nubri Childs provides a vivid and compelling portrait of the ebb and flow of life and death of communal harmony and discord and of personal conflicts and social resolutions Part ethnography part travelogue and part biography Tibetan Diary is a one of a kind book that conveys the tangled intricacies of a Tibetan society Childs's immensely readable and informative narrative incorporates contemporary observations as well as vignettes culled from first person testaments including oral histories and autobiographies Examining the tensions between cultural ideals and individual aspirations he explores certain junctures in the course of life how the desire to attain religious knowledge or to secure a caretaker in old age contrasts with social expectations and familial obligation for example The result is a vivid and unparalleled view of the quest for both spiritual meaning and mundane survival that typifies life in an unpredictable

Himalayan environment Himalayan Hermitess Kurtis R. Schaeffer, 2004 Orgyan Chokyi 1675 1729 spent her life in Dolpo the highest inhabited region of the Nepal Himalayas Illiterate and expressly forbidden by her master to write her own life story Orgyan Chokyi received divine inspiration to compose one of the most forthright and engaging spiritual autobiographies of the Tibetan literary tradition Her life story is the oldest of only four Tibetan autobiographies authored by women It is also a rare example of writing by a pre modern Buddhist woman and thus holds a unique place in Buddhist literature as a whole Translator Kurtis Schaeffer prefaces the text with an illuminating study of the life and times of Orgyan Chokyi and an extended analysis of the hermitess's view of the relation between gender suffering and liberation Based almost entirely on primary Tibetan documents never before translated this fascinating book will be of interest to those studying Buddhism gender and religion and the culture of the Tibetan world Death and Reincarnation in Tibetan Buddhism Tanya Zivkovic, 2014 Contextualising the seemingly esoteric and exotic aspects of Tibetan Buddhist culture within the everyday embodied and sensual sphere of religious praxis this book centres on the social and religious lives of deceased Tibetan Buddhist lamas It explores how posterior forms corpses relics reincarnations and hagiographical representations extend a lama's trajectory of lives and manipulate biological imperatives of birth and death The book looks closely at previously unexamined figures whose history is relevant to a better understanding of how Tibetan culture navigates its own understanding of reincarnation the veneration of relics and different social roles of different types of practitioners It analyses both the minutiae of everyday interrelations between lamas and their devotees specifically noted in ritual performances and the enactment of lived tradition and the sacred hagiographical conventions that underpin local knowledge A phenomenology of Tibetan Buddhist life the book provides an ethnography of the everyday embodiment of Tibetan Buddhism This unusual approach offers a valuable and a genuine new perspective on Tibetan Buddhist culture and is of interest to researchers in the fields of social cultural anthropology and religious Buddhist and Tibetan studies
