BOOK JACKET Fashion Cultures Revisited Stella Bruzzi, Pamela Church Gibson, 2013-12-04

Following on from the ground breaking collection Fashion Cultures this second anthology Fashion Cultures Revisited contains 26 newly commissioned chapters exploring fashion culture from the start of the new millennium to the present day. The book is divided into six parts each discussing different aspects of fashion culture: Shopping spaces and globalisation; Changing imagery; changing media; Altered landscapes; new modes of production; Icons and their legacies; Contestation; compliance; feminisms; Making masculinities. Fashion Cultures Revisited explores every facet of contemporary fashion culture and the associated spheres of photography, magazines and television and shopping. Consequently it is an ideal companion to those interested in fashion studies, cultural studies, art film, fashion history, sociology and gender studies. Holidays in the Danger Zone Debbie Lisle, 2016-07-15 Holidays in the Danger Zone exposes the mundane and everyday interactions between two seemingly opposed worlds: warfare and tourism. Debbie Lisle shows how a tourist sensibility shapes the behavior of soldiers in war, especially the experiences of Western military forces in exotic settings. This includes not only R R but also how battlefields become landscapes of leisure and tourism. She further explores how a military sensibility shapes the development of tourism in the postwar context, from Dark Tourism engaging with displays of conflict and atrocity to exhibitions of conflict in museums and at memorial sites, as well as advertising, film, journals, guidebooks, blogs and photography. Focused on how war and tourism reinforce prevailing modes of domination, Holidays in the Danger Zone critically examines the long historical arc of the war tourism nexus from nineteenth century imperialism to World War I and World War II, from the Cold War to globalization and the War on Terror. Liminalities of Gender and Sexuality in Nineteenth-Century Iranian Photography Staci Gem Scheiwiller, 2016-12-01 Nineteenth century Iran was an ocularcentered society predicated on visibility and what was seen and unseen, and photographs became liminal sites of desire that maneuvered betwixt and between various social spaces: public/private, seen/unseen, accessible and forbidden, thus mapping, graphing and even transgressing those spaces, especially in light of increasing modernization and global contact during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Of primary interest is how photographs negotiated and coded gender, sexuality and desire, becoming strategies of empowerment, of domination, of expression and of being seen. Hence the photograph became a vehicle to traverse multiple locations that various gendered physical bodies could not, and it was also the social and political relations that had preceded the photograph that determined those ideological spaces of immobility. In identifying these notions in photographs, one may glean information about how modern Iran metamorphosed throughout its own long duration or resisted those societal transformations as a result of modernization. American Photo, 2005-05 Illustrated Outdoor World and Recreation, 1917
